HOOKSTOWN'S ROYALTY. An estimated 5,000 persons witnessed the crowning of Miss Mary Laughner of Monaca and James Hoey of Beaver Falls R. D. 1 at the Hookstown Grange Fair Thursday night. They were designated Beaver County's 4-H king and queen. The ceremony climaxed youth events in the fair, which opened Wednesday and will close Saturday night.

Cross Over From Tibet

Red Chinese Enter India On 2 Fronts, Nehru Says

Communists Seize North Border Post

Drive Off 12-Man Picket Detachment; 4 Guards Missing

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said today that Chinese Communist troops have crossed from Tibet into Indian territory on two widely separated frontiers and apparently are staying.

In India's northeast frontier area, Nehru told Parliament, several hundred Chinese apparently seized an Indian border post this week after driving off a 12-man picket detachment with gunfire. Nehru said four border guards are missing.

Nehru said the Chinese also had established a camp in a remote, uninhabited border sector of the Ladakh area of Kashmir, more than 1,000 miles west of the crossings on the northeast frontier. The Chinese also are reported building a road across the area, cutting off several hundred square miles of Indian territory.

Nehru said the Chinese moved into the Ladakh region in October 1957. The Indian reconnaissance party was sent into the region at the end of last month.

There was no indication in Nehru's statement why he waited so long before acting.

He said India had protested to Peiping but so far had no satisfaction.

"There is no alternative but to guard our borders and integrity," he declared. "We will have to be vigilant."

Nehru made no announcement, however, of military counteraction.

On the mountainous northeast frontier, Nehru said, the Chinese crossed into India from Tibet on Aug. 25 and fired on a picket post in the Kameng section. He said the Reds returned on Aug. 26, opened fire again, and practically encircled the border post.

The Indian border patrol withdrew, Nehru continued, and the Chinese are presumed to be still holding the position.

India protested to Peiping, and the Chinese reply, received as Nehru sat in Parliament, claimed the Indians on Aug. 25 fired first and the Chinese shot back in self-defense. Peiping said it knew nothing about the border crossing the next day.

"I give credence to our own reports," Nehru said as the deputies cheered in approval. "All circumstantial evidence supports our view. I believe it is ture."

Earlier in the session Nehru said the Chinese were forcibly holding Indian territory in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir, on the House Dares Ike Veto On Housing Bill

Measure Contains Same Features He Turned Down Once

WASHINGTON (AP)—A defiant Congress, turning a deaf ear to Republican veto warnings, today handed President Eisenhower a "last chance" billion-dollar housing bill.

Party lines fell apart Thursday as the House, by a topheavy 283-105 vote, completed congressional action on a $1,050,000,000 bill that contained the same features that prompted a housing veto last month.

At stake was the President's perfect record of never having a veto overriden. This time the House virtually dared him to challenge its action.

The overwhelming vote far exceeded the two-thirds necessary to override. The Senate vote, on Aug. 19, likewise was by a overriding majority of 72-14.

With adjournment fever mounting, and House leaders looking forward to quitting by next weekend, the President was confronted with a take-it-or-leave-it proposition.

"If President Eisenhower wants a housing bill, this is his last chance," proclaimed Rep. Albert Rains (D-Ala), sponsor of the bill and Democratic housing spokesman.

When the President vetoed the first $1,375,000,000 housing bill as excessive, he hit at new public housing authority, loans to extend the government into college classroom construction, and other features.

And in a message last Tuesday, Eisenhower told Congress to limit itself to extending the authority of the Federal Housing Administration to insure home mortgages. This insurance authority, which does not involve additional funds, is already about five billion dollars in excess of congressional limitations.

But the House Thursday, with machine-gun monotony, knocked down successive Republican-backed efforts to revise the bill and kill features already denounced as objectionable by the President.

On final passage, 54 Republicans and 229 Democrats voted for the bill. Only 76 Republicans and 29 Democrats voted against it.

Principal features retained in the bill over Eisenhower's objections were 37,000 new units of public housing, an entirely new program of federal loans for college classrooms, a one-year "crash" program of 650 million dollars for city slum elimination, and a one-year cutoff date on FHA mortgage insurance authority.

U.S. Planes To Fly Equipment To Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — American planes will fly small military equipment to Laos in the next few days to help the little kingdom battle Communist rebels.

Based in the Philippines and, perhaps, Japan, the cargo planes will bring arms, ammunition, tents and jeep-type vehicles to Laos.

Potters Await Trade Vote On Pension Plans

Tuesday, Sept. 8, has been chosen as the date for a trade referndum on a proposed pension plan for international officers and representatives of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

The plan was submitted to the union's international convention in July in Montreal, Canada, but the final decision was left to a vote throughout the trade.

Highlights of the proposal were explained in a sample referendum ballot published today in the Potters Herald, official union newspaper.

It provides that the initial pension fund would be created by a $10,000 transfer from the defense fund. Participants would pay 3 per cent of their total earnings in excess of $350, it provides.

Fifteen years would be the minimum amount of service under a normal retirement. The maximum pension would not exceed 22 per cent of the average monthly earnings of the retired person, the proposal says. The minimum would be $75 monthly.

Under normal circumstances, the official or representative would complete 15 years' service and would have attained age 65 before retiring, it says. In case a covered official was ruled permanently and totally disabled after 15 years' service, he would be entitled to a $125-a-month pension.

The system would be administered by a board appointed by the union Executive Board. It would include one representative each from the general or chinaware industry, refractories and the sanitary ware branch. The pension board would report to each international convention.

Car-Rig Crash Injures 3 Men

Stratton Trio Hurt As Auto Hits Truck

Three Stratton men were injured, one seriously, when their auto rammed the rear of a tractor-trailer rig Thursday night at the Port Homer railroad crossing on Route 7.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said the auto was driven by Charles Taylor, 22, who was trying to pass another vehicle when he saw an approaching car and rammed the truck while attempting to re-enter the north-bound lane.

A passenger in Taylor's auto, Andy Turick, 22, is in "fairly good" condition today in City Hospital with severe lacerations of the upper left arm.

Taylor and another passenger, Charles Turick, 20, were both treated at City Hospital for lacerations and later released.

The north - bound rig was driven by Cecil E. Clement, 29, of Streetsboro, the patrol said. He escaped injury and his vehicle was not damaged.

Taylor, whose auto was demolished in the crash at 10:25 last night, was cited for passing with-

British Queen Greets Ike On Scotland Visit

President Breaks Up Diplomatic Mission In Overnight Pause

BALMORAL, Scotland (AP) — President Eisenhower broke into his diplomatic mission to Western Europe today with a social visit to Britain's royal family at Balmoral Castle. Queen Elizabeth II made a completely unexpected appearance to the gates to welcome him.

"Well, well, I'm delighted to see you," said the Queen, slim and elegant though she is expecting her third child early next year.

Eisenhower bowed and said: "Thank you ma'am. It's wonderful to be here."

It was a friendly and informal beginning for Eisenhower's overnight visit.

Surprisingly, the Queen not only came out to see Eisenhower but did it on television.

The President had driven 50 miles with Prince Philip in a car from the airport at Dyce to cheers of crowds along the way.

The Queen — who danced until the early hours this morning at a castle ball for her servants — presented the President to Princess Margaret.

The Queen wore a powder blue suit with shirt jacket. Her skirt snuggly hugged her hips.

The Queen — whose baby is expected in late January or February — certainly showed no physical signs of it. With Eisenhower, she inspected the royal bodyguard, Royal Highland Fusiliers. Then together with Prince

Test Pilot Due In First X15 Power Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Test pilot Scott Crossfield goes up for the first X15 power flight today—in a ship that has never been flown before.

If successful, the flight will be a major milestone in the X15's way to space. It is designed ultimately to rocket a man 100 miles or more above the earth at speeds close to 4,000 miles an hour.

Today's X15, No. 2 in a series of three, has been in the air only once, and then it was locked under the wing of a B52 bomber.

All three ships are identical, however, and Crossfield is confident No. 2 will work as well as the No. 1 craft did on its powerless glide flight June 8.

This flight is a test of the 50-foot black plane's first powerplant, a set of two low-thrust rocket engines. Later this year a single-chamber engine three times as powerful will replace them.

The whole procedure, from B52 take-off to X15 landing, should take about 45 minutes.

The X15s are made by North American Aviation, Inc., under contract to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Crossfield, a test pilot for North American, has been at the controls in all tests so far.

U.S. Might Attempt Moon Shot In October

WASHINGTON (AP)—Oct. 2, 3 and 4 will be good dates for shooting a rocket at the moon.

There is reliable information that such an attempt is in the works for a 375-pound American lunar probe to go close to the moon and possibly into an orbit around it.

The previous U.S. lunar probe, Pioneer IV, last March came within 37,000 miles of the moon and then slipped past it into an orbit around the sun.

The moon will be at its closest point to the earth — 220,000 miles — on Oct. 4.

It would take the rocket at least 33½ hours to get there, so it might be launched Oct. 2 or 3.

Herter, Lloyd Confer On East-West Relations

LONDON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd today began a survey of East-West relations ranging over the Berlin crisis, disarmament, and a nuclear weapon test ban.

The two opened their discussions in preparation for President Eisenhower's weekend conferences with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Classes Resume Tuesday

5,587 Will Attend Public Schools

An estimated 5,587 pupils will answer the school bell in East Liverpool Tuesday morning, beginning the 1959-60 term.

An additional 525 are expected at St. Aloysius Parochial School, opening a week later. This will make the total anticipated city enrollment 6,112.

Supt. Ralph W. Betts said the estimate is high and that no great change is anticipated in the enrollment. There were 5,408 students enrolled last year.

The pupils will report for a full day of classes, he said.

A general teachers' meeting will be held Monday morning at 9:45 in the general purpose room at Westgate Junior High. A principals' meeting will follow at 11 a. m. in the library. Meetings of instructors at the individual buildings will be held at 2 p. m.

A WELCOME FOR new teachers joining the East Liverpool and Beaver Local school systems will follow the Westgate sessions. The event is being sponsored by the East Liverpool Teachers Association and Chamber of Commerce. It will include a coffee hour, a tour of the area and a luncheon at the Travelers Hotel.

Betts said all teaching positions have been filled. There are 16 new instructors joining the system this year with 2 returning from leaves of absence.

The new teachers include Miss Mary Underwood, James Harris, Henry Keith Langdon and Miss Carol Hand, high school; Miss Rita McNinch, East Junior High; Mrs. Margaret Stanley Bowen, Wilbur J. Horvath, Everett Daniels and Mrs. Marjorie Wright, Westgate, Mrs. Ramona Campbell, Glenmoor; Miss Joan Hutchman and Mrs. Gladys Patterson, Taft; John Berry, elementary instrumental music instructor; Robert Apel, LaCroft; Mrs. Kathleen Kelly, Garfield, and Miss Burdene Bowman, vocal music instructor for Garfield, Horace Mann, and East Junior High.

JAMES PROCTOR and Mrs. Sally Hamilton will return to Westgate after leaves.

The cafeteria will open the first day at Westgate, Betts said all starting and dismissal times will be the same as last year and the bus schedules remain unchanged.

High School pupils will report at 8:40 a. m. and will be dismissed at 3:47 p. m. while Westgate Junior High will start at 8:25 a. m. and dismiss at 3:01. Classes at East Junior High will start at 8:40 a. m. and dismiss at 3:55. Elementary schools will generally observe the hours of 9 a. m. to noon and 1:10 to 3:40 p. m.

Shotgun Blast Kills Prowling Stray Cheetah

NEW CUMBERLAND — The scene called for a dense jungle, shrieking birds and chanting African native porters.

Instead, there was only a meek housewife, one shotgun and the friendly hills of her native West Virginia.

But a hunt for an animal which killed seven of her chickens in one night bordered on an African safari for Mrs. Ethel Wright, 54, who resides about 3 miles south on Route 2.

Mrs. Wright bagged the chicken-killer Thursday morning—a spotted cheetah.

She had heard noises in her chicken coop Wednesday night and upon awakening yesterday morning, found the spotted cheetah in the midst of her hens.

"I saw the thing standing there and killed it with one blast of my shotgun right between the eyes," she said.

The question of where the cheetah came from still is puzzling Hancock County Game Warden Walter McCrea, who said it was about 4-months old and appeared to be a family pet.

The cheetah stood 10-inches high and 42-inches long. It seemed to be "domesticated" and well cared for and apparently was a household pet, the game warden said.

The animal was wearing a red collar with brass studs and was probably wandering in the wooded

Fair Attendance Reaches 20,000 With 2 Days Left

LISBON — An estimated 20,000 persons visited the 114th annual Columbiana County Fair the first three days, according to Clarence Crosser, secretary, with the turnout today and Saturday expected to swell the total considerably. The remaining two days usually are the best "gate" days.

Approximately 11,000 tickets were purchased at the gates since Tuesday. This does not include membership or exhibitors' tickets nor any children the first day — youth day. Children under 12 are admitted free.

John Oliver was unable to make a balloon ascension last night because of the heavy wind. He is scheduled to try again this evening around 5.

Tonight's main attraction before the grandstand will be the livestock and machinery parade and the "Frosty Follies" ice review of ice skaters in variety and comedy routines.

The event for the closing day will be pony pulling contest at 9:30 a. m., concluding harness races at 1:30 p. m., another attempt at the balloon ascension at 5 p. m., livestock and machinery parade before the grandstand at 7:30 and the "Frosty Follies" show at 8.

Winners in the second day of harness races were:

Trot — Free-for-all, $600 purse: Little Demon, driven by E. Evans; Sky Ballard, J. Maglich; Love Record, F. McKenzie, and Gay Worthy, C. Woolman Jr.

2:22 trot, $500 purse: Mr. Up, B. Woolman, and Favonian Tass, A. Meredith, tied for first money; My Valiant Lady, C. Woolman Jr., and Dennis Volo, J. W. Ebner.

Chester Woman Beaten Severely By Prowler

Hancock County sheriff's deputies today were searching for a pistol-brandishing prowler who entered the home of a Chester woman early today and beat her so badly she required hospitalization.

Peggy Stoltz, 21, of 500 Louisiana Ave., is in "fair" condition in City Hospital with multiple scalp lacerations, abrasions and contusions of the face and neck she said she received in the attack.

A neighbor rushed to the woman's home when he heard screams today at 2:05 a. m. The sheriff's office in New Cumberland said an investigation is being pressed in the alleged attack.

Heat Lessens But Hot Spell Will Continue

After nearly two weeks of "hot" negotiations, the East Liverpool committee bargaining for a break in the heat wave was ready to sign an interim agreement with the Ohio weatherman today.

The forecaster offered a slight reduction in temperatures and fringe benefits of reduced humidity and light breezes but insisted the hot spell will continue a few days longer.

It looked like a "Chinaman's pact," but the committee said "This is better than what we have been getting."

The forecast is for a high of 93 today but Dam 8 had only 91 Thursday, indicating slight relief, and the humidity was much lower this morning. Tonight's low will be 70 to 74. The overnight low was 73 at the dam.

East Liverpool got no rain yesterday although skies were cloudy in the late afternoon and lightning flashed on the horizon.

Some areas had showers but they were scattered. There was a brief rain at Hookstown and a motorist reported driving through a show-

Shotgun Blast Kills Prowling Stray Cheetah

NEW CUMBERLAND — The scene called for a dense jungle, shrieking birds and chanting African native porters.

Instead, there was only a meek housewife, one shotgun and the friendly hills of her native West Virginia.

But a hunt for an animal which killed seven of her chickens in one night bordered on an African safari for Mrs. Ethel Wright, 54, who resides about 3 miles south on Route 2.

Mrs. Wright bagged the chicken-killer Thursday morning—a spotted cheetah.

She had heard noises in her chicken coop Wednesday night and upon awakening yesterday morning, found the spotted cheetah in the midst of her hens.

"I saw the thing standing there and killed it with one blast of my shotgun right between the eyes," she said.

The question of where the cheetah came from still is puzzling Hancock County Game Warden Walter McCrea, who said it was about 4-months old and appeared to be a family pet.

The cheetah stood 10-inches high and 42-inches long. It seemed to be "domesticated" and well cared for and apparently was a household pet, the game warden said.

The animal was wearing a red collar with brass studs and was probably wandering in the wooded

Fair Attendance Reaches 20,000 With 2 Days Left

LISBON — An estimated 20,000 persons visited the 114th annual Columbiana County Fair the first three days, according to Clarence Crosser, secretary, with the turnout today and Saturday expected to swell the total considerably. The remaining two days usually are the best "gate" days.

Approximately 11,000 tickets were purchased at the gates since Tuesday. This does not include membership or exhibitors' tickets nor any children the first day — youth day. Children under 12 are admitted free.

John Oliver was unable to make a balloon ascension last night because of the heavy wind. He is scheduled to try again this evening around 5.

Tonight's main attraction before the grandstand will be the livestock and machinery parade and the "Frosty Follies" ice review of ice skaters in variety and comedy routines.

The event for the closing day will be pony pulling contest at 9:30 a. m., concluding harness races at 1:30 p. m., another attempt at the balloon ascension at 5 p. m., livestock and machinery parade before the grandstand at 7:30 and the "Frosty Follies" show at 8.

Winners in the second day of harness races were:

Trot — Free-for-all, $600 purse: Little Demon, driven by E. Evans; Sky Ballard, J. Maglich; Love Record, F. McKenzie, and Gay Worthy, C. Woolman Jr.

2:22 trot, $500 purse: Mr. Up, B. Woolman, and Favonian Tass, A. Meredith, tied for first money; My Valiant Lady, C. Woolman Jr., and Dennis Volo, J. W. Ebner.

Pace—2-year-olds, $1,320 purse: Single Eddie, Ed Musser, and Sue Sue, P. Skinner, tied for first money; Silver Ronnie, D. A. Robert-

Chester Woman Beaten Severely By Prowler

Hancock County sheriff's deputies today were searching for a pistol-brandishing prowler who entered the home of a Chester woman early today and beat her so badly she required hospitalization.

Peggy Stoltz, 21, of 500 Louisiana Ave., is in "fair" condition in City Hospital with multiple scalp lacerations, abrasions and contusions of the face and neck she said she received in the attack.

A neighbor rushed to the woman's home when he heard screams today at 2:05 a. m. The sheriff's office in New Cumberland said an investigation is being pressed in the alleged attack.

Heat Lessens But Hot Spell Will Continue

After nearly two weeks of "hot" negotiations, the East Liverpool committee bargaining for a break in the heat wave was ready to sign an interim agreement with the Ohio weatherman today.

The forecaster offered a slight reduction in temperatures and fringe benefits of reduced humidity and light breezes but insisted the hot spell will continue a few days longer.

It looked like a "Chinaman's pact," but the committee said "This is better than what we have been getting."

The forecast is for a high of 93 today but Dam 8 had only 91 Thursday, indicating slight relief, and the humidity was much lower this morning. Tonight's low will be 70 to 74. The overnight low was 73 at the dam.

East Liverpool got no rain yesterday although skies were cloudy in the late afternoon and lightning flashed on the horizon.

Some areas had showers but they were scattered. There was a brief rain at Hookstown and a motorist reported driving through a show-

Glassworkers And Industry Resume Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Contract talks resumed here today between the American Flint Glass Workers and the Glass Container Manufacturers Assn. with strong indication that the union would reject an industry money offer.

Federal Mediator William Rose, who has been sitting in on the talks since they shifted to Pittsburgh from Atlantic City, said the most he hopes for is that the union will come up with a counter proposal.

The industry proposed a one-year agreement Thursday that would provide an average 8½-cent hourly pay increase. The union has been pressing for a 25-cent hourly wage hike.

The industry also wants contract language changed in clauses covering weekend working schedules. Currently workers can refuse to work on Saturday and Sunday without penalty.

The negotiations involve about 2,000 moldworkers employed by 26 companies in 88 plants across the nation. They are earning an average $2.80 an hour under the current contract which expires Aug. 31.

Another 48,000 production workers employed by the 26 companies are keeping a close eye on the talks since the moldworkers agreement usually sets the pattern for the remainder of the industry.

Contracts covering the remaining 48,000 production workers also expire Aug. 31. All would be free to strike if contracts are not renewed by then.

Earlier Rose described the negotiations as "very tense."

Farm Agent Sees Big Hancock Apple Crop

Oliver Johnson, Hancock County agricultural agent, has predicted a big apple crop for the county's growers.

Summer varieties such as summer champions and nonpariels have been picked and soon they will be packing fall varieties.

"We have a big apple crop in Hancock County, as does all of West Virginia. The crop over the nation is 6 per cent less than last year, but still 9 per cent above average. Growers are hoping for a favorable processing price, as the sauce and canners set the floor under apple prices," he commented.

Bloodstained Bag Only Clue In Cincinnati Murder Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — A bloodstained paper bag was about the only clue police had today in their investigation of the slaying of Thomas J. O'Keefe, 59, in a 14th floor washroom of the downtown Carew Tower.

The bag, bearing the name of a music store, was found under O'Keefe's body in the washroom Thursday. The slain man, a claims adjuster for the Travelers' Insurance Co., had been beaten on the head.

A former Negro prize fighter, reported to have been seen in the building, was taken into custody later, but was released after questioning.

Dr. Frank Cleveland, coroner's pathologist, said O'Keefe's death was due to four blows on the head.

Suspicion was directed at the Negro when one of O'Keefe's fellow employes said he bumped into him when he left the washroom earlier.

James Earp, building superintendent, also said a man answering that description had been ejected from the building Wednesday for soliciting money in 20th floor offices.

Police have theorized O'Keefe's assailant may have been carrying the death weapon in the paper bag that was found under the body.

O'Keefe moved here from Louisville, Ky., two years ago. He is survived by the widow and a daughter, Mrs. William Donovan of Tallahassee, Fla.

New And Stronger 'Artificial' Comets Near, Russians Claim

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviets claim they are close to developing new and more powerful "artificial comets" that could be seen if they reach the planet Mars, at least 50 million miles away.

The idea, a Soviet report translated here says, would be to provide a space-probing rocket with a kind of taillight consisting of a cloud of chemical gas having high reflective powers for sunlight.

Such a device, the Soviets claim, could automatically and visually signal the arrival of the rocket in the vicinity of Mars even if radio communication at such a great distance failed.

The cloud of gas, automatically belched from the rocket, would also allow new tests of the density and temperature of the gas that fills interplanetary space, Soviet scientists say.

The Soviet report, translated and distributed by the U.S. Department of Commerce, declared the new possibilities stem from initial success with a form of "artificial comet" arrangement used in the Soviet rocket Mechta launched last January.

Mechta was equipped with a device that spewed out a cloud of sodium gas which the Soviets claim they spotted.

Sales Manager Wins 14-Day European Trip

Zangwill Kamil of Gilson Ave., district sales manager for P. F. Collier & Sons Corp., which has an office at 132 E. 5th St., will begin a 14-day all-expense vacation in Europe Sept. 4 for his record in selling the company's encyclopedia.

Kamil is one of 35 Collier representatives on the trip, which will include France, Switzerland and Italy. He said his sales topped all others in the United States. The party will leave Idlewild Airport in New York City via Lufthansa—the German airline—and will make its first stop in Paris.

Death Toll Rises To 16 In Mexican Earthquake

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The confirmed death toll stood at 16 today in Mexico's worst earthquake of the year, but many areas in the quake area in southern Mexico still had not been heard from.

All the dead so far were reported from Veracruz state, in an area of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec bordering and just south of the Gulf of Mexico.

Officials said there were at least 60 injured in the state.

Night Blooming Plant Flowers Second Time

Mrs. John Lawrence of Hammondsville has an oddity in the flower world — her night blooming cereus is blooming for the second time this summer.

A cereus is a species of cacti with nocturnal blooms. Mrs. Lawrence has had her 6-foot plant for five years.

Two blooms opened Tuesday night and three more opened Wednesday night. Each bloom measures about 8-inches across and emits a pleasant, fragrant odor.

The buds begin to open at dusk and are completely open at midnight. Mrs. Lawrence said she keeps the plant indoors during fall and winter, transplanting it outside in the spring.

4 Motorists Forfeit $35 In Court At Lisbon

LISBON — Four motorists, forfeited bonds totaling $35 in Mayor John Todd's court Thursday when they failed to appear for hearings. They were: fourth grades will be from 11:15 to 12:15 and grades 5 through 6 will be dismissed for lunch between 11:30 and 12:30.

Herman W. Brinkey, 72, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, and Sam S. Luzadder, 67, of Lisbon R. D. 4, $10 each for reckless operation; Charles B. Nassau, 23, of Hastings, Neb., $10, driving left of center, and Burdette O. Houseman, 37, of Akron, $5 for speeding. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

City Schools Expect 5,587

All students entering Westgate Junior High for the first time should report to the auditorium at 8:25 a. m. Junior high pupils who attended Westgate last year will report to their old homeroom.

Students lists showing homeroom assignments for East Junior High have been posted on the front doors of the school and Neville, Horace Mann and Garfield buildings.

ALL HIGH SCHOOL pupils have been notified of their homeroom and class assignments by postcard.

All the schools are ready, having been cleaned and repaired during the summer.

The Parochial School will open Tuesday, Sept. 8, and the children will be greeted by a new principal and two new teachers.

The anticipated enrollment is an increase of about 25-30 and will be primarily in the first grade.

The new principal is Sister Philomeen, who comes to East Liverpool from Lakewood where she was a principal. She succeeds Sister Mary St. Rose, who has gone to Canton to do nursing.

THE NEW instructors are Sister Ritamarie from St. Peters School in Cleveland, replacing Sister Mary Ann Rita in the seventh grade, and Sister Marcelita from the Immaculate Heart School in Youngstown, replacing Sister Janice Marie.

The students will attend a full-day schedule. Classes will be from 8:45 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Bus routes will be the same.

The cafeteria will be operated the first day.

Sister Philomeen said the instructors will attend a Teachers' Institute at Youngstown Sept. 4 and 5 for the diocese schools.

3 Marine Corps Generals Resign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Marine Corps generals, disappointed by the appointment of a junior officer to the Marines' top spot, have announced their resignations.

Their action Thursday came two weeks after President Eisenhower named Maj. Gen. David M. Shoup to be commandant of the Marine Corps Jan. 1. Shoup will be jumped to full general.

The three who resigned were Lt. Gens. Vernon E. Megee, commander in the Pacific; Edwin A. Pollock, fleet force commander for the Atlantic, and Merrill B. Twining, commandant of Marine Corps schools at Quantico, Va.

Megee, at his headquarters in Honolulu, said "I'm naturally disappointed because I didn't get the top job. So are some other senior officers in the corps."

He gave that as the reason for the three resignations. Pollock and Twining were not available for comment.

"However," Megee added, "Dave Shoup is a fine officer and will make a great commandant.

Against Hog Price Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation said Thursday it is opposing a U.S. House bill that would guarantee hog producers a price of $14 per 100 pounds. The federation's board said it believes the program would put a ceiling on prices and lower farm income rather than raise it.

Because Of Steel Strike

DiSalle Cites 3 Counties With Poor Relief Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stark, Trumbull and Mahoning counties face a serious, but not critical, poor relief situation as a result of the steel strike, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said Thursday.

One of the three counties—he would not say which—will be totally out of relief funds in about a month, the governor said. He declined to pinpoint the county with the worst relief situation because, he said, officials want to avoid any "talk of crisis until every avenue has been exhausted."

One of the governor's remedies for the situation will be to try to get relief cash to the counties earlier than usual. The governor already has asked Finance Director James Maloon to look into the possibility.

The relief money for counties comes from a tax on the gross receipts of the state's public utility companies, which last year brought the state about 38 million dollars.

About half of this tax money, due Dec. 15, normally is distributed among the 88 counties by January or February, and all counties must be paid at the same time. Remainder of the fund goes into Ohio's general revenue fund.

The Finance Department said a substantial number of utilities pay the tax early, so there's a possibility the money could be distributed among the counties before January or February.

In other comments, the governor said he would visit Springfield Sept. 21 and Youngstown Sept. 25 on his 3½-week tour of the state to explain his legislative program. These cities were not on the itinerary released earlier.

The tour begins Saturday in Dayton and Canton, DiSalle said during the press conference, his first since returning from an undisclosed vacation spot.

Asked if he has decided yet on a favorite son for the presidential race, DiSalle quipped that he has just one favorite son at the moment: His fifth grandchild, William Michael Watkins, born here Thursday to his daughter, Toni.

Sen. Young Attacks Pay Of CD Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Pokorny is paid $12,834 a year and almost all he does is annoy people once a week with sirens, Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) says.

Young told the Senate Thursday that Pokorny, Civil Defense director in Cleveland, was an example of what he considers overpaid civil defense officials.

The senator cited the examples as he opposed a suggestion by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York that Congress restore a 12-million-dollar cut in Civil Defense appropriations.

Former Pitcher Dies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Claude Jonnard, 61, pitching member of the famous Jonnard twin battery of the 20s, died Thursday after an operation. Although Claude and his twin, Clarence, both were in the major leagues at the same time, Claude pitched primarily for the New York Giants and Clarence was with the Philadelphia Phils.

Smoke From Coal Min Gives Residents Scare

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Residents of nearby Chauncey got quite a scare Thursday night as smoke began pouring from a coal mine there.

A foreman sounded the alarm that sent fire crews into the mine.

There was no fire, however. A frayed electric wire was rubbing against a wooden airlock door, sending forth the smoke.

Frank Smith, a pumper, was the only man in the mine at the time. He reported he was in a clear area and could not see the smoke.

2 Men Arrested In Watches Case

MAYSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Two Cleveland men were arrested here Thursday after they allegedly checked $9,000 worth of missing antique watches in a warehouse at nearby Jamestown.

Herman S. Pressman, 51, a lawyer, and Richard Alex Stewart, 28, are being held on a charge of possession of stolen property. Stewart is already under federal indictment on a charge of selling counterfeit money. He is free on $15,000 bond after Secret Service agents nabbed him in Pittsburgh July 29.

The 28 watches were alleged stolen by two other men in a Jamestown safe - cracking last year.

Pressman told police he was in Jamestown Thursday to arrange for a local attorney to represent Anthony Severino, 38, and Charles Skubvois, 35, both Clevelanders. They are slated for extradition to Jamestown to face burglary and grand larceny charges in the theft of the antiques.

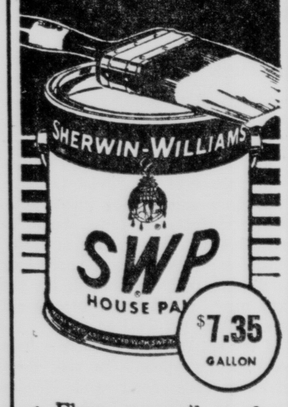

The Coast Guard is the oldest continuous seagoing service in the United States. It traces its history back to 1790.

Mrs. John Lawrence of Hammondsville has an oddity in the flower world — her night blooming cereus is blooming for the second time this summer.

A cereus is a species of cacti with nocturnal blooms. Mrs. Lawrence has had her 6-foot plant for five years.

Two blooms opened Tuesday night and three more opened Wednesday night. Each bloom measures about 8-inches across and emits a pleasant, fragrant odor.

The buds begin to open at dusk and are completely open at midnight. Mrs. Lawrence said she keeps the plant indoors during fall and winter, transplanting it outside in the spring.

4 Motorists Forfeit $35 In Court At Lisbon

LISBON — Four motorists, forfeited bonds totaling $35 in Mayor John Todd's court Thursday when they failed to appear for hearings. They were: fourth grades will be from 11:15 to 12:15 and grades 5 through 6 will be dismissed for lunch between 11:30 and 12:30.

Herman W. Brinkey, 72, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, and Sam S. Luzadder, 67, of Lisbon R. D. 4, $10 each for reckless operation; Charles B. Nassau, 23, of Hastings, Neb., $10, driving left of center, and Burdette O. Houseman, 37, of Akron, $5 for speeding. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

City Schools Expect 5,587

All students entering Westgate Junior High for the first time should report to the auditorium at 8:25 a. m. Junior high pupils who attended Westgate last year will report to their old homeroom.

Students lists showing homeroom assignments for East Junior High have been posted on the front doors of the school and Neville, Horace Mann and Garfield buildings.

ALL HIGH SCHOOL pupils have been notified of their homeroom and class assignments by postcard.

All the schools are ready, having been cleaned and repaired during the summer.

The Parochial School will open Tuesday, Sept. 8, and the children will be greeted by a new principal and two new teachers.

The anticipated enrollment is an increase of about 25-30 and will be primarily in the first grade.

The new principal is Sister Philomeen, who comes to East Liverpool from Lakewood where she was a principal. She succeeds Sister Mary St. Rose, who has gone to Canton to do nursing.

THE NEW instructors are Sister Ritamarie from St. Peters School in Cleveland, replacing Sister Mary Ann Rita in the seventh grade, and Sister Marcelita from the Immaculate Heart School in Youngstown, replacing Sister Janice Marie.

The students will attend a full-day schedule. Classes will be from 8:45 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Bus routes will be the same.

The cafeteria will be operated the first day.

Sister Philomeen said the instructors will attend a Teachers' Institute at Youngstown Sept. 4 and 5 for the diocese schools.

3 Marine Corps Generals Resign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Marine Corps generals, disappointed by the appointment of a junior officer to the Marines' top spot, have announced their resignations.

Their action Thursday came two weeks after President Eisenhower named Maj. Gen. David M. Shoup to be commandant of the Marine Corps Jan. 1. Shoup will be jumped to full general.

The three who resigned were Lt. Gens. Vernon E. Megee, commander in the Pacific; Edwin A. Pollock, fleet force commander for the Atlantic, and Merrill B. Twining, commandant of Marine Corps schools at Quantico, Va.

Megee, at his headquarters in Honolulu, said "I'm naturally disappointed because I didn't get the top job. So are some other senior officers in the corps."

He gave that as the reason for the three resignations. Pollock and Twining were not available for comment.

"However," Megee added, "Dave Shoup is a fine officer and will make a great commandant.

Against Hog Price Bill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation said Thursday it is opposing a U.S. House bill that would guarantee hog producers a price of $14 per 100 pounds. The federation's board said it believes the program would put a ceiling on prices and lower farm income rather than raise it.

Because Of Steel Strike

DiSalle Cites 3 Counties With Poor Relief Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stark, Trumbull and Mahoning counties face a serious, but not critical, poor relief situation as a result of the steel strike, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said Thursday.

One of the three counties—he would not say which—will be totally out of relief funds in about a month, the governor said. He declined to pinpoint the county with the worst relief situation because, he said, officials want to avoid any "talk of crisis until every avenue has been exhausted."

One of the governor's remedies for the situation will be to try to get relief cash to the counties earlier than usual. The governor already has asked Finance Director James Maloon to look into the possibility.

The relief money for counties comes from a tax on the gross receipts of the state's public utility companies, which last year brought the state about 38 million dollars.

About half of this tax money, due Dec. 15, normally is distributed among the 88 counties by January or February, and all counties must be paid at the same time. Remainder of the fund goes into Ohio's general revenue fund.

The Finance Department said a substantial number of utilities pay the tax early, so there's a possibility the money could be distributed among the counties before January or February.

In other comments, the governor said he would visit Springfield Sept. 21 and Youngstown Sept. 25 on his 3½-week tour of the state to explain his legislative program. These cities were not on the itinerary released earlier.

The tour begins Saturday in Dayton and Canton, DiSalle said during the press conference, his first since returning from an undisclosed vacation spot.

Asked if he has decided yet on a favorite son for the presidential race, DiSalle quipped that he has just one favorite son at the moment: His fifth grandchild, William Michael Watkins, born here Thursday to his daughter, Toni.

Sen. Young Attacks Pay Of CD Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Pokorny is paid $12,834 a year and almost all he does is annoy people once a week with sirens, Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) says.

Young told the Senate Thursday that Pokorny, Civil Defense director in Cleveland, was an example of what he considers overpaid civil defense officials.

The senator cited the examples as he opposed a suggestion by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York that Congress restore a 12-million-dollar cut in Civil Defense appropriations.

Former Pitcher Dies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Claude Jonnard, 61, pitching member of the famous Jonnard twin battery of the 20s, died Thursday after an operation. Although Claude and his twin, Clarence, both were in the major leagues at the same time, Claude pitched primarily for the New York Giants and Clarence was with the Philadelphia Phils.

Smoke From Coal Min Gives Residents Scare

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Residents of nearby Chauncey got quite a scare Thursday night as smoke began pouring from a coal mine there.

A foreman sounded the alarm that sent fire crews into the mine. There was no fire, however. A frayed electric wire was rubbing against a wooden airlock door, sending forth the smoke.

Frank Smith, a pumper, was the only man in the mine at the time. He reported he was in a clear area and could not see the smoke.

2 Men Arrested In Watches Case

MAYSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Two Cleveland men were arrested here Thursday after they allegedly checked $9,000 worth of missing antique watches in a warehouse at nearby Jamestown.

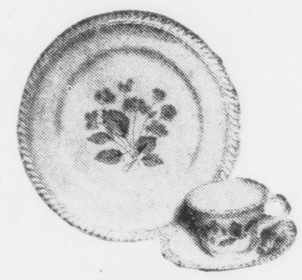

Herman S. Pressman, 51, a lawyer, and Richard Alex Stewart, 28, are being held on a charge of possession of stolen property. Stewart is already under federal indictment on a charge of selling counterfeit money. He is free on $15,000 bond after Secret Service agents nabbed him in Pittsburgh July 29.

The 28 watches were alleged stolen by two other men in a Jamestown safe - cracking last year.

Pressman told police he was in Jamestown Thursday to arrange for a local attorney to represent Anthony Severino, 38, and Charles Skubvois, 35, both Clevelanders. They are slated for extradition to Jamestown to face burglary and grand larceny charges in the theft of the antiques.

Mr. K. May Have Noticed A Nudge

We do not buy the idea that the only hard-bitten diplomatists in the world are in London, Paris and, lately, Moscow.

It has been our observation that our own foreign policy is spotted with instances of shrewd manipulation and playing both ends against the middle that would have done credit to Machiavelli. For instance, in the long view, the way Japan was fooled into attacking the United States first in World War II was as slick a piece of business as will be found in the 20th century — and it wasn't the diplomats' fault that the determined little empire builders caught the U.S. Army and Navy napping at Pearl Harbor. They might have been napping in the South China Sea, where the war was supposed to have started.

Diplomacy comes now to a situation in Laos on the eve of a meeting between President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev.

The Loatians are having trouble with Communists, homegrown and imported. The imported Communists are from North Vietnam, a Communist outpost controlled by Red China. By a twist of the diplomatic wrist, Premier Khrushchev is being held responsible for an outbreak by Communists in a part of the world where he has, in fact, no authority.

Yet by being held responsible he is under pressure by governments that are supposed to cringe under the threat of Communist intervention to prove he can turn off what he claims he can turn on. If the idea of the Communist flareup in Laos was to embarrass the premier of the Soviet Union at the outset of his negotiations with President Eisenhower, it has lent itself to somewhat more embarrassment than the Chinese Communists could have foreseen.

The United States now says it will step up its military aid to Laos unless Khrushchev stops what he could not have started and has no power to stop. It says this at a time when the United States is being looked at askance by allies frankly skeptical of any move to bring President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev close together.

Mr. K may have noticed the nudge to his composure. He, too, may share the opinion that the diplomatists of the United States are not the utter fools and ninnies that many Americans think they are by comparison with the hard-bitten boys from London, Paris and —lately—Moscow.

Mixing The Sweet With The Bitter

Forget that the man's name is Raymond J. Saulnier and that he is chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Forget, likewise, that he is a hotshot economist who spends his time making penetrating studies of business trends, prices, productivity and so on.

Pretend he is some fellow down the street who is talking about prices in an appliance store. This will make it easier to comprehend the sense of his remarks.

The only way prices can be leveled off, he says, are for some to come down while others go up. If all prices always go up, the cost of everything that people buy will be inflated endlessly until money becomes worthless.

Prices that should come down are those that could be trimmed without damage because of efficient production — productivity. But if every productivity saving is gobbled up by workers demanding higher wages and managers and owners demanding higher earnings and bonuses, consumers will get the short end.

There will be no price stability. Prices will go up and up and up, whereas some prices should be going down to balance out other prices which cannot be kept from going up.

Haircuts, for instance, cannot be kept from going up because there is nothing to keep the barber trade from boosting them by decree. The barbering trade, being an activity of unionized workers, is not subject to antitrust laws.

But to offset the higher price of haircuts, there might be such a thing as a lower price for a new automobile, because auto-making grows more efficient, thanks to competition. However, auto workers and the auto industry earmark all savings as their own, giving customers nothing but annual price increases.

That is no way to get price stability. Saulnier explained it in some detail to the section on corporation banking and business law of the American Bar Assn. at the association's annual convention last Tuesday. It was so sensible, though, he could just as well have said it in an appliance store.

Is Defense Worth What It Costs?

This is a prediction.

A Congressional investigation of military bloopers and blunders that have inflated the cost of national defense out of all proportion to results will run into a solid wall of whitewash.

Members of the House Science and Astronautics Committee sniffing into projects that cost a republic's ransom and led to nothing will back off because the high brass will make things too hot for comfort.

The impression will be created by defenders of irremediable blunders that they were part of a trial-and-error process that cannot be interfered with, lest the United States be outflown, outgunned, outrocketed and outdated by the Soviet Union.

Every costly mistake will have a reason all its own. The all-American credo that the United States can overwhelm the opposition with dollars will emerge triumphant. The military will assert again and again and again in stentorian tones that civilians must not and shall not stick their noses into things that are none of their concern.

The investigators will be hit with unanswerable charges of unwarranted interference, incompetence to judge military matters and penny-pinching in the face of grave national danger.

And when it is all over and the bespattered investigators have slunk into hiding, the fact will still remain that defense in the United States, like the two world wars that gave it special status as a spending item, has turned into a white elephant that is eating its keepers out of house and home and cannot be touched because, like the white elephant, it is supposed to be sacred.

The Once Over

The sophisticates are sneering snootily at the Cinderella note in the Rasmussen-Rockefeller nuptials but to few romances has it more properly belonged.

Here Hans Christian Anderson, Grimm and other fairy tale spinners, writers of all great love songs and masters of poetry have joined in a sentimental pageant that can make the Khrushchev visit seem like an icemen's rally. Nikita will visit only seven U.S. cities.

Steve and Anne Marie, have already penetrated every city and hamlet in the land. Soegne can well ask "Is Moscow still in the league?"

The Norway - U.S. - Rockefeller - Rasmussen pact has eclipsed NATO. A modest wooden chapel in the Scandinavian hills has made the forums of world rulers seem cut-rate waxworks.

At the moment the demand that Steve and Anne Marie be permitted a little privacy is eclipsing the demand for steel strike settlement, more money, the truth about Laos, less noise from Fidel Castro and added details about Ike and Khrush's exchange visits.

This troubled world of cold wars, firing squads, goon activities, juvenile crime, missile launchings and sordid patterns of life got a great lift from the oldest and most tender of love stories.

The luckiest break Khrushchev ever got was that his schedule didn't fix his arrival this week. Anne and Steve would have made him strictly an also ran.

ANOTHER GREAT LIFT in a spiritual sense is being provided by the presence in the United States of Dr. Thomas Dooley, heroic physician to the penniless, suddenly stricken with cancer and undergoing an operation so he may get back to the hospital he gallantly established in Asia.

When you get a Hans Christian Anderson drama and a good samaritan revival all in one week other news seems run-of-the-mill.

A Step Up

There's always a satisfaction in seeing someone move up the ladder.

So it was when Patrolman Thomas A. Walker was promoted to lieutenant in the police department this week.

With any such promotion goes additional responsibility. If a man moves up, he must prove his ability to stay there. In view of past performance, there's every reason to believe that Lt. Walker will accept his new responsibility in the proper manner.

He has an opportunity to play a big part in the continued improvement of the department.

That Man's Still Here!

Hoffa Has Eyes On Political Machines

By Victor Riesel

Jim Hoffa has been meeting with himself at the summit and soon will issue a joint communique. Some time after a new labor law is written onto the nation's books, Hoffa will announce that the Teamsters will pour as much as five or six million dollars into the launching of a national political machine in 1960.

Victor Riesel

Whether or not he actually unleashes a Teamsters' political "party" — and it can be reported on the most positive authority that this is now his plan—the financing mentioned above is the grandoise budget he has been discussing with intimates.

This national political machine is the brainwork of Hoffa's conscience and guide, lanky Harold Gibbons of St. Louis and the inner sanctum, namely Hoffa's Washington kitchen.

FOR YEARS now Gibbons has been telling Hoffa that the whirlwindish Teamsters boss has been wasting his time politically.

Gibbons, an old Socialist, has always told Hoffa, a new militant, that the road to power is a political highway and not an industrial one. The tall one has always argued that Jim Hoffa was wasting his wallet just doing political favors in exchange for political favors.

Gibbons argued deep into the night—in their Washington suite and on planes wherever they went —for the building of a national political machine instead of dealing with local politicians.

For a long time Hoffa was convinced that "the Washington crowd" would never get tied publicly to the Teamsters. Then they ran their recent lobbying cavalcade. Congressmen came in droves.

They stopped Hoffa in Washington restaurants and hotel lobbies. They talked with his emissaries—especially the late Edward Cheyfitz—any time of the day and most of the night.

ALL THIS while Hoffa was under sledgehammer attack by the Senate Select Committee. Hoffa's eyes opened as big as his campaign contribution satchels. He and Gibbons decided to whip up a national political section of the Teamsters to be known as the "National Legislative and Political Action Department."

It will be operated out of the Washington marble hall by a "national legislative director"—probably the tornado-tongued Sid Zagri.

The country will be cut into four districts—each with an area chief of political action. From these regional directors, the chain of command will run into each city district council and so on through the locals into every precinct the Teamsters can cover.

This national political machine will be modeled after Harold Gibbons' own political sputnik in St. Louis. Gibbons calls it his Community Action Program. It is a system of political stewards. He has them in as many shops and precincts as he can.

The political steward supposedly is elected by the Teamsters in each plant—and by the Teamsters living in each neighborhood. Gibbons has welded them into a human Univac, which could make old Tammany hands go and claim an amateur status.

EACH OF THESE political stewards knows, or has a file which reports, the registration and voting activity of every Teamster in the shop or precinct. If a Teamster is not registered, the political steward gets him on the list, fast.

In the precincts the political stewards tell all the citizenry, Teamsters or not, that the local Teamsters representative will act as their personal grievance steward on neighborhood complaints—on broken lampposts, overflowing sewers, heat, light, garbage disposal, anything you can name.

From time to time, Gibbons or his aides call the political stewards together, much as other unions call regular shop steward meetings. At the political clambakes, the stewards are briefed on tactics, issues, vote getting, and grievances irritating the various neighborhoods.

This now is what Hoffa and Gibbons have in mind for a national network. There are over 110,000 precincts throughout the nation, but that doesn't faze Jimmy boy.

It will take money. But Hoffa will manage that with "voluntary" authorization cards which each member is expected to sign saying it's okay for the political department to take a set sum out of each dues payment.

Hoffa just knows that all the boys will sign such cards. To Hoffa, money means politics. It appears that he will be deep in both next year.

As Mr. K Grew Tougher

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Premier Nikita Khrushchev took his time getting tough. Some men swear by nuts, berries or good, red meat for feeling fit. But Khrushchev acts like a man who got his muscles from missile milk.

You could see him grow, and his disposition change, if you went back day by day over his life since 1953 and read what he has said about the West. Stalin died that year and Khrushchev, comparatively unknown, became boss of the Communist party in the U.S.S.R.

Khrushchev then still was considered only the No. 2 man, under Premier Georgi Malenkov, who succeeded Stalin. All through 1953 Khrushchev had practically nothing to say. By then, of course, the Soviet Union had come a long way.

It had the atom bomb. But it wasn't until the end of the year that the U.S.S.R. developed the hydrogen bomb. The United States already had both. But the Soviet Union was working on missiles, too. That was going to change things.

Khrushchev didn't do any boasting in 1953. He didn't do any in 1954, either. He just held his lip. When he did talk, it was friendly. He said communism and capitalism must cooperate. This was the beginning of his coexistence theme.

Khrushchev didn't really begin to talk until 1955, when Malenkov got the gate and Nikolai Bulganin became premier. Khrushchev was still only party secretary but more and more he began to sound like the No. 1 man.

Khrushchev even sounded humble in mid-1955. Just before going to the Geneva suminit conference with Bulganin he said no one should get the idea the Soviet Union was going there on broken legs. There was nothing boastful about that.

By early 1956, Soviet scientists must have been making impressive progress with missiles. For on April 26 that year Khrushchev began boasting: he predicted the Soviets would have a guided missile with an H-bomb warhead.

Still, he was willing to acknowledge the United States was the No. 1 power. He said on June 7, 1956, it was a "pat on the back" for the Soviet Union to be compared with this country as one of the two great Powers. This humble mood didn't last long.

In November that year, Khrushchev was boiling. Britain, France and Israel had invaded Egypt and there had been a revolt in satellite Hungary.

He told Western envoys in Moscow: "Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. We will bury you."

The new Khrushchev, the one the world has been hearing ever since, emerged. Irked by President Eisenhower's doctrine of giving military help to Mid - East countries which asked for it, Khrushchev said: That doctrine would land on the "garbage heap" of history.

In May 1957, he was talking of having an H-bomb that could melt the arctic ice cap. That same month he told the Western world its children would live under socialism.

By August he was predicting a higher living standard for Soviets than Americans have. Then the reason behind this surging confidence became clear: in October and November the U.S.S.R. beat the United States into outer space with its Sputniks.

The Soviet Union was ahead in the missile race. Khrushchev taunted this country by challenging it to a "peaceful rocket contest." By December he was warning American allies not to let the United States set up missile bases on their land.

By this time no one had any doubts about who was No. 1 man. It was made official March 27, 1958, when Khrushchev pushed Bulganin aside and became premier. He was modest, starting out, and peaceful.

He said "we shall conquer capitalism with a high level of work and a higher living standard." By April 1958, he was predicting Americans were destined for second place in the world economic leadership. Then he stopped being mild.

In August 1958, angered by American and British help to Lebanon and Jordan in the Middle East, Khrushchev said the U.S.S.R. would destroy both big powers if they let a new war loose.

Then he got tougher than ever. On Nov. 10, 1958, he told the United States, Britain and France to get their occupation troops out of West Berlin. He followed this threat: if they tried to force their way into Berlin they would regret it.

This started the Berlin crisis which brought about the upcoming mid-September meeting between Eisenhower and Khrushchev. It was actually Khrushchev who proposed the exchange visits. He did this July 7, 1959.

When Eisenhower, on Aug. 3, announced he and the Soviet Premier would exchange visits, it was really an acceptance of Khrushchev's idea.

Nixon On Khrushchev

By David Lawrence

Plus And Minus Signs Discussed On Visit

Vice President Nixon says the United States isn't going to be fooled by the Khrushchev visist. He adds that President Eisenhower isn't going to be "taken in or bluffed." Mr. Nixon further declares: "It would be naive and wishful thinking to assume that the visit of Mr. Khrushchev to the United States will result in any basic change in the Communist objective of world domination or their adherence to policies designed to achieve that goal."

David Lawrence

These and other statements of a dramatic nature are contained in the remarkable speech made by the vice president before the 41st national convention of The American Legion held at Minneapolis this week.

What Mr. Nixon has said is bound to have a far-reaching effect on both sides of the Atlantic, especially since the substance of it was discussed with President Eisenhower before he left for Europe on Wednesday. For the speech warns that the world should be alert to the propaganda maneuvers involved in the Khrushchev visist.

Mr. Nixon urges that the Soviet Premier be given courteous treatment while here and explains more clearly than has anyone else heretofore just what the American government hopes will be gained by the Khrushchev visist.

THE VICE PRESIDENT emphasizes that "subversion and espionage in the United States and other non - Communist countries continue to be directed and supported by the Communist party of the U.S.S.R." and that the "rigid positions of the Soviet government on such issues as Berlin, disarmament, setting up an inspection system for the prevention of surprise attack and ending atomic tests, are the same now as they were before these visits were announced."

Mr. Nixon pointedly says: "We should be under no illusions that Mr. Khrushchev's belief in the superiority of the Communist system will be changed in any significant respect by his seeing the great productivity of the American economy.

"Everything he sees in the United States will be seen through Communist eyes and the picture will be distorted or magnified so that it fits into the rigid description of free societies which the Communist doctrine has painted for over 100 years.

"Nor should we be under any illusions that better understanding between the Soviet leaders and ourselves is all that is needed to resolve our differences and to assure peace. . . . Charm, words of friendship, gracious toasts, are not going to have the slightest effect in deterring Mr. Khrushchev from his basic objectives."

Then what useful purpose can the trip serve?

Mr. Nixon raises the question and answers it by saying, first, that Mr. Khrushchev is "a man who holds in his hands the greatest power any one man has ever held in the history of civilization —who by his decision alone could press the button which could start a chain reaction which would destroy civilization as we know it."

THEN HOW CAN his attitude be changed?

Mr. Nixon thinks that in the conversations with the President and in his trip across the country Mr. Khrushchev "will see and hear some things which will change his preconceived notions about the United States and which in turn will give him pause before he embarks on a course of action in the future which might be contrary to our vital interests."

What are some of those things he "will see and hear"?

Mr. Nixon says: "He will find that not only are we strong militarily and economically but that the American people have the will to use their strength to defend our freedom or the freedom of others any place in the world. He will find that the overwhelming majority of the American people are as dedicated to our system as he is to his. He will find that we will no more tolerate being pushed around than will he."

How will the Soviet Premier discover the resoluteness of the American people? The answer is that it is just such speeches as the vice president himself has just delivered, by the resolutions and statements of such organizations as The American Legion and the AFL-CIO, by the outspoken protests of many other groups and by what the American press tells him.

As for possible ill effects on the "captive peoples," Mr. Nixon says bluntly: "You can be sure that under no circumstances will this exchange of visits result in statements or actions on the part of the United States indicating our approval or acquiescence in the status of the peoples of eastern Europe."

IT ALL ADDS UP to an international debate that never would have occurred if Mr. Khrushchev hadn't been invited to come here. Whatever the original purposes or motives on either side, the fact remains that the American people and the peoples of the other countries of the world are about to get an up-to-date and realistic view of what Communist absolutism means and of the danger that it has created in the world.

Assuming that peoples and not individual rulers finally will control the destiny of all countries, an emphasis on freedom and liberty can do much to arouse among oppressed peoples — including the people of the Soviet Union — a determination to obtain the same freedoms that the people of this country and of other free countries enjoy. It is a world shaking debate. Its psychological effects could be far reaching, notwithstanding the emptiness of the official communiques or the continued rigidity of the Soviet Premier's position on world problems.

I am as curious about the appearance and performance of the new "condensed" cars as I used to be when the auto industry was building its first mass markets for mass production and consider this to be an omen of their success.

The thing about a superhot climate that Temperate Zoners never think about until they are caught in a heat wave is that if the temperature stayed high long enough they would be forced to slow down and sacrifice their progress to the climate, too.

It strikes me as a great oddity that more legal beagles and bushy-tailed law enforcers have gone to work on the latest boxing scandal than have gone to work after all these years on the organized vice threatening to get a stranglehold on the United States. Apparently, crookedness isn't reprehensible unless it happens in athletics.

It is not surprising to see the names of many bitter-end reactionaries and jut-jawed isolationists signed to a full-page in New York newspapers telling President Eisenhower he should have nothing whatever to do with Premier Khrushchev of the Soviet Union.

If there is one place where automatic sprinkler systems should be required by law, it is in jails, whose inmates are kept under lock and key, with the possibility the key may be lost if fire breaks out and jailers get excited.

I try not to think about the folly of expecting people to risk their lives to take dead and injured mountain climbers off perches they had been warned not to risk—usually by the people who subsequently rush to the rescue if an accident occurs.

My basic principle for improving basketball—an over-all length of 10 yards for five players—also could improve football, which should be limited to an over-all poundage of one ton for 11 players. Excess length and poundage then would be penalized by a handicap of points.

Mr. K. May Have Noticed A Nudge

We do not buy the idea that the only harc-bitten diplomatists in the world are in London, Paris and, lately, Moscow.

It has been our observation that our own foreign policy is spotted with instances of shrewd manipulation and playing both ends against the middle that would have done credit to Machiavelli. For instance, in the long view, the way Japan was fooled into attacking the United States first in World War II was as slick a piece of business as will be found in the 20th century — and it wasn't the diplomats' fault that the determined little empire builders caught the U.S. Army and Navy napping at Pearl Harbor. They might have been napping in the South China Sea, where the war was supposed to have started.

Diplomacy comes now to a situation in Laos on the eve of a meeting between President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev.

The Loatians are having trouble with Communists, homegrown and imported. The imported Communists are from North Vietnam, a Communist outpost controlled by Red China. By a twist of the diplomatic wrist, Premier Khrushchev is being held responsible for an outbreak by Communists in a part of the world where he has, in fact, no authority.

Yet by being held responsible he is under pressure by governments that are supposed to cringe under the threat of Communist intervention to prove he can turn off what he claims he can turn on. If the idea of the Communist flareup in Laos was to embarrass the premier of the Soviet Union at the outset of his negotiations with President Eisenhower, it has lent itself to somewhat more embarrassment than the Chinese Communists could have foreseen.

The United States now says it will step up its military aid to Laos unless Khrushchev stops what he could not have started and has no power to stop. It says this at a time when the United States is being looked at askance by allies frankly skeptical of any move to bring President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev close together.

Mr. K may have noticed the nudge to his composure. He, too, may share the opinion that the diplomatists of the United States are not the utter fools and ninnies that many Americans think they are by comparison with the hard-bitten boys from London, Paris and —lately—Moscow.

Mixing The Sweet With The Bitter

Forget that the man's name is Raymond J. Saulnier and that he is chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

Forget, likewise, that he is a hotshot economist who spends his time making penetrating studies of business trends, prices, productivity and so on.

Pretend he is some fellow down the street who is talking about prices in an appliance store. This will make it easier to comprehend the sense of his remarks.

The only way prices can be leveled off, he says, are for some to come down while others go up. If all prices always go up, the cost of everything that people buy will be inflated endlessly until money becomes worthless.

Prices that should come down are those that could be trimmed without damage because of efficient production — productivity. But if every productivity saving is gobbled up by workers demanding higher wages and managers and owners demanding higher earnings and bonuses, consumers will get the short end.

There will be no price stability. Prices will go up and up and up, whereas some prices should be going down to balance out other prices which cannot be kept from going up.

Haircuts, for instance, cannot be kept from going up because there is nothing to keep the barber trade from boosting them by decree. The barbering trade, being an activity of unionized workers, is not subject to antitrust laws.

But to offset the higher price of haircuts, there might be such a thing as a lower price for a new automobile, because auto-making grows more efficient, thanks to competition. However, auto workers and the auto industry earmark all savings as their own, giving customers nothing but annual price increases.

That is no way to get price stability. Saulnier explained it in some detail to the section on corporation banking and business law of the American Bar Assn. at the association's annual convention last Tuesday. It was so sensible, though, he could just as well have said it in an appliance store.

Is Defense Worth What It Costs?

This is a prediction.

A Congressional investigation of military bloopers and blunders that have inflated the cost of national defense out of all proportion to results will run into a solid wall of whitewash.

Members of the House Science and Astronautics Committee sniffing into projects that cost a republic's ransom and led to nothing will back off because the high brass will make things too hot for comfort.

The impression will be created by defenders of irremediable blunders that they were part of a trial-and-error process that cannot be interfered with, lest the United States be outflown, outgunned, outrocketed and outdated by the Soviet Union.

Every costly mistake will have a reason all its own. The all-American credo that the United States can overwhelm the opposition with dollars will emerge triumphant. The military will assert again and again and again in stentorian tones that civilians must not and shall not stick their noses into things that are none of their concern.

The investigators will be hit with unanswerable charges of unwarranted interference, incompetence to judge military matters and penny-pinching in the face of grave national danger.

And when it is all over and the bespattered investigators have slunk into hiding, the fact will still remain that defense in the United States, like the two world wars that gave it special status as a spending item, has turned into a white elephant that is eating its keepers out of house and home and cannot be touched because, like the white elephant, it is supposed to be sacred.

A Step Up

There's always a satisfaction in seeing someone move up the ladder.

So it was when Patrolman Thomas A. Walker was promoted to lieutenant in the police department this week.

With any such promotion goes additional responsibility. If a man moves up, he must prove his ability to stay there. In view of past performance, there's every reason to believe that Lt. Walker will accept his new responsibility in the proper manner.

He has an opportunity to play a big part in the continued improvement of the department.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The sophisticates are sneering snootily at the Cinderella note in the Rasmussen-Rockefeller nuptials but to few romances has it more properly belonged.

Here Hans Christian Anderson, Grimm and other fairy tale spinners, writers of all great love songs and masters of poetry have joined in a sentimental pageant that can make the Khrushchev visit seem like an icemen's rally. Nikita will visit only seven U.S. cities.

Steve and Anne Marie, have already penetrated every city and hamlet in the land. Soegne can well ask "Is Moscow still in the league?"

The Norway - U.S. - Rockefeller - Rasmussen pact has eclipsed NATO. A modest wooden chapel in the Scandinavian hills has made the forums of world rulers seem outrate waxworks.

At the moment the demand that Steve and Anne Marie be permitted a little privacy is eclipsing the demand for steel strike settlement, more money, the truth about Laos, less noise from Fidel Castro and added details about Ike and Khrush's exchange visits.

This troubled world of cold wars, firing squads, goon activities, juvenile crime, missile launchings and sordid patterns of life got a great lift from the oldest and most tender of love stories.

The luckiest break Khrushchev ever got was that his schedule didn't fix his arrival this week. Anne and Steve would have made him strictly an also ran.

ANOTHER GREAT LIFT in a spiritual sense is being provided by the presence in the United States of Dr. Thomas Dooley, heroic physician to the penniless, suddenly stricken with cancer and undergoing an operation so he may get back to the hospital he gallantly established in Asia.

When you get a Hans Christian Anderson drama and a good samaritan revival all in one week other news seems run-of-the-mill.

(Don't worry, Andrew will make out okay, possible with a good job from the guvnor. Rocky, if he runs for the presidency, will need a trained mounted policeman to handle the crowds and thus keep him in physical shape for the White House.)

That Man's Still Here!

Hoffa Has Eyes On Political Machines

By Victor Riesel

Jim Hoffa has been meeting with himself at the summit and soon will issue a joint communique. Some time after a new labor law is written onto the nation's books, Hoffa will announce that the Teamsters will pour as much as five or six million dollars into the launching of a national political machine in 1960.

Victor Riesel

Whether or not he actually unleashes a Teamsters' political "party" — and it can be reported on the most positive authority that this is now his plan—the financing mentioned above is the grandoise budget he has been discussing with intimates.

This national political machine is the brainwork of Hoffa's conscience and guide, lanky Harold Gibbons of St. Louis and the inner sanctum, namely Hoffa's Washington kitchen.

FOR YEARS now Gibbons has been telling Hoffa that the whirlwindish Teamsters boss has been wasting his time politically.

Gibbons, an old Socialist, has always told Hoffa, a new militant, that the road to power is a political highway and not an industrial one. The tall one has always argued that Jim Hoffa was wasting his wallet just doing political favors in exchange for political favors.

Gibbons argued deep into the night—in their Washington suite and on planes wherever they went —for the building of a national political machine instead of dealing with local politicians.

For a long time Hoffa was convinced that "the Washington crowd" would never get tied publicly to the Teamsters. Then they ran their recent lobbying cavalcade. Congressmen came in droves.

They stopped Hoffa in Washington restaurants and hotel lobbies. They talked with his emissaries—especially the late Edward Cheyfitz—any time of the day and most of the night.

ALL THIS while Hoffa was under sledgehammer attack by the Senate Select Committee. Hoffa's eyes opened as big as his campaign contribution satchels. He and Gibbons decided to whip up a national political section of the Teamsters to be known as the "National Legislative and Political Action Department."

It will be operated out of the Washington marble hall by a "national legislative director"—probably the tornado-tongued Sid Zagri.

The country will be cut into four districts—each with an area chief of political action. From these regional directors, the chain of command will run into each city district council and so on through the locals into every precinct the Teamsters can cover.

This national political machine will be modeled after Harold Gibbons' own political sputnik in St. Louis. Gibbons calls it his Community Action Program. It is a system of political stewards. He has them in as many shops and precincts as he can.

The political steward supposedly is elected by the Teamsters in each plant—and by the Teamsters living in each neighborhood. Gibbons has welded them into a human Univac, which could make old Tammany hands go and claim an amateur status.

EACH OF THESE political stewards knows, or has a file which reports, the registration and voting activity of every Teamster in the shop or precinct. If a Teamster is not registered, the political steward gets him on the list, fast.

In the precincts the political stewards tell all the citizenry, Teamsters or not, that the local Teamsters representative will act as their personal grievance steward on neighborhood complaints—on broken lampposts, overflowing sewers, heat, light, garbage disposal, anything you can name.

From time to time, Gibbons or his aides call the political stewards together, much as other unions call regular shop steward meetings. At the political clambakes, the stewards are briefed on tactics, issues, vote getting, and grievances irritating the various neighborhoods.

This now is what Hoffa and Gibbons have in mind for a national network. There are over 110,000 precincts throughout the nation, but that doesn't faze Jimmy boy.

It will take money. But Hoffa will manage that with "voluntary" authorization cards which each member is expected to sign saying it's okay for the political department to take a set sum out of each dues payment.

Hoffa just knows that all the boys will sign such cards. To Hoffa, money means politics. It appears that he will be deep in both next year.

As Mr. K Grew Tougher

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Premier Nikita Khrushchev took his time getting tough. Some men swear by nuts, berries or good, red meat for feeling fit. But Khrushchev acts like a man who got his muscles from missile milk.

You could see him grow, and his disposition change, if you went back day by day over his life since 1953 and read what he has said about the West. Stalin died that year and Khrushchev, comparatively unknown, became boss of the Communist party in the U.S.S.R.

Khrushchev then still was considered only the No. 2 man, under Premier Georgi Malenkov, who succeeded Stalin. All through 1953 Khrushchev had practically nothing to say. By then, of course, the Soviet Union had come a long way.

It had the atom bomb. But it wasn't until the end of the year that the U.S.S.R. developed the hydrogen bomb. The United States already had both. But the Soviet Union was working on missiles, too. That was going to change things.

Khrushchev didn't do any boasting in 1953. He didn't do any in 1954, either. He just held his lip. When he did talk, it was friendly. He said communism and capitalism must cooperate. This was the beginning of his coexistence theme.

Khrushchev didn't really begin to talk until 1955, when Malenkov got the gate and Nikolai Bulganin became premier. Khrushchev was still only party secretary but more and more he began to sound like the No. 1 man.

Khrushchev even sounded humble in mid-1955. Just before going to the Geneva summit conference with Bulganin he said no one should get the idea the Soviet Union was going there on broken legs. There was nothing boastful about that.

By early 1956, Soviet scientists must have been making impressive progress with missiles. For on April 26 that year Khrushchev began boasting: he predicted the Soviets would have a guided missile with an H-bomb warhead.

Still, he was willing to acknowledge the United States was the No. 1 power. He said on June 7, 1956, it was a "pat on the back" for the Soviet Union to be compared with this country as one of the two great Powers. This humble mood didn't last long.

In November that year, Khrushchev was boiling. Britain, France and Israel had invaded Egypt and there had been a revolt in satellite Hungary.

He told Western envoys in Moscow: "Whether you like it or not, history is on our side. We will bury you."

The new Khrushchev, the one the world has been hearing ever since, emerged. Irked by President Eisenhower's doctrine of giving military help to Mid - East countries which asked for it, Khrushchev said: That doctrine would land on the "garbage heap" of history.

In May 1957, he was talking of having an H-bomb that could melt the arctic ice cap. That same month he told the Western world its children would live under socialism.

By August he was predicting a higher living standard for Soviets than Americans have. Then the reason behind this surging confidence became clear: in October and November the U.S.S.R. beat the United States into outer space with its Sputniks.

The Soviet Union was ahead in the missile race. Khrushchev taunted this country by challenging it to a "peaceful rocket contest." By December he was warning American allies not to let the United States set up missile bases on their land.

By this time no one had any doubts about who was No. 1 man. It was made official March 27, 1958, when Khrushchev pushed Bulganin aside and became premier. He was modest, starting out, and peaceful.

He said "we shall conquer capitalism with a high level of work and a higher living standard." By April 1958, he was predicting Americans were destined for second place in the world economic leadership. Then he stopped being mild.

In August 1958, angered by American and British help to Lebanon and Jordan in the Middle East, Khrushchev said the U.S.S.R. would destroy both big powers if they let a new war loose.

Then he got tougher than ever. On Nov. 10, 1958, he told the United States, Britain and France to get their occupation troops out of West Berlin. He followed this threat: if they tried to force their way into Berlin they would regret it.

This started the Berlin crisis which brought about the upcoming mid-September meeting between Eisenhower and Khrushchev. It was actually Khrushchev who proposed the exchange visits. He did this July 7, 1959.

When Eisenhower, on Aug. 3, announced he and the Soviet Premier would exchange visits, it was really an acceptance of Khrushchev's idea.

Nixon On Khrushchev

By David Lawrence

Plus And Minus Signs Discussed On Visit

Vice President Nixon says the United States isn't going to be fooled by the Khrushchev visist. He adds that President Eisenhower isn't going to be "taken in or bluffed." Mr. Nixon further declares: "It would be naive and wishful thinking to assume that the visit of Mr. Khrushchev to the United States will result in any basic change in the Communist objective of world domination or their adherence to policies designed to achieve that goal."

David Lawrence

These and other statements of a dramatic nature are contained in the remarkable speech made by the vice president before the 41st national convention of The American Legion held at Minneapolis this week.

What Mr. Nixon has said is bound to have a far-reaching effect on both sides of the Atlantic, especially since the substance of it was discussed with President Eisenhower before he left for Europe on Wednesday. For the speech warns that the world should be alert to the propaganda maneuvers involved in the Khrushchev visist.

Mr. Nixon urges that the Soviet Premier be given courteous treatment while here and explains more clearly than has anyone else heretofore just what the American government hopes will be gained by the Khrushchev visist.

THE VICE PRESIDENT emphasizes that "subversion and espionage in the United States and other non - Communist countries continue to be directed and supported by the Communist party of the U.S.S.R.," and that the "rigid positions of the Soviet government on such issues as Berlin, disarmament, setting up an inspection system for the prevention of surprise attack and ending atomic tests, are the same now as they were before these visits were announced."

Mr. Nixon pointedly says: "We should be under no illusions that Mr. Khrushchev's belief in the superiority of the Communist system will be changed in any significant respect by his seeing the great productivity of the American economy.

"Everything he sees in the United States will be seen through Communist eyes and the picture will be distorted or magnified so that it fits into the rigid description of free societies which the Communist doctrine has painted for over 100 years.

"Nor should we be under any illusions that better understanding between the Soviet leaders and ourselves is all that is needed to resolve our differences and to assure peace. . . . Charm, words of friendship, gracious toasts, are not going to have the slightest effect in deterring Mr. Khrushchev from his basic objectives."

Then what useful purpose can the trip serve?

Mr. Nixon raises the question and answers it by saying, first, that Mr. Khrushchev is "a man who holds in his hands the greatest power any one man has ever held in the history of civilization —who by his decision alone could press the button which could start a chain reaction which would destroy civilization as we know it."

THEN HOW CAN his attitude be changed?

Mr. Nixon thinks that in the conversations with the President and in his trip across the country Mr. Khrushchev "will see and hear some things which will change his preconceived notions about the United States and which in turn will give him pause before he embarks on a course of action in the future which might be contrary to our vital interests."

What are some of those things he "will see and hear"?

Mr. Nixon says: "He will find that not only are we strong militarily and economically but that the American people have the will to use their strength to defend our freedom or the freedom of others any place in the world. He will find that the overwhelming majority of the American people are as dedicated to our system as he is to his. He will find that we will no more tolerate being pushed around than will he."

How will the Soviet Premier discover the resoluteness of the American people? The answer is that it is just such speeches as the vice president himself has just delivered, by the resolutions and statements of such organizations as The American Legion and the AFL-CIO, by the outspoken protests of many other groups and by what the American press tells him.

As for possible ill effects on the "captive peoples," Mr. Nixon says bluntly: "You can be sure that under no circumstances will this exchange of visits result in statements or actions on the part of the United States indicating our approval or acquiescence in the status of the peoples of eastern Europe."

IT ALL ADDS UP to an international debate that never would have occurred if Mr. Khrushchev hadn't been invited to come here. Whatever the original purposes or motives on either side, the fact remains that the American people and the peoples of the other countries of the world are about to get an up-to-date and realistic view of what Communist absolutism means and of the danger that it has created in the world.

Assuming that peoples and not individual rulers finally will control the destiny of all countries, an emphasis on freedom and liberty can do much to arouse among oppressed peoples — including the people of the Soviet Union — a determination to obtain the same freedoms that the people of this country and of other free countries enjoy. It is a world shaking debate. Its psychological effects could be far reaching, notwithstanding the emptiness of the official communiques or the continued rigidity of the Soviet Premier's position on world problems.

Reunion For Old School Draws 125

HAMMONDSVILLE—More than 125 former pupils, friends and a teacher attended the first reunion of the Martin School Sunday at the J. B. Workman farm on Pine Grove Ridge. The school was closed in 1936.

Officers were elected for the 1960 reunion and a picnic dinner was served in the afternoon. A roll call of about 100 pupils that attended the school was read by Mrs. Margaret Dallas Golden of Irondale and at least 50 answered.

Raymond Morrow was elected president for next year. Other officers are Mrs. Laura Maple Slates, secretary, and Lester Morrow, treasurer. The 1960 reunion was set for Aug. 28 at the Workman farm.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Margaret Golden, the only teacher present; Mrs. Lucy Russell Davis, 85, the oldest woman present; William Russell, oldest man; Mrs. Vinna Workman, parent with the most children who had attended the school; Mrs. Mina Maple Moore and Mrs. Myrtle William Radcliff, who traveled the farthest, and Norman Twaddle, who had two generations of children present.

Hymns were sung by James Maple, Mrs. Ellen Wilson, Mrs. Laura Slates and Mrs. Sylvia McConnaughy.

Glenmor Man Fined On Title, Plate Charges

William S. Springer of Glenmoor was fined $25 and costs on each of two charges today in Municipal Court — illegal auto registration and acquiring a motor vehicle without the title.

Springer pleaded guilty to both counts. The charge of failure to acquire a title was filed Aug. 18 by Howard Lisk, district inspector for the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles. The registration charge was filed by Patrolman W. E. Nott, who cited Springer Thursday afternoon at 1 on E. 3rd St. He charged that Springer had a Pennsylvania title for his car, but registered it in West Virginia.

Local Man Will Help Develop Plant To Purify Ocean Water

Raymond H. Jebens of Forsyth Pl., for two years manager of application research at the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. Division of the Ferro Corp., has taken a new post as engineer-economist with a federal government agency interested in cheap conversion of salt water to fresh water.

He will work in the office of Saline Water Conversion of the Interior Department at Washington, serving as a specialist advisor to the assistant director of demonstration plants. His duty will center on process economic evaluation and development of water cost statistics and analysis.

In the new post, he will have contact with varied aspects of the development work throughout the world, all seeking plants that can be developed on a sound economic basis.

Jebens resides here with his wife and their daughter, Carol, who is a high school sophomore. They plan to leave for Washington soon. Patterson produces a wide variety of process equipment for the chemical and paint industries.

A son., Donald, a graduate of Wellsville High School, now is employed in Los Angeles with a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corp. He resides at Downey, Calif., with his wife and their son, David. Another son, Richard, is residing in Philadelphia. He is an engineer with the Square D Co.

Work To Start Soon On Unity Road Repairs

LISBON—The Columbiana County Highway Department will start work within a week on the improvement of Unity Township Rd. 958, having completed a project on Middleton Township Rd. 1056.

The work on the back Unity-East Palestine Rd. will include straightening of a curve near Grimm's Welding Shop and lowering the grade on a hill near the Anna L. Shear farm, county commissioners said.

Two iron bridges were taken out of the Negley-Darlington Rd. and a concrete span was erected in the improvement of Rd. 1056 and all that remains is finishing of the berm in the stretch from the Tom Burson property to the Pennsylvania state line.

Water Board Will Buy Pipe For Line Project

The Board of Public Utilities today issued a call for bids which will be opened at noon Monday, Sept. 14, at City Hall for purchase of 864 feet of 12-inch pipe for use in relocating a water main on Pennsylvania Ave.

Council authorized the advertisement for bids Monday night and appropriated $8,000 to cover the cost. The call for bids was issued by W. O. Schneider, chairman of the board, which administers the water department.

The band members and chaperones will remain at Columbus overnight, returning Saturday. They will be lodged in dormitories at Otterbein College.

Reunion For Old School Draws 125

HAMMONDSVILLE—More than 125 former pupils, friends and a teacher attended the first reunion of the Martin School Sunday at the J. B. Workman farm on Pine Grove Ridge. The school was closed in 1936.

Officers were elected for the 1960 reunion and a picnic dinner was served in the afternoon. A roll call of about 100 pupils that attended the school was read by Mrs. Margaret Dallas Golden of Irondale and at least 50 answered.

Raymond Morrow was elected president for next year. Other officers are Mrs. Laura Maple Slates, secretary, and Lester Morrow, treasurer. The 1960 reunion was set for Aug. 28 at the Workman farm.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Margaret Golden, the only teacher present; Mrs. Lucy Russell Davis, 85, the oldest woman present; William Russell, oldest man; Mrs. Vinna Workman, parent with the most children who had attended the school; Mrs. Mina Maple Moore and Mrs. Myrtle William Radcliff, who traveled the farthest, and Norman Twaddle, who had two generations of children present.

Hymns were sung by James Maple, Mrs. Ellen Wilson, Mrs. Laura Slates and Mrs. Sylvia McConnaughy.

Glenmor Man Fined On Title, Plate Charges

William S. Springer of Glenmoor was fined $25 and costs on each of two charges today in Municipal Court — illegal auto registration and acquiring a motor vehicle without the title.

Springer pleaded guilty to both counts. The charge of failure to acquire a title was filed Aug. 18 by Howard Lisk, district inspector for the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles. The registration charge was filed by Patrolman W. E. Nott, who cited Springer Thursday afternoon at 1 on E. 3rd St. He charged that Springer had a Pennsylvania title for his car, but registered it in West Virginia.

Local Man Will Help Develop Plant To Purify Ocean Water

Raymond H. Jebens of Forsyth Pl., for two years manager of application research at the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. Division of the Ferro Corp., has taken a new post as engineer-economist with a federal government agency interested in cheap conversion of salt water to fresh water.

He will work in the office of Saline Water Conversion of the Interior Department at Washington, serving as a specialist advisor to the assistant director of demonstration plants. His duty will center on process economic evaluation and development of water cost statistics and analysis.

In the new post, he will have contact with varied aspects of the development work throughout the world, all seeking plants that can be developed on a sound economic basis.

Jebens resides here with his wife and their daughter, Carol, who is a high school sophomore. They plan to leave for Washington soon. Patterson produces a wide variety of process equipment for the chemical and paint industries.

A son., Donald, a graduate of Wellsville High School, now is employed in Los Angeles with a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corp. He resides at Downey, Calif., with his wife and their son, David. Another son, Richard, is residing in Philadelphia. He is an engineer with the Square D Co.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Program For Child Of Pre-School Age

Throughout America there will be many sad little hearts, come school opening day in September. Too young to be admitted to school the tot who had been playing for weeks, months, even years with brothers and sisters and other children not much older than himself, must stay home and see these older children go to school. Often it means a kind of separation that will be more or less permanent. It's the child who misses being old enough by a few months who usually takes this deprivation hardest.

By Garry Meyers

Seeing his predicament and their own problem of trying to keep him happy, his parents often bring strong pressures on the school to let the child a few months under the standard admission age enter school anyway. Indeed, to a few of these parents, the school becomes a possible baby sitter.

—:—

IF THE SCHOOL has a psychologist, the child in question may be given a mental test. If he rates high and has normal size and health, he may be admitted, even though a few months under standard age.

Thus the school may escape blame for being partial. Nevertheless there are often ways for squeezing a too-young youngster under the fence.

Usually the school advises unwilling parents to let the underage child stay home a term or year. The weight of evidence from published studies is on the side of the school.

In a few instances the child left behind may profit from attending nursery school if family funds be available for this.

Sometimes the mother can cooperate with a few other mothers of young children in getting these children together for a few hours a day, taking turns in directing this enterprise.

OTHERWISE THE mother, especially during the early weeks of school, should be willing to spend considerable time and effort to help this child have some time with other children near his age. This is harder, of course, if the mother works.

The mother should aim to read more to this child and spend more time stimulating him to amuse himself at drawing, cutting, pasting and making things for him.

It's wonderful when the older brother or sister, while home from school, can be encouraged to read to this younger child. And there's no better way for the older to gain in reading skills.

My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child?" and "Your Child and His Playmates," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Program For Child Of Pre-School Age

Throughout America there will be many sad little hearts, come school opening day in September. Too young to be admitted to school the tot who had been playing for weeks, months, even years with brothers and sisters and other children not much older than himself, must stay home and see these older children go to school. Often it means a kind of separation that will be more or less permanent. It's the child who misses being old enough by a few months who usually takes this deprivation hardest.

By Garry Meyers

Seeing his predicament and their own problem of trying to keep him happy, his parents often bring strong pressures on the school to let the child a few months under the standard admission age enter school anyway. Indeed, to a few of these parents, the school becomes a possible baby sitter.

—:—

IF THE SCHOOL has a psychologist, the child in question may be given a mental test. If he rates high and has normal size and health, he may be admitted, even though a few months under standard age.

Thus the school may escape blame for being partial. Nevertheless there are often ways for squeezing a too-young youngster under the fence.

Usually the school advises unwilling parents to let the underage child stay home a term or year. The weight of evidence from published studies is on the side of the school.

In a few instances the child left behind may profit from attending nursery school if family funds be available for this.

Sometimes the mother can cooperate with a few other mothers of young children in getting these children together for a few hours a day, taking turns in directing this enterprise.

OTHERWISE THE mother, especially during the early weeks of school, should be willing to spend considerable time and effort to help this child have some time with other children near his age. This is harder, of course, if the mother works.

The mother should aim to read more to this child and spend more time stimulating him to amuse himself at drawing, cutting, pasting and making things for him.

It's wonderful when the older brother or sister, while home from school, can be encouraged to read to this younger child. And there's no better way for the older to gain in reading skills.

My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child?" and "Your Child and His Playmates," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Did you ever hear of a father taking the word of a 3-year-old baby over an 11-year-old lady? Well this is what happened and I'd like your opinion.

I was in the living room watching TV. My brother, Craig, who is a showoff and a pest, kept running in front of the TV screen. Three times I asked him nicely to quit it. Finally I reached over and tapped him very lightly on the head.

At that moment my father came into the room. I just barely touched Craig but when he saw my father, he screamed as if I had fractured his skull.

My father said, "I saw that. No allowance for two weeks, young lady."

When I tried to explain I had only tapped him, he asked Craig if I had hit him hard. Craig said "yes" just to get me in trouble.

Now I don't get any allowance for two weeks. Is this fair?—HATED GIRL.

Dear Hated Girl: Sorry, but you are the victim of circumstantial evidence (you were caught in the act).

You should not have tapped Craig on the head, lightly or otherwise. Maybe two weeks of poverty will teach you to keep your hands to yourself.

One Side Of Story

Dear Ann: I'm a very decent guy, 22 years of age. I started to go with a girl who was beneath me socially. She was very pretty and not too dumb.

One day after we'd been dating about three months she told me it was necessary that we get married right away. My folks were plenty burned up about the whole thing.

After we'd been married four weeks, she told me she'd made a mistake and no baby was on the way. My folks say I can get an annulment. I want to get out of this marriage any way possible. I know now she did me a dirty trick.

What advice do you have? — FOOLED.

Dear Fooled: See your clergyman and your lawyer. If you were really decent you would not have been a candidate for this hurry-up phony deal. No sympathy from this corner, Bub;

Modern Mother

Dear Ann: We have a 3-year-old daughter who has no one to play with, so I take her to a nursery two or three times a week. I don't have a job outside my home.

My mother thinks it's terrible that I take my child to a nursery. She says, "In my day mothers enjoyed their youngsters. They didn't try to get rid of them every way possible."

I've tried to explain it's not a matter of "getting rid of her." I believe it's essential for children to have companionship of youngsters their own age and not to be with adults exclusively day in and day out.

This is not an overnight nursery, Ann. I take Margaret there in the morning and pick her up at 3 p.m. Your views will be greatly appreciated.—NASHVILLE.

Dear Nashville: I agree your daughter should have the company of children her own age. Life is very difficult for preschool youngsters who live in a totally adult atmosphere.

You're a grown woman now and the rearing of your child is your responsibility. Don't argue with your mother. But tell her you must use your own judgment in these matters and any further discussion is pointless.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Talk On Shakespeare Given For Kiwanians

Winston Porter, president of the Globe Brick Co., spoke with humor and praised the work of William Shakespeare in a talk, "To Think or Not to Think," at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Porter, who said he found Shakespeare both entertaining and enlightening, said many people quote the author in everyday life without knowing it.

William Porter, program chairman, introduced the speaker and presided in the absence of Rowland Kaufman, president.

Guests included Jeffrey Taylor and Pete Mullen, both Key Club members, Tom Grafton and Tom Piatt, both members of the Wellsville Club, and Ray Clendenning and Bob McVay.

About eight members of the East Liverpool club visited the Salem Kiwanis at its meeting yesterday.

6 More Farmers Join County Soil Program

LISBON — The Board of Supervisors of the Columbiana County Soil Conservation District have approved six more co-operators in the county program. The following farms were added:

What advice do you have? — FOOLED.

Dear Fooled: See your clergyman and your lawyer. If you were really decent you would not have been a candidate for this hurry-up phony deal. No sympathy from this corner, Bub;

Modern Mother

Dear Ann: We have a 3-year-old daughter who has no one to play with, so I take her to a nursery two or three times a week. I don't have a job outside my home.

My mother thinks it's terrible that I take my child to a nursery. She says, "In my day mothers enjoyed their youngsters. They didn't try to get rid of them every way possible."

I've tried to explain it's not a matter of "getting rid of her." I believe it's essential for children to have companionship of youngsters their own age and not to be with adults exclusively day in and day out.

This is not an overnight nursery, Ann. I take Margaret there in the morning and pick her up at 3 p.m. Your views will be greatly appreciated.—NASHVILLE.

Dear Nashville: I agree your daughter should have the company of children her own age. Life is very difficult for preschool youngsters who live in a totally adult atmosphere.

You're a grown woman now and the rearing of your child is your responsibility. Don't argue with your mother. But telf her you must use your own judgment in these matters and any further discussion is pointless.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Talk On Shakespeare Given For Kiwanians

Winston Porter, president of the Globe Brick Co., spoke with humor and praised the work of William Shakespeare in a talk, "To Think or Not to Think," at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Porter, who said he found Shakespeare both entertaining and enlightening, said many people quote the author in everyday life without knowing it.

William Porter, program chairman, introduced the speaker and presided in the absence of Rowland Kaufman, president.

Guests included Jeffrey Taylor and Pete Mullen, both Key Club members, Tom Grafton and Tom Piatt, both members of the Wellsville Club, and Ray Clendenning and Bob McVay.

About eight members of the East Liverpool club visited the Salem Kiwanis at its meeting yesterday.

6 More Farmers Join County Soil Program

LISBON — The Board of Supervisors of the Columbiana County Soil Conservation District have approved six more co-operators in the county program. The following farms were added:

Earl R. Bardo of Salem R. D. 2, 90 acres, and John Risbeck of Salem R. D. 1, 28 acres in Butler Township; Papania and Son of New Waterford R. D. 1, 182 acres, and John Batisky of New Waterford R. D., 90 acres in Unity Township; Richard Beiling of Columbiana R. D., 3 acres in Fairfield Township, and S. J. Martin of Hanoverton R. D. 1, 124 acres in Franklin Township.

111 At Farewell Fete For Gas Firm Official

A total of 111 attended a party Thursday night at the Columbiana Country Club honoring W. T. McIntyre, division manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., who retires today after 40 years of service.

Harold R. Sneddon, who will succeed McIntyre, was master of ceremonies.

McIntyre was presented gifts by Earl Steffen, while a certificate was presented by Kenneth Harsh, district manager of the gas firm.

Guests present were from the Ohio Valley Gas Co. and the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

A Public Success Story

John Crosby

"I was working in a retail store in Lincoln, Neb., and at night I'd preside over a program which broadcast an hour of classical music over a local AM station.

"Soon, however, I was doing 14 hours a week of classical music fully sponsored. It got to interfere with my work in the store so I set up a remote unit in my home and broadcast from there.

"Occasionally, we'd have a guest like Igor Gorin or that shoemaker from Italy who won on the $64,000 Question.

"That was the beginning of it. There was so much interest shown in classical music I got to thinking about establishing my own FM station. Everybody said I was crazy. But I did it.

"Today, after only a year and a half, much to my surprise, KFMQ has double the annual dollar volume of the average FM station in the country and now there are seven applications for FM stations in Nebraska."

I LIKE THIS story not because it's a success story for Herbert Burton, the quiet sincere guy who tells it but because it is a success story for the public which is supposed to have such terrible taste.

KFMQ's schedule is loaded with such program as the Concerto Hour, the Symphony Hour, the Classical Hours (8 to 11 every night), the Jazz Hours (no rock 'n' roll), the Edinburgh festival, the Israeli Philharmonic, the London forum and other BBC programs, and like that all day long.

"A lot of people warned me that the population of Lincoln, Neb., was not as cultured or sophisticated as New York's and they warned me against starting a station like this.

"Yet I have found there is a great reception for our station. Young people will never know what is culturally good unless someone makes it available to them."

-:-

FAR FROM SCARING the listeners away, quality has been KFMQ's greatest asset. "We feel we have more adult listeners in the immediate area than all of the AM stations combined — that is those AM stations broadcasting from Lincoln.

"The day we went on the air the phone didn't stop ringing. We now program 114 hours a week—from 7 a.m. till midnight daily.

"Occasionally we extend our broadcasting to 1 a.m. to put on progressive jazz. I'm not fond of progressive jazz but many of the men at the station are and many of the students at the university are. A large minority likes it, so we play it.

"We don't ignore political or social problems in Lincoln. We offer the City Council as much time as they want. When Starkweather (the celebrated killer) was caught, we had a panel of ministers and psychiatrists to debate whether there should be capital punishment. When they were building the missile base at Omaha, we aired the pros and cons of that."

KFMQ IS DOING FINE with its advertisers too. "We've proved that you can get a healthy response from above average income groups. It's my feeling that people who are above average income have above average educations and want our sort of programming.

"No jingles are allowed on our station. The only time we relented was to a bank. It brought in a jingle and we had it rearranged for string quartet.

"Singing commercials can be in good taste if someone will take the trouble to do it.

"We never accept any commercial unless it's honest. One dollar ties can't be sold for 75 cents. People with intelligence won't accept such malarkey. The day we went on the air we had enough money to pay our total indebtedness.

"Most of the sponsors came from those sponsors I had on the AM station. After a year and a half, 85 per cent of our original sponsors are still with us. To me that means that if you give people what they want—they'll buy it."

Mrs. Klumpp Sentenced To Die In Chair

BULLETIN

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edythe Klumpp was sentenced in Hamilton County Criminal Court today to die in the electric chair on Dec. 15.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edythe Klumpp today makes what could be her last appearance in Hamilton County Criminal Court.

The blonde 41-year-old twice-divorced mother of four was to be brought from her jail cell to hear Judge Frank M. Gusweiler rule on whether she could have a new trial.

If the new trial motion is denied, Judge Gusweiler is expected to sentence her to death and fix what will be at least a tentative date for her execution.

The death sentence became mandatory July 2 when a jury convicted the part-time teacher of first-degree murder and made no recommendation for mercy.

Defense attorney William F. Hopkins has said he will appeal if the new trial motion is denied and that probably would mean stays of execution while the appeal is pending.

If sentence is pronounced, however, Mrs. Klumpp is expected to be taken soon to the Women's Reformatory to await execution or action on the appeal.

She was convicted of killing Mrs. Louise Bergen, estranged wife of William Bergen, with whom Mrs. Klumpp had been living for five months.

The slaying occurred on a secluded park street here last Oct. 30. Mrs. Klumpp claimed the shooting was accidental. She admitted, however, she kept the 32-year-old Mrs. Bergen's body in the car overnight, taught a sewing class that evening and then took the body to Lake Cowan in Clinton County the next day and burned it.

The state claimed the slaying occurred because Mrs. Klumpp feared Bergen was going to return to his wife and that Mrs. Klumpp needed his financial support to keep her home from being sold at auction to satisfy a property settlement with her divorced husband.

Defense attorney William F. Hopkins based his motion for a new trial on claims there was misconduct by a woman juror he declared was prejudiced, and misconduct by the prosecution. He also claimed the state did not prove that any crime occurred in Hamilton County to give the local court jurisdiction.

Another contention was that police violated Mrs. Klumpp's constitutional rights during questioning and the taking of statements from her.

Lorain Woman Dies In Collision

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A 75-year-old Lorain woman was killed Thursday night in a two-car collision in Sheffield Village north of here.

A Lorain city fireman who assisted police with the accident died of a heart attack.

Killed in the collision was Mrs. Nellie Pyaha, a passenger in one of the cars.

Glen Smith, 26, of Lorain, a passenger in the other car, and Mrs. Marie Tesmer, 55, of Avon, another occupant of the car in which Mrs. Pyaha was riding, were reported in poor condition at Elyria Memorial Hospital.

Christmas Activities Report Due Merchants

A report of the Christmas activities committee will be presented when the East Liverpool Merchants Association meets Tuesday morning at 9:30 in the Chamber of Commerce office — its first session since July.

Harold Allison heads the committee, which already has launched plans for the Christmas observance, including lights and other decorations in the business area.

Fall association activities also will be discussed. Leslie Blumenthal, chairman, will preside. ELMA skipped its August meeting because of the summer vacation season.

Men, 73 And 96, Cited For Fighting

DETROIT (AP) — Anastasia Yesue, 73, told police he was clobbered with a cane wielded by Frank Archibald, 96, suffering a black eye as a result.

Asked why he didn't hit back, Yesue replied:

"I didn't want to hit an old man."

Yesue and Archibald were ordered to tell it to a municipal court judge Sept. 3.

Historical Group's Reunion Will Show Old Farm Engines

The Tri-State Historical Steam Engine Association, Inc., will hold its third annual reunion Friday and Saturday, Sept. 25-26, at the M. Dean Fullerton farm a mile off Route 18 between Burgettstown and Hickory.

There will be displays of old-time steam traction and portable engines such as the Advance-Rumely, Frick, Huber, Baker, Case, Scheidler, Port Huron and Keck-Gonnerman, and model engines, threshers, feed grinders, baler, gas tractor and sawmill.

There will also be daily demonstrations of wheat and oat threshing, straw baling, fan test, saw milling operation, feed grinding and moving pictures and a program in the evenings.

There will be a lunch stand on the grounds and sites for camping and hotel and motel accomodations are nearby.

This reunion was held in the past at the Hookstown Fair.

The non-profit organization was formed to preserve, perpetuate and display the steam traction engine and all other early farm machinery, also antique cars and other means of transportation.

Officers are C. R. Fullerton of Burgettstown, president; C. H. Lighfoot of Beaver Falls, vice president; Paul F. Crow of Charleroi, secretary, and L. G. Whaley of North Charleroi, treasurer.

The Board of Directors includes Earl Hamilton of Lisbon R. D. 1, Lacy Lewton of Hickory, Glenn Fullerton and Dean Fullerton of Burgettstown, Paul Kabo of Avella, John Sell of Lisbon R. D. 4, John Herron of Hookstown and H. T. Fleming of Baver Falls.

Deputies Too Busy, Prisoner Walks Away

OROVILLE, Calif. (AP)—When Pat Arellano, waiting to be booked into the county jail, asked to make a telephone call, busy deputies waved him toward the radio room.

There he was asked: "Are you a prisoner?"

Arellano, a 32-year-old barber, nodded.

"Then use the phone outside," he was told.

So Arellano walked outside Wednesday and hasn't been seen since. He had been sentenced to 100 days for drunken driving.

High School Gets Grades

All fifth through eighth grade students will attend elementary school in Chester High School beginning Monday, it was announced today by Max Tuttle, principal.

The school will be known as Chester Elementary. Sixteen rooms of the high school building are being used. Seventh and eighth graders and some others attended at the building last term but the complete switch will be this term, Tuttle said.

Central and Washington Schools now will accommodate only first through fourth graders.

Homeroom assignments for Grades 5 through 8 at the high school and Grades 2 through 4 at the Central building have been posted at entrances of both.

Tuttle, elementary principal at the high school, emphasized that all Grades of 5 will be at the high school this term. Allen Allison, new elementary principal at the Central building, said room assignments were not completed for Grade 1.

Elementary teachers met Thursday in their respective buildings, preparing and organizing their rooms for the opening of school Monday, Allison said.

Police Radar Devices Bring Startling Results

CRANSTON, R.I. (AP)—Police put their radar equipment to work after receiving complaints of automobiles speeding through residential areas.

They announced the results Thursday: most of the speeding was being done by motorists living in the neighborhood from which the complaints came.

Constables Of County Will Convene Sept. 8

The Columbiana County Constables' Association will meet Sept. 8 at 8:30 p. m. in the Calcutta fire station, Roy N. Painter, president, reported.

During July, constables in 11 townships issued 64 warnings citations, investigated 11 accidents and 12 breaking and enterings and made 28 arrests.

A total of 6,529 miles were patroled and 58 Civil papers served. Property recovered by the constables was valued in the amount of $807.

Oral Polio Vaccine

● One Ovary
● Sleep

Q. Will oral polio vaccine be available soon? I'd rather take the vaccine by mouth than by injection.

A. Oral (take-by-mouth) poliomyelitis vaccine is not yet available so don't stall for time—get your shots now. One drug manufacturer hopes to have evidence supporting the safety and effectiveness of oral polio vaccine by fall. When such evidence is available it will be submitted to governmental authorities with a request for permission to make and distribute the vaccine commercially. The Surgeon General recently stated that on the basis of present information, the Public Health Service would not license oral polio vaccine and has not yet been asked to do so.

Q. Can pregnancy occur after removal of one ovary? In what way does age influence the ability to conceive?

A. Pregnancy can occur when only one ovary is present, provided the woman is otherwise capable of reproducing. The ability to conceive steadily declines from about age 25 or earlier. By age 35 something like one woman in ten ceases to reproduce, one in three by age 40, and seven out of eight by age 45.

Q. How many hours of sleep does a 12-year-old need?

A. There is no set rule. The amount of sleep needed varies from one person to another. Some get along quite well with six or seven hours — others need eight or more hours. Teenagers are usually sleepyheads, or at least they seem able to sleep the clock around, especially on school days. Good judgment and common sense should be exercised in determining the amount of sleep needed.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

A Public Success Story

"I was working in a retail store in Lincoln, Neb., and at night I'd preside over a program which broadcast an hour of classical music over a local AM station.

John Crosby

"Soon, however, I was doing 14 hours a week of classical music fully sponsored. It got to interfere with my work in the store so I set up a remote unit in my home and broadcast from there.

"Occasionally, we'd have a guest like Igor Gorin or that shoemaker from Italy who won on the $64,000 Question.

"That was the beginning of it. There was so much interest shown in classical music I got to thinking about establishing my own FM station. Everybody said I was crazy. But I did it.

"Today, after only a year and a half, much to my surprise, KFMQ has double the annual dollar volume of the average FM station in the country and now there are seven applications for FM stations in Nebraska."

I LIKE THIS story not because it's a success story for Herbert Burton, the quiet sincere guy who tells it but because it is a success story for the public which is supposed to have such terrible taste.

KFMQ's schedule is loaded with such program as the Concerto Hour, the Symphony Hour, the Classical Hours (8 to 11 every night), the Jazz Hours (no rock 'n' roll), the Edinburgh festival, the Israeli Philharmonic, the London forum and other BBC programs, and like that all day long.

"A lot of people warned me that the population of Lincoln, Neb., was not as cultured or sophisticated as New York's and they warned me against starting a station like this.

"Yet I have found there is a great reception for our station. Young people will never know what is culturally good unless someone makes it available to them."

-:-

FAR FROM SCARING the listeners away, quality has been KFMQ's greatest asset. "We feel we have more adult listeners in the immediate area than all of the AM stations combined — that is those AM stations broadcasting from Lincoln.

"The day we went on the air the phone didn't stop ringing. We now program 114 hours a week—from 7 a.m. till midnight daily.

"Occasionally we extend our broadcasting to 1 a.m. to put on progressive jazz. I'm not fond of progressive jazz but many of the men at the station are and many of the students at the university are. A large minority likes it, so we play it.

"We don't ignore political or social problems in Lincoln. We offer the City Council as much time as they want. When Starkweather (the celebrated killer) was caught, we had a panel of ministers and psychiatrists to debate whether there should be capital punishment. When they were building the missile base at Omaha, we aired the pros and cons of that."

KFMQ IS DOING FINE with its advertisers too. "We've proved that you can get a healthy response from above average income groups. It's my feeling that people who are above average income have above average educations and want our sort of programming.

"No jingles are allowed on our station. The only time we relented was to a bank. It brought in a jingle and we had it rearranged for string quartet.

"Singing commercials can be in good taste if someone will take the trouble to do it.

"We never accept any commercial unless it's honest. One dollar ties can't be sold for 75 cents. People with intelligence won't accept such malarkey. The day we went on the air we had enough money to pay our total indebtedness.

"Most of the sponsors came from those sponsors I had on the AM station. After a year and a half, 85 per cent of our original sponsors are still with us. To me that means that if you give people what they want—they'll buy it."

Mrs. Klumpp Sentenced To Die In Chair

BULLETIN

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edythe Klumpp was sentenced in Hamilton County Criminal Court today to die in the electric chair on Dec. 15.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Edythe Klumpp today makes what could be her last appearance in Hamilton County Criminal Court.

The blonde 41-year-old twice-divorced mother of four was to be brought from her jail cell to hear Judge Frank M. Gusweiler rule on whether she could have a new trial.

If the new trial motion is denied, Judge Gusweiler is expected to sentence her to death and fix what will be at least a tentative date for her execution.

The death sentence became mandatory July 2 when a jury convicted the part-time teacher of first-degree murder and made no recommendation for mercy.

Defense attorney William F. Hopkins has said he will appeal if the new trial motion is denied and that probably would mean stays of execution while the appeal is pending.

If sentence is pronounced, however, Mrs. Klumpp is expected to be taken soon to the Women's Reformatory to await execution or action on the appeal.

She was convicted of killing Mrs. Louise Bergen, estranged wife of William Bergen, with whom Mrs. Klumpp had been living for five months.

The slaying occurred on a secluded park street here last Oct. 30. Mrs. Klumpp claimed the shooting was accidental. She admitted, however, she kept the 32-year-old Mrs. Bergen's body in the car overnight, taught a sewing class that evening and then took the body to Lake Cowan in Clinton County the next day and burned it.

The state claimed the slaying occurred because Mrs. Klumpp feared Bergen was going to return to his wife and that Mrs. Klumpp needed his financial support to keep her home from being sold at auction to satisfy a property settlement with her divorced husband.

Defense attorney William F. Hopkins based his motion for a new trial on claims there was misconduct by a woman juror he declared was prejudiced, and misconduct by the prosecution. He also claimed the state did not prove that any crime occurred in Hamilton County to give the local court jurisdiction.

Another contention was that police violated Mrs. Klumpp's constitutional rights during questioning and the taking of statements from her.

Lorain Woman Dies In Collision

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A 75-year-old Lorain woman was killed Thursday night in a two-car collision in Sheffield Village north of here.

A Lorain city fireman who assisted police with the accident died of a heart attack.

Killed in the collision was Mrs. Nellie Pyaha, a passenger in one of the cars.

Glen Smith, 26, of Lorain, a passenger in the other car, and Mrs. Marie Tesmer, 55, of Avon, another occupant of the car in which Mrs. Pyaha was riding, were reported in poor condition at Elyria Memorial Hospital.

Christmas Activities Report Due Merchants

A report of the Christmas activities committee will be presented when the East Liverpool Merchants Association meets Tuesday morning at 9:30 in the Chamber of Commerce office — its first session since July.

Harold Allison heads the committee, which already has launched plans for the Christmas observance, including lights and other decorations in the business area.

Fall association activities also will be discussed. Leslie Blumenthal, chairman, will preside. ELMA skipped its August meeting because of the summer vacation season.

Men, 73 And 96, Cited For Fighting

DETROIT (AP) — Anastasia Yesue, 73, told police he was clobbered with a cane wielded by Frank Archibald, 96, suffering a black eye as a result.

Asked why he didn't hit back, Yesue replied:

"I didn't want to hit an old man."

Yesue and Archibald were ordered to tell it to a municipal court judge Sept. 3.

Historical Group's Reunion Will Show Old Farm Engines

The Tri-State Historical Steam Engine Association, Inc., will hold its third annual reunion Friday and Saturday, Sept. 25-26, at the M. Dean Fullerton farm a mile off Route 18 between Burgettstown and Hickory.

There will be displays of old-time steam traction and portable engines such as the Advance-Rumely, Frick, Huber, Baker, Case, Scheidler, Port Huron and Keck-Gonnerman, and model engines, threshers, feed grinders, baler, gas tractor and sawmill.

There will also be daily demonstrations of wheat and oat threshing, straw baling, fan test, saw milling operation, feed grinding and moving pictures and a program in the evenings.

There will be a lunch stand on the grounds and sites for camping and hotel and motel accomodations are nearby.

This reunion was held in the past at the Hookstown Fair.

The non-profit organization was formed to preserve, perpetuate and display the steam traction engine and all other early farm machinery, also antique cars and other means of transportation.

Officers are C. R. Fullerton of Burgettstown, president; C. H. Lighfoot of Beaver Falls, vice president; Paul F. Crow of Charleroi, secretary, and L. G. Whaley of North Charleroi, treasurer.

The Board of Directors includes Earl Hamilton of Lisbon R. D. 1, Lacy Lewton of Hickory, Glenn Fullerton and Dean Fullerton of Burgettstown, Paul Kabo of Avella, John Sell of Lisbon R. D. 4, John Herron of Hookstown and H. T. Fleming of Baver Falls.

Deputies Too Busy, Prisoner Walks Away

OROVILLE, Calif. (AP)—When Pat Arellano, waiting to be booked into the county jail, asked to make a telephone call, busy deputies waved him toward the radio room.

There he was asked: "Are you a prisoner?"

Arellano, a 32-year-old barber, nodded.

"Then use the phone outside," he was told.

So Arellano walked outside Wednesday and hasn't been seen since. He had been sentenced to 100 days for drunken driving.

High School Gets Grades

All fifth through eighth grade students will attend elementary school in Chester High School beginning Monday, it was announced today by Max Tuttle, principal.

The school will be known as Chester Elementary. Sixteen rooms of the high school building are being used. Seventh and eighth graders and some others attended at the building last term but the complete switch will be this term, Tuttle said.

Central and Washington Schools now will accommodate only first through fourth graders.

Homeroom assignments for Grades 5 through 8 at the high school and Grades 2 through 4 at the Central building have been posted at entrances of both.

Tuttle, elementary principal at the high school, emphasized that all Grades of 5 will be at the high school this term. Allen Allison, new elementary principal at the Central building, said room assignments were not completed for Grade 1.

Elementary teachers met Thursday in their respective buildings, preparing and organizing their rooms for the opening of school Monday, Allison said.

Police Radar Devices Bring Startling Results

CRANSTON, R.I. (AP)—Police put their radar equipment to work after receiving complaints of automobiles speeding through residential areas.

They announced the results Thursday: most of the speeding was being done by motorists living in the neighborhood from which the complaints came.

15 Lettermen Work Out At Beaver Local

The Sports Bench

By BOB DUFFY
Sports Editor

Size, Spirit And Ability . . .

Size, spirit and all-around ability are some of the things that have impressed us on our jaunts to district practice fields.

From all we have gathered this past week, the district should be in for one of its best football seasons in several years.

When we mentioned size, we were thinking particularly of the United squad, which shows some of the biggest boys of any team in the area.

Their great fullback Jim Summer is 210 and three linemen top the 200-pound mark. The overall average weight of the team would be close to 170.

Summer, who was a heavy 240-pounder a year ago, has won his battle with weight and is the third fastest man on the team.

Beaver Local gets the nod when it comes to spirit. Coach Jack O'Rourke won't have any problems if his team is fired up when the season rolls around like it is in practice.

The Beaver Local team is small in size, but big in heart.

In all-around ability, East Liverpool's Bob Mackall would have to rate right on top. He can run, pass and kick with the best of them.

He has been running the Potters to perfection from his quarterback slot and was the big difference in a scrimmage victory over Campbell Memorial Wednesday.

Mackall threw for one touchdown and ran for another in the Potters' opening scrimmage test.

Discounting injuries, the Potters have more balance in their backfield this season than at any time since the great 1955 team, which went undefeated.

With John Goodballet making a definite bid for the fullback slot, Dave Zelch probably will be running from halfback along with Joe Thompson, Cookie Goodballet, Sheridan Battestelli or Henry Roach.

Also Kenny Cunningham, a neat little passer, will be backing Mackall up at the quarterback spot.

Skirting Around The District . . .

NEWELL had a miserable season last year, but Coach Pete Horoszko is confident that the Vikings will surprise a few teams this season.

He has the proper material to wind up with a winning season.

CHESTER hasn't had a losing season for quite a few years and if we know Dom Amedeo well enough — and we think we do— the Panthers will win more than they'll lose.

—:—

WELLSVILLE has some swift backs returning and now its up to Coach Ken Woods to mold an offense around them.

The two backs who Woods will be counting on are Bob Delposen and Jim Stevens.

MIDLAND has nine lettermen back and we were very impressed with the passing of Kenny Russell, who was hitting his receivers with uncanny accuracy.

Also don't be surprised if this is Coach John Petchel's last year at Midland. We heard John might give up coaching after this season.

EAST PALESTINE has another new mentor as the school serves as a stepping stone for coaches.

The Bulldogs are working on an 11-game winning string after going undefeated last year. Palestine shouldn't have any trouble winning them all again this season. Their new coach is Howard Weyers, who was at Ellwood City last year.

LISBON is almost a sure bet to finish with more victories than defeats since Bud Bucher, who is starting his 13th season, has never had a losing team in 12 years.

His consistent record is amazing. In 12 years at Lisbon, Bucher shows 92 wins, against 23 setbacks and 5 ties.

—:—

NEW CUMBERLAND in all probability will be down this season. Between graduation and ineligibilities, Coach Charlie Miller has been stripped of almost everything.

—:—

SOUTH SIDE has several regulars back from last year, but their schedule, which is a tough one, is against the Rams.

We haven't had a chance to visit some schools yet — including Columbiana, Fairfield-Waterford, Salineville, Irondale and Leetonia.

But all-in-all it looks like a pretty good year for the pigskin.

This 'n That In Sports . . .

A FORMER East Liverpool gridder, Bill Pizzica, is the new football coach at Sebring High School.

This is Bill's first year in the coaching ranks after graduating from Mt. Union College, where he was a regular for four years.

—:—

TOM McCALL, from East Palestine, the new assistant football coach at Beaver Local, is the brother of Brian McCall, who coached Cleveland Cathedral Latin to the semi-finals of the Ohio State basketball tourney three years ago.

Tom played on the first undefeated team at East Palestine in 1946. Brian is now head basketball coach at the University of Maine.

THE EAST LIVERPOOL Little League will hold its annual "appreciation night" for those boys graduating from Little League baseball on Tuesday, Sept. 8, at East Junior High School.

The affair has been a success in the past and last year some 400 Little Leaguers and their parents attended.

Spirit Running High At Start Of '59 Drills

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Coach Jack O'Rourke hit the jackpot this season in lettermen with a total of 15 returning, including 10 of 11 gridders who were starters in 1958.

The only major loss suffered by Beaver Local was last year's captain, Mike Hall, who performed at tackle.

The remainder of the 1958 squad, which won two of eight games, is intact and things are looking up for the Beavers.

O'ROURKE has 38 candidates working out and the Beaver Local grid camp is one of the most spirited in the district.

O'Rourke is counting on halfbacks Fred Needs and John Smith, fullback Jim Shingleton and quarterback Bill Dunn to supply the scoring punch this season.

O'Rourke calls his backfield "fast", with Smith and Shingleton exceptionally speedy. Smith was used at end last season, but because of his speed, O'Rourke has moved him to halfback.

Other lettermen who will fill their positions again this season are Bill Reed and Tom Plate, both around 150, at ends, with Jeff Silliman (130) Bill Mangano (160) and Thurm Allen (170) listed for guard posts.

Jim Hall, a 170-pound junior, has been shifted from center to tackle, where he has been looking very good, along with Bob McBane, a 150-pound tackle.

Dale Beagle, a fullback, also will be one of the top defensive players, O'Rourke pointed out. Other backs who will be used are sophomore Carl Hoppel, the state wrestling champion, at halfback along with Tim Feit.

IN MAKING several changes, O'Rourke shifted Ron McLaughlin, a lanky 155 - pound junior, from quarterback to end.

Four junior boys up from the reserve squad have been giving some of the lettermen a run for their money, O'Rourke said.

Ron Westover, a 170-pounder, has been playing well at tackle, while Art Matheny, a 210-pounder and heaviest man on the squad, also is vieing for a tackle job.

Bob Possage is working hard to earn an end position, while Francis Campbell, a 185-pounder, has been a standout on defense.

O'Rourke will run a multiple "T" with an unbalanced line, the same as last season.

In his second year at Beaver Local, O'Rourke looks for an improved season, but points out several "tough" foes on the schedule.

Beaver Local will meet Wellsville this season along with Northwestern a Class "AA" school which was undefeated in 1958.

"We can't forget Chester and United either" O'Rourke added.

The Beaver Local mentor will get some idea of what he can expect this season on Sept. 18 when he takes his team to Chester for the opener.

The first home game for Beaver Local will follow on Sept. 26. All Beaver Local home games will be played beginning at 2 p. m. in the afternoon.

Other home games are slated with Fairfield-Waterford on Oct. 24, Wellsville Nov. 7 and Northwestern in the finale Nov. 14.

Assisting O'Rourke is Tom McCall, a former East Palestine athlete who was hired this summer, and Bruce Costanzo.

Bernie Allen, who will return to Purdue this fall, has also been assisting O'Rourke.

Unique Grid Practice Held At Beaver Local

Beaver Local has a unique training schedule. It begins about 7.30 a. m. when coach Jack O'Rourke and his assistant Bruce Costanzo pick the boys up on a bus at their respective homes.

Practice gets under way at 8 and runs until 10 a. m. when the gridders break for lunch at a training table in the school cafeteria.

A rest period is held between 11 and 11:30, followed by chalk talks and movies.

At 1 p. m. the afternoon session begins. It ends at 3. O'Rourke explains since Beaver Local is a rural school it is much easier to keep the boys all day, thus easing the transportation problem.

Basilio, Fullmer Meet Tonight In Title Bout

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Carmen Basilio tries to prove again tonight that a little guy can be the middleweight boxing champion of the world.

The craggy faced onion farmer from Chittenango, N. Y., weighing about 153, tackles Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, a bull shouldered 160-pounder, in a 15-round battle to decide the National Boxing Assn. titlist.

Basilio stepped up from the 147-pound class when he outpointed Sugar Ray Robinson for the middleweight title on Sept. 23, 1957. Carmen then weighed only 151 as an overstuffed welterweight.

On March 25, 1958, Robinson won back the championship over the 15-round route, but the NBA stripped him of his title last May 4 because he hadn't defended it. New York, Basilio's home state, still recognizes Robinson as champion, as does Massachusetts.

A crowd of about 14,000 paying $200,000 was expected in the Cow Palace for the 10 p. m. (EDT) battle which also counts a $175,000 stipend from NBC for the television and radio rights. Basilio stands to collect about $140,000 with $100,000 for Fullmer. After weighin, Fullmer will eat a steak and could enter the ring at 163.

"I expect my weight to give me the advantage in the final five rounds," Fullmer said. He's a strong boy known both for his rough boxing and as a Mormon Sunday school teacher in his home town.

Fullmer also had a taste of the middleweight championship when he outpointed Robinson in 1957, but suffered a knockout the same year in a return bout.

Almost all observers here expect a rugged fight going the full distance. Odds of about 10-7 favor Basilio. A poll of sports writers showed 13 favoring the New Yorker and 4 going for Fullmer.

Both are rough, tough battlers who have proved they can take punishment. The 32-year-old Basilio never has been stopped while Fullmer, 28, suffered just the Robinson fifth round knockout.

Basilio said he aimed for a knockout but was conditioned to go the distance. Should the nationally televised fight go 15 rounds, the decision comes from the referee and two judges on the 10-point-must system. The winner of each round gets 10 points and the loser 9 or less depending upon his showing. An even round gives each 10 points.

Basilio's co-managers will not be in his corner for the first time in his nine championship fights. Both Joe Netro and John De John will have ringside seats. They've been under investigation in New York and neither applied for a California license.

Contracts for this fight don't call for a return engagement, but each fighter agreed to meet the man rated No. 1 by the NBA within 90 days. Neither Basilio nor Fullmer have expressed any disire to fight Robinson who in the past has demanded the major share of the middleweight purses.

Cox Construction Goes After Second Saturday

Cox Construction, East Liverpool's representative in the ABC tourney at Canton, will be seeking its second straight victory Saturday at 7:30 at Cook Park in Canton. Cox's will meet the winner of the Barberton-Warren contest. Manager Bob Campbell said he expects to start Jim Dickey, a righthander and former pitching star at Ohio Wesleyan.

All members of the Cox Construction squad are requested to meet at Bob Campbell's Motorama on Pennsylvania Ave., at 4 p. m. Saturday.

Canadian Farmer Wrests Boat Race Title From U.S.

DETROIT (AP)—Canada's Bob Hayward "gambled all the way" with his Miss Supertest III in wresting the Harmsworth Trophy from the United States.

"I was out to win, come what may," said the young Ontario poultry farmer Thursday after setting a Harmsworth record of 104.098 miles an hour in beating the U.S. defender, Maverick.

The U.S. boat, piloted by Bill Stead, quit with engine trouble in the 12th lap of the 45-mile race, but few experts doubted the outcome from the first lap.

Hayward thundered around the initial lap in the record speed of 107.495 m.p.h.

The two hydroplanes entered Thursday's race tied at one apiece. Maverick had been favored to retain the cup the United States had held for 39 years.

The last American League pitcher to win 25 games in a single season was Mel Parnell of Boston

Giants' Manager Riled After Losses To Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"What do you want me to say? I'm happy. I'd love to come back here after a night game and play a day double-header. Is that what you want me to say?"

Manager Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants was riled. His club had just lost two to the last-place Philadelphia Phillies. The weary, quiet Giants were sprawled on clubhouse benches. Their faces were lined with disgust. They had played some of their worst baseball of the season.

Rigney looked up from his locker in the corner at the unpleasing sight, and commented:

"I'm tired and I didn't even play."

That sort of summed up the feeling among the Giants. They felt National League President Warren Giles had given them the short end of the stick in forcing Thursday's rain makeup doubleheader on the heels of a night game at Pittsburgh.

As the Giants left the clubhouse for the plane ride to Los Angeles and a crucial three-game series with the Dodgers, now only two games back, Rigney pointed to a telegram on the bulletin board. He said, "This is our motto from now on."

"I know you fellows think the world came to an end tonight. Forget it. Take two tomorrow."

It was signed by Giants' owner Horace Stoneham. He sent it Wednesday night after the team blew a four-run lead in the ninth inning at Pittsburgh.

"That's it," said Rigney. "Forget today. Let's win tomorrow."

End Frank Clarke Most Improved, Brown Indicates

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Coach Paul Brown named end Frank Clarke as perhaps his most improved holdover player as the Cleveland Browns closed their training camp Thursday at Hiram College.

The Browns leave by plane from Cleveland today for two exhibition games on the West Coast. They play the San Francisco 49ers Sunday and the Los Angeles Rams a week from Saturday.

Workouts will be resumed at League Park in Cleveland the day after Labor Day.

Clarke, a University of Colorado graduate starting his third season with the Browns, gave fine performances against Pittsburgh and Detroit in recent exhibition games.

Coach Brown also said the acquisition of tackles Floyd Peters and Sid Youngelman as free agents in the off-season seems to be working out well.

Youngelman, previously with the 49ers and the Philadelphia Eagles, can play both defensive end and tackle. Peters began his bid with the Browns at offensive tackle and now seems to have a chance of remaining in a swing role.

FIGHT RESULTS

Baton Rouge, La. — Joe Brown, 133½, Baton Rouge, knocked out Santiago Ramirez, 135¾, Havana, 7.

Youngstown Golfers Win 2 Tourney Titles

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Youngstown golfers won titles in two divisions of the third annual 36-hole Great Lakes Bantam Tournament which ended here Thursday.

Don Colla, 12, won the title for boys 10 to 12 years old with 82-85—167 over the Elm County Club course.

Shirley Walley, 11, fired 91-90—181 to win the title for girls 10 to 12.

Mike Gery, 15, of West Lafayette, Ind., and Joanne Gavigan, 15, of Waukesha, Wis., won the 13-to-15 crowns.

25 Teams Open Play In Knothole Tourney

CINCINNATI (AP) — A somewhat misnamed National Knothole Baseball Tournament for boys 15 and under opens here today. It will run through Sunday.

Although the tournament is called national, all participating teams come from four states—Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia. Entered are 25 teams.

Play will be in two divisions, Class A for boys who will not be 16 until after Sept. 1 and Class B for youngsters who will not be 14 until after that date.

One of a dozen games today sends Ironton, Ohio, against Clay, W. Va.

Basilio, Fullmer Meet Tonight In Title Bout

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Carmen Basilio tries to prove again tonight that a little guy can be the middleweight boxing champion of the world.

The craggy faced onion farmer from Chittenango, N. Y., weighing about 153, tackles Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, a bull shouldered 160-pounder, in a 15-round battle to decide the National Boxing Assn. titlist.

Basilio stepped up from the 147-pound class when he outpointed Sugar Ray Robinson for the middleweight title on Sept. 23, 1957. Carmen then weighed only 151 as an overstuffed welterweight.

On March 25, 1958, Robinson won back the championship over the 15-round route, but the NBA stripped him of his title last May 4 because he hadn't defended it. New York, Basilio's home state, still recognizes Robinson as champion, as does Massachusetts.

A crowd of about 14,000 paying $200,000 was expected in the Cow Palace for the 10 p. m. (EDT) battle which also counts a $175,000 stipend from NBC for the television and radio rights. Basilio stands to collect about $140,000 with $100,000 for Fullmer. After weighin, Fullmer will eat a steak and could enter the ring at 163.

"I expect my weight to give me the advantage in the final five rounds," Fullmer said. He's a strong boy known both for his rough boxing and as a Mormon Sunday school teacher in his home town.

Fullmer also had a taste of the middleweight championship when he outpointed Robinson in 1957, but suffered a knockout the same year in a return bout.

Almost all observers here expect a rugged fight going the full distance. Odds of about 10-7 favor Basilio. A poll of sports writers showed 13 favoring the New Yorker and 4 going for Fullmer.

Both are rough, tough battlers who have proved they can take punishment. The 32-year-old Basilio never has been stopped while Fullmer, 28, suffered just the Robinson fifth round knockout.

Basilio said he aimed for a knockout but was conditioned to go the distance. Should the nationally televised fight go 15 rounds, the decision comes from the referee and two judges on the 10-point-must system. The winner of each round gets 10 points and the loser 9 or less depending upon his showing. An even round gives each 10 points.

Basilio's co-managers will not be in his corner for the first time in his nine championship fights. Both Joe Netro and John De John will have ringside seats. They've been under investigation in New York and neither applied for a California license.

Contracts for this fight don't call for a return engagement, but each fighter agreed to meet the man rated No. 1 by the NBA within 90 days. Neither Basilio nor Fullmer have expressed any disire to fight Robinson who in the past has demanded the major share of the middleweight purses.

Cox Construction Goes After Second Saturday

Cox Construction, East Liverpool's representative in the ABC tourney at Canton, will be seeking its second straight victory Saturday at 7:30 at Cook Park in Canton. Cox's will meet the winner of the Barberton-Warren contest. Manager Bob Campbell said he expects to start Jim Dickey, a righthander and former pitching star at Ohio Wesleyan.

All members of the Cox Construction squad are requested to meet at Bob Campbell's Motorama on Pennsylvania Ave., at 4 p. m. Saturday.

Canadian Farmer Wrests Boat Race Title From U.S.

DETROIT (AP)—Canada's Bob Hayward "gambled all the way" with his Miss Supertest III in wresting the Harmsworth Trophy from the United States.

"I was out to win, come what may," said the young Ontario poultry farmer Thursday after setting a Harmsworth record of 104.098 miles an hour in beating the U.S. defender, Maverick.

The U.S. boat, piloted by Bill Stead, quit with engine trouble in the 12th lap of the 45-mile race, but few experts doubted the outcome from the first lap.

Hayward thundered around the initial lap in the record speed of 107.495 m.p.h.

The two hydroplanes entered Thursday's race tied at one apiece. Maverick had been favored to retain the cup the United States had held for 39 years.

Giants' Manager Riled After Losses To Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"What do you want me to say? I'm happy. I'd love to come back here after a night game and play a day double-header. Is that what you want me to say?"

Manager Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants was riled. His club had just lost two to the last-place Philadelphia Phillies. The weary, quiet Giants were sprawled on clubhouse benches. Their faces were lined with disgust. They had played some of their worst baseball of the season.

Rigney looked up from his locker in the corner at the unpleasing sight, and commented:

"I'm tired and I didn't even play."

That sort of summed up the feeling among the Giants. They felt National League President Warren Giles had given them the short end of the stick in forcing Thursday's rain makeup doubleheader on the heels of a night game at Pittsburgh.

As the Giants left the clubhouse for the plane ride to Los Angeles and a crucial three-game series with the Dodgers, now only two games back, Rigney pointed to a telegram on the bulletin board. He said, "This is our motto from now on."

"I know you fellows think the world came to an end tonight. Forget it. Take two tomorrow."

It was signed by Giants' owner Horace Stoneham. He sent it Wednesday night after the team blew a four-run lead in the ninth inning at Pittsburgh.

"That's it," said Rigney. "Forget today. Let's win tomorrow."

End Frank Clarke Most Improved, Brown Indicates

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Coach Paul Brown named end Frank Clarke as perhaps his most improved holdover player as the Cleveland Browns closed their training camp Thursday at Hiram College.

The Browns leave by plane from Cleveland today for two exhibition games on the West Coast. They play the San Francisco 49ers Sunday and the Los Angeles Rams a week from Saturday.

Workouts will be resumed at League Park in Cleveland the day after Labor Day.

Clarke, a University of Colorado graduate starting his third season with the Browns, gave fine performances against Pittsburgh and Detroit in recent exhibition games.

Coach Brown also said the acquisition of tackles Floyd Peters and Sid Youngelman as free agents in the off-season seems to be working out well.

Youngelman, previously with the 49ers and the Philadelphia Eagles, can play both defensive end and tackle. Peters began his bid with the Browns at offensive tackle and now seems to have a chance of remaining in a swing role.

Youngstown Golfers Win 2 Tourney Titles

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Youngstown golfers won titles in two divisions of the third annual 36-hole Great Lakes Bantam Tournament which ended here Thursday.

Don Colla, 12, won the title for boys 10 to 12 years old with 82-85—167 over the Elm County Club course.

Shirley Walley, 11, fired 91-90—181 to win the title for girls 10 to 12.

Mike Gery, 15, of West Lafayette, Ind., and Joanne Gavigan, 15, of Waukesha, Wis., won the 13-to-15 crowns.

25 Teams Open Play In Knothole Tourney

CINCINNATI (AP) — A somewhat misnamed National Knothole Baseball Tournament for boys 15 and under opens here today. It will run through Sunday.

Although the tournament is called national, all participating teams come from four states—Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia. Entered are 25 teams.

Play will be in two divisions, Class A for boys who will not be 16 until after Sept. 1 and Class B for youngsters who will not be 14 until after that date.

One of a dozen games today sends Ironton, Ohio, against Clay, W. Va.

A modern clubhouse will be built at Pimlico's race track to supplement the original clubhouse opened in 1870.

Tribe, Chicago Open Most Important Series Of Season

150,000 Fans Expected For 4-Game Set

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, well rested and riding an eight - game winning streak, challenge the weary Chicago White Sox for the American League lead in a four-game series opening tonight.

The series, expected to draw a crowd of more than 150,000, could settle this year's pennant chase. A sweep by chicago would drop the Indians 5½ games off the pace, with the season rapidly drawing to an end.

Cleveland, trailing the league-leading White Sox by a game and a half, is in good shape. Catcher Russ Nixon with a pulled groin muscle and pitcher Don Ferrarese, who has a sore arm, are the Indians' only ailing players.

And while Chicago played 11 games in the past 10 days without a break, the Indians had Monday and Thursday off.

Although the Indians are confident and ready, they also are aware of a hard fact—the White Sox have handled them with ease so far this season. Chicago has won nine games while losing only five to the Indians.

However, Cleveland may take some courage from the fact that Billy Pierce and Early Wynn, who have three victories apiece over the Indians this year, haven't been up to par recently.

Pierce, Chicago's ace left-hander, hasn't pitched since injuring his hip almost two weeks ago. He was scheduled to pitch Saturday, but Manager Al Lopez said Thursday night Pierce wasn't ready and nominated Dick Donovan for Saturday's pitching chores.

Wynn is slated to hurl the first game of Sunday's doubleheader. He was knocked out of the box in his last three appearances, although he has won 16 games this year.

Bob Shaw (13-4) will open the series for the Sox and Ray Moore will twirl in the finale.

Against the overworked Chicago staff the Indians will send Jack Harshman (5-9), who has won his last three games, and Jim Perry, Cal McLish and Gary Bell, in that order.

The weatherman predicts hot, humid weather for tonight's game with the possibility of widely scattered showers. An opening night crowd of 65,000 was predicted.

Long Beach Captures Pony World Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Long Beach, Calif., is the Pony League World Series winner despite a ruling which may have deprived the star pitcher of a no-hit game.

Jack Wells pitched a no-hitter through four innings against Greene County, Pa., Thursday night before having to retire. The Californians went on to win the series final 8-0.

A Pony League ruling requires that no pitcher can work more than 16 innings during any series. Wells had reached his limit of 16 by the fifth.

The only hit Greene County got was a double by Pete Ellsworth in the fifth. Long Beach got 10.

Tally Stevens, from Utah's class of 1949, is the new head football coach at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

McIntire Pulls Upset In Golf Tournament

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I was positive on the 19th I would lose it."

Barbara McIntire made the confession after she actually won it—the jolting upset of defending champion Anne Quast in the quarter-finals of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Miss McIntire, an attractive 24-year-old tournament veteran from Lake Park, Fla., defeated Miss Quast, of Marysville, Wash., 1 up on the 20th hole at Congressional Country Club Thursday.

Joining the Florida girl into today's semifinals were Mrs. Dorothy Germain Porter of Westmont, N.J., Joanne Goodwin of Haverhill, Mass., and Mrs. Paul Klinefelter of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Klinefelter, beat Barbara Williams, 1 up in the quarters. Mrs. Porter defeated Judy Bell of Wichita, Kan., 4 and 3. Miss Goodwin came from 1 down after 16 holes and finally won a tense duel with Judy Eller, Southern and intercollegiate champ from Old Hickory, Tenn., on the 22nd.

There were 14 boys in school and all would have come out for the team but five of the boys left to enter the priesthood at Fort Smith, Ark.

Grand American Handicap Waited Today At Vandalia

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Pres sSports Writer.

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Trap-shooting's showpiece, the 60th Grand American Handicap, is on today and—if precedent is any indication—anyone can win it except Richard Krohn of Harvard, Ill.

Krohn, a bearded 29-year-old grain hauler, probably wrecked his chances when he won the preliminary handicap Thursday with a score of 99 from 19 yards and picked up some $7,000.

Only once in the previous 59 years has anyone captured both features and that happened back in 1905 when R. R. Barber of Paulina, Iowa, grabbed the preliminary with a 98 and came back the next day with 96 to win the big one.

Only 352 competed in that one, and today's classic was expected to attract more than 2,300 shooters.

Krohn maintained the tradition that the rich handicap titles generally go to an unknown. He is a Class D shooter, lowest in the ratings, has never won anything anywhere and has been sleeping in a tent on the trapshooting grounds.

In his first trip here, the novice outshot a field of 2,085 to take it all.

The field will be fighting today to return the Grand American title to the United States. A year ago, Emerson Clark of Preston, Ont., outshot a field of 2,202 to take the laurels, the only time a non-resident of the United States has triumphed.

Arnold Riegger of Castle Rock, Wash., after breaking 1,422 consecutive targets at 16 yards here, finally missed Thursday and it cost him the North American Clay Target championship and the Class AA title. The miss was in a long-delayed shootoff. Dan Orlich, former Green Bay footballer from Reno, Nev., emerged with the Class AA crown.

Kevin Onka, 16-year-old son of a Sugar Creek, Mo., grocer, broke the first 200 of his career to win the North American Clay Target race. He passed up the assured junior title to battle for the big one because, he said, "I'd like to see just how tough this Riegger is."

The youngster outshot Orlich, Riegger and two others to become the youngest ever to take the 16-yard championship.

In Thursday's preliminary, Helen Hoffman of Danville, Ill., won the women's title with 96 of 100, defeating Mrs. Mary Meadows of Grimes, Iowa in a shootoff.

Cliff Doughman of Alton, Ill., won the professional crown with 94 and young Bill Lace of Fort Worth, Tex., cracked 97 to win the junior laurels.

Southeastern Conference Shows 3 College Powers

ATLANTA (AP) — The Southeastern Conference produced the No. 1 college football team in the nation the past two years and there are at least three good reasons to believe the Dixie Dozen may make it three in a row.

One reason is Louisiana State, the defending national champion.

Another is Auburn, the 1957 top dog.

A third is Mississippi, a perennial power.

If all three of those solid contenders should falter, then the SEC championship battle will turn into a dog-eat-dog affair with almost every team in the running.

Florida, Georgia Tech and Tennessee should be first rate challengers if some of their newcomers produce. Kentucky and Georgia look rugged on the ground and in the air. Alabama is rebuilding swiftly but probably is a year away. Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Tulane generally are assigned to the rear ranks because of either too tough a schedule or too little material.

Among the big three, LSU gets top pre-season billing. And not simply because the Sugar Bowl champs were unbeaten and untied and No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll last season.

Of the 35 lads who lettered under Coach Paul Dietzel's three-team system, 31 are rarin' to go again. They include All-America halfback Billy Cannon.

In addition to being a tremendous runner, Cannon is a talented passer, pass receiver, punter, blocker and defender. His backfield buddies include quarterback Warren Rabb and halfback Johnny Robinson, both members of the all-SEC team last season.

Dietzel again will use his famed three-unit system: A starting team of two-way players, a team of offensive specialists and the Chinese bandits, 11 youngsters dedicated to the fine art of defense.

Auburn for the past two years has been the No. 1 defensive team in the nation and owns the longest unbeaten string in college football—24 games marred only by a tie with Georgia Tech.

Two of the key cogs in Auburn's defensive machine for two years are back—Zeke Smith, an All-America guard, and Jackie Burkett, a second team all-A center. Coach Ralph Jordan lost some good men but says he expects Auburn to be on a par with his squads of the past two years—a very pretty par.

Mississippi has a few soft spots that newcomers must fill. But Coach Johnny Vaught figures to field another sleek, swift, hard-hitting outfit. The Rebels boast a terrific guard in Marvin Terrell and such outstanding backs as quarterback Bobby Franklin and fullback Charley Flowers.

Chisox Defeat Boston, Hold 1½-Game Edge

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Now comes the moment of truth in that American League pennant race. The Chicago White Sox, their pitching punctured, open a four-game series at Cleveland tonight with only a 1½-game edge over the streaking second - place Indians.

It's right-hander Bob Shaw (13-4), who has won seven of his last eight, for the White Sox against Jack Harshman (5-9), the Indians' surprise southpaw crutch, in the opener, which also gets the two contenders started on a string of seven meetings in 10 days.

The White Sox added a half-game to their slim cushion over the Indians, who have won eight in a row, by whipping Boston 5-1 in the only AL game Thursday.

That left the White Sox, denied a pennant for 40 years, with a 76-49 (.608) record to Cleveland's 75-51 (.595) going into the series opener. Chicago, winning nine of 14 games with the Indians, has 29 games left, Cleveland 28.

In the National League San Francisco's worn - out Giants, forced into a make-up afternoon doubleheader at Philadelphia after an extra - inning game at Pittsburgh the night before, lost their third in a row as the last-place Phillies pulled off a 7-2 and 2-1 sweep Thursday.

Third-place Milwaukee lost 5-4 at St. Louis and Cincinnati beat Chicago's Cubs, 5-0.

The Indians, who lost the lead to the White Sox a month ago tonight by splitting a doubleheader with Boston, have the edge going into what could be a fatal four games for Chicago.

While the Sox have played 11 games in the past 10 days, winning seven, the Indians have played but nine, chopping three games off Chicago's 4½ - game bulge in that span with their longest winning streak since 1956.

And while Chicago has lost southpaw Billy Pierce to injury and has found ailing Dick Donovan and over - worked ace Early Wynn ineffective, the Indians have perked up behind Rocky Colavito, again hitting home runs, and Harshman, who has taken up the slack left by Herb Score.

The White Sox made it Thursday behind Barry Latman (7-5), who had a four-hit shutout until the ninth, when Ted Williams swatted his 10th home run of the year and the 493rd of his career. Reliever Gerry Staley, working in nine of Chicago's last 12 games, put it away by striking out Pete Daley and Jim Busy after Latman gave up a one - bout single and walk.

Johnny Romano, giving regular catcher Sherm Lollar a rest, drove in the first three Sox runs with a pair of singles off loser Frank Baumann (5/3). Ted Kluszewski, late of the Pirates, singled twice in four trips for his first American League hits.

Bob O'Dell, former Pennsylvania star, saw his Bucknell football team lose its first six games under his coaching in 1958.

First Time In United States

Competition Opens Today In Pan-American Games

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The third Pan-American Games get underway today with gold medal winners apparently easy to pick in the three men's track and field finals on tap in the 12-sport program.

High jumper Charlie Dumas and hammer thrower Harold Connolly of the United States and Argentina's Osvaldo Suarez, in the 10,000-meter run, are odds-on favorites.

In addition, the evening track program at Soldier Field—where the games officiallly were opened Thursday before a reported 47,000—will include 400-meter hurdles semifinals and trials in the 100-meter dash and 800-meter run.

The other competition in the kickoff round of 27 sports in this far-flung athletic carnival being held for the first time in the United States Includes: women's track, baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's fencing, soccer, men's and women's tennis, men's volleyball, weightlifting, and yachting.

Two other gold medals will go to champions in the opening session. Javelin finals will be held in women's track and the bantamweight finals are scheduled in weightlifting.

The piecemeal schedule calls for 60-meter preliminaries through the semifinals for women; two baseball games at Comiskey Park, home of the White Sox; three basketball games for men and two for women; foil matches in fencing; two soccer matches; two men's volleyball matches; yachting competition for seven different sailing craft types; and men's and women's tennis prelims.

Competition for some 2,000 athletes from 24 nations will continue through Sept. 6. Some 132 athletes from 18 countries are represented in tonight's track events at the mammoth lake front stadium.

Dumas, the springy 23-year-old high jumping product of Southern California, goes after the Pan-Am title backed by an Olympic championship performance in the 1956 games.

Connolly, like Dumas a color-bearer for the Los Angeles Striders, has a Pan-Am test top hammer throw of 216-10, far ahead of the record toss of 180-1¾ by USA's Bob Backus in the last games.

Argentina's Suarez defends his title at 10,000 meters. He also holds the Pan-Am 5,000 meter title.

Tribe, Chicago Open Most Important Series Of Season

150,000 Fans Expected For 4-Game Set

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, well rested and riding an eight - game winning streak, challenge the weary Chicago White Sox for the American League lead in a four-game series opening tonight.

The series, expected to draw a crowd of more than 150,000, could settle this year's pennant chase. A sweep by chicago would drop the Indians 5½ games off the pace, with the season rapidly drawing to an end.

Cleveland, trailing the league-leading White Sox by a game and a half, is in good shape. Catcher Russ Nixon with a pulled groin muscle and pitcher Don Ferrarese, who has a sore arm, are the Indians' only ailing players.

And while Chicago played 11 games in the past 10 days without a break, the Indians had Monday and Thursday off.

Although the Indians are confident and ready, they also are aware of a hard fact—the White Sox have handled them with ease so far this season. Chicago has won nine games while losing only five to the Indians.

However, Cleveland may take some courage from the fact that Billy Pierce and Early Wynn, who have three victories apiece over the Indians this year, haven't been up to par recently.

Pierce, Chicago's ace left-hander, hasn't pitched since injuring his hip almost two weeks ago. He was scheduled to pitch Saturday, but Manager Al Lopez said Thursday night Pierce wasn't ready and nominated Dick Donovan for Saturday's pitching chores.

Wynn is slated to hurl the first game of Sunday's doubleheader. He was knocked out of the box in his last three appearances, although he has won 16 games this year.

Bob Shaw (13-4) will open the series for the Sox and Ray Moore will twirl in the finale.

Against the overworked Chicago staff the Indians will send Jack Harshman (5-9), who has won his last three games, and Jim Perry, Cal McLish and Gary Bell, in that order.

The weatherman predicts hot, humid weather for tonight's game with the possibility of widely scattered showers. An opening night crowd of 65,000 was predicted.

ARTHUR DERAS ducks as he is mobbed by Little League teammates after his grand slam homer in the fifth inning against Oahu, Hawaii, in the semi-finals of the World Series. Deras' Hamtramck (Mich.) team meets Auburn, Calif., in the finals Saturday. (UPI Telephoto)

Long Beach Captures Pony World Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Long Beach, Calif., is the Pony League World Series winner despite a ruling which may have deprived the star pitcher of a no-hit game.

Jack Wells pitched a no-hitter through four innings against Greene County, Pa., Thursday night before having to retire. The Californians went on to win the series final 8-0.

A Pony League ruling requires that no pitcher can work more than 16 innings during any series. Wells had reached his limit of 16 by the fifth.

The only hit Greene County got was a double by Pete Ellsworth in the fifth. Long Beach got 10.

McIntire Pulls Upset In Golf Tournament

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I was positive on the 19th I would lose it."

Barbara McIntire made the confession after she actually won it—the jolting upset of defending champion Anne Quast in the quarter-finals of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Miss McIntire, an attractive 24-year-old tournament veteran from Lake Park, Fla., defeated Miss Quast, of Marysville, Wash., 1 up on the 20th hole at Congressional Country Club Thursday.

Joining the Florida girl into today's semifinals were Mrs. Dorothy Germain Porter of Westmont, N.J., Joanne Goodwin of Haverhill, Mass., and Mrs. Paul Klinefelter of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Klinefelter, beat Barbara Williams, 1 up in the quarters. Mrs. Porter defeated Judy Bell of Wichita, Kan., 4 and 3. Miss Goodwin came from 1 down after 16 holes and finally won a tense duel with Judy Eller, Southern and intercollegiate champ from Old Hickory, Tenn., on the 22nd.

There were 14 boys in school and all would have come out for the team but five of the boys left to enter the priesthood at Fort Smith, Ark.

Grand American Handicap Waited Today At Vandalia

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Pres sSports Writer

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Trapshooting's showpiece, the 60th Grand American Handicap, is on today and—if precedent is any indication—anyone can win it except Richard Krohn of Harvard, Ill.

Krohn, a bearded 29-year-old grain hauler, probably wrecked his chances when he won the preliminary handicap Thursday with a score of 99 from 19 yards and picked up some $7,000.

Only once in the previous 59 years has anyone captured both features and that happened back in 1905 when R. R. Barber of Paulina, Iowa, grabbed the preliminary with a 98 and came back the next day with 96 to win the big one.

Only 352 competed in that one, and today's classic was expected to attract more than 2,300 shooters.

Krohn maintained the tradition that the rich handicap titles generally go to an unknown. He is a Class D shooter, lowest in the ratings, has never won anything anywhere and has been sleeping in a tent on the trapshooting grounds.

In his first trip here, the novice outshot a field of 2,085 to take it all.

The field will be fighting today to return the Grand American title to the United States. A year ago, Emerson Clark of Preston, Ont., outshot a field of 2,202 to take the laurels, the only time a non-resident of the United States has triumphed.

Arnold Riegger of Castle Rock, Wash., after breaking 1,422 consecutive targets at 16 yards here, finally missed Thursday and it cost him the North American Clay Target championship and the Class AA title. The miss was in a long-delayed shootoff. Dan Orlich, former Green Bay footballer from Reno, Nev., emerged with the Class AA crown.

Kevin Onka, 16-year-old son of a Sugar Creek, Mo., grocer, broke the first 200 of his career to win the North American Clay Target race. He passed up the assured junior title to battle for the big one because, he said, "I'd like to see just how tough this Riegger is."

The youngster outshot Orlich, Riegger and two others to become the youngest ever to take the 16-yard championship.

In Thursday's preliminary, Helen Hoffman of Danville, Ill., won the women's title with 96 of 100, defeating Mrs. Mary Meadows of Grimes, Iowa in a shootoff.

Cliff Doughman of Alton, Ill., won the professional crown with 94 and young Bill Lace of Fort Worth, Tex., cracked 97 to win the junior laurels.

Southeastern Conference Shows 3 College Powers

ATLANTA (AP) — The Southeastern Conference produced the No. 1 college football team in the nation the past two years and there are at least three good reasons to believe the Dixie Dozen may make it three in a row.

One reason is Louisiana State, the defending national champion.

Another is Auburn, the 1957 top dog.

A third is Mississippi, a perennial power.

If all three of those solid contenders should falter, then the SEC championship battle will turn into a dog-eat-dog affair with almost every team in the running.

Florida, Georgia Tech and Tennessee should be first rate challengers if some of their newcomers produce. Kentucky and Georgia look rugged on the ground and in the air. Alabama is rebuilding swiftly but probably is a year away. Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Tulane generally are assigned to the rear ranks because of either too tough a schedule or too little material.

Among the big three, LSU gets top pre-season billing. And not simply because the Sugar Bowl champs were unbeaten and untied and No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll last season.

Of the 35 lads who lettered under Coach Paul Dietzel's three-team system, 31 are rarin' to go again. They include All-America halfback Billy Cannon.

In addition to being a tremendous runner, Cannon is a talented passer, pass receiver, punter, blocker and defender. His backfield buddies include quarterback Warren Rabb and halfback Johnny Robinson, both members of the all-SEC team last season.

Dietzel again will use his famed three-unit system: A starting team of two-way players, a team of offensive specialists and the Chinese bandits, 11 youngsters dedicated to the fine art of defense.

Auburn for the past two years has been the No. 1 defensive team in the nation and owns the longest unbeaten string in college football—24 games marred only by a tie with Georgia Tech.

Two of the key cogs in Auburn's defensive machine for two years are back—Zeke Smith, an All-America guard, and Jackie Burkett, a second team all-A center. Coach Ralph Jordan lost some good men but says he expects Auburn to be on a par with his squads of the past two years—a very pretty par.

Mississippi has a few soft spots that newcomers must fill. But Coach Johnny Vaught figures to field another sleek, swift, hard-hitting outfit. The Rebels boast a terrific guard in Marvin Terrell and such outstanding backs as quarterback Bobby Franklin and fullback Charley Flowers.

Chisox Defeat Boston, Hold 1½-Game Edge

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Now comes the moment of truth in that American League pennant race. The Chicago White Sox, their pitching punctured, open a four-game series at Cleveland tonight with only a 1½-game edge over the streaking second - place Indians.

It's right-hander Bob Shaw (13-4), who has won seven of his last eight, for the White Sox against Jack Harshman (5-9), the Indians' surprise southpaw crutch, in the opener, which also gets the two contenders started on a string of seven meetings in 10 days.

The White Sox added a half-game to their slim cushion over the Indians, who have won eight in a row, by whipping Boston 5-1 in the only AL game Thursday.

That left the White Sox, denied a pennant for 40 years, with a 76-49 (.608) record to Cleveland's 75-51 (.595) going into the series opener. Chicago, winning nine of 14 games with the Indians, has 29 games left, Cleveland 28.

In the National League San Francisco's worn - out Giants, forced into a make-up afternoon doubleheader at Philadelphia after an extra - inning game at Pittsburgh the night before, lost their third in a row as the last-place Phillies pulled off a 7-2 and 2-1 sweep Thursday.

Third-place Milwaukee lost 5-4 at St. Louis and Cincinnati beat Chicago's Cubs, 5-0.

The Indians, who lost the lead to the White Sox a month ago tonight by splitting a doubleheader with Boston, have the edge going into what could be a fatal four games for Chicago.

While the Sox have played 11 games in the past 10 days, winning seven, the Indians have played but nine, chopping three games off Chicago's 4½ - game bulge in that span with their longest winning streak since 1956.

And while Chicago has lost southpaw Billy Pierce to injury and has found ailing Dick Donovan and over - worked ace Early Wynn ineffective, the Indians have perked up behind Rocky Colavito, again hitting home runs, and Harshman, who has taken up the slack left by Herb Score.

The White Sox made it Thursday behind Barry Latman (7-5), who had a four-hit shutout until the ninth, when Ted Williams swatted his 10th home run of the year and the 493rd of his career. Reliever Gerry Staley, working in nine of Chicago's last 12 games, put it away by striking out Pete Daley and Jim Busy after Latman gave up a one - bout single and walk.

Johnny Romano, giving regular catcher Sherm Lollar a rest, drove in the first three Sox runs with a pair of singles off loser Frank Baumann (5)3). Ted Kluszewski, late of the Pirates, singled twice in four trips for his first American League hits.

Bob O'Dell, former Pennsylvania star, saw his Bucknell football team lose its first six games under his coaching in 1958.

Competition Opens Today In Pan-American Games

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The third Pan-American Games get underway today with gold medal winners apparently easy to pick in the three men's track and field finals on tap in the 12-sport program.

High jumper Charlie Dumas and hammer thrower Harold Connolly of the United States and Argentina's Osvaldo Suarez, in the 10,000-meter run, are odds-on favorites.

In addition, the evening track program at Soldier Field—where the games officiallly were opened Thursday before a reported 47,000—will include 400-meter hurdles semifinals and trials in the 100-meter dash and 800-meter run.

The other competition in the kickoff round of 27 sports in this far-flung athletic carnival being held for the first time in the United States Includes: women's track, baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's fencing, soccer, men's and women's tennis, men's volleyball, weightlifting, and yachting.

Two other gold medals will go to champions in the opening session. Javelin finals will be held in women's track and the bantamweight finals are scheduled in weightlifting.

The piecemeal schedule calls for 60-meter preliminaries through the semifinals for women; two baseball games at Comiskey Park, home of the White Sox; three basketball games for men and two for women; foil matches in fencing; two soccer matches; two men's volleyball matches; yachting competition for seven different sailing craft types; and men's and women's tennis prelims.

Competition for some 2,000 athletes from 24 nations will continue through Sept. 6. Some 132 athletes from 18 countries are represented in tonight's track events at the mammoth lake front stadium.

Dumas, the springy 23-year-old high jumping product of Southern California, goes after the Pan-Am title backed by an Olympic championship performance in the 1956 games.

Connolly, like Dumas a colorbearer for the Los Angeles Striders, has a Pan-Am test top hammer throw of 216-10, far ahead of the record toss of 180-1¾ by USA's Bob Backus in the last games.

Argentina's Suarez defends his title at 10,000 meters. He also holds the Pan-Am 5,000 meter title.

Phils Sweep Pair From Weary Giants, Trim Lead To Two

San Francisco, Dodgers Meet In Crucial Series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco's weary Giants, their sluggers sluggish and their National League lead shaved to two games by three losses within 24 hours, open a three-game showdown series at Los Angeles tonight against the rested second-place Dodgers.

Manager Bill Rigney, angry at being forced into a make-up afternoon doubleheader that brought a double defeat at Philadelphia Thursday, picked his ace, Sam Jones (16-12), to face Giant-killer Don Drysdale (15-9) in the series opener.

The Dodgers, 3-5 against San Francisco at the Coliseum but holding a 9-7 season edge, picked up a full game while idle for the second straight day as the last place Phils swept the Giants 7-2 and 2-1. Third-place Milwaukee, 3½ games back going into a three-game series at Chicago today, gained only a half-game on San Francisco, losing 5-4 at St. Louis.

Cincinnati tied Chicago for fifth, beating the Cubs 5-0 in the only other NL game Thursday.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox beat Boston 5-1 in the only game scheduled.

With his Giants losing four of their last five and their lead chopped in half in four days, Rigney didn't do much tongue biting while criticizing NL President Warren Giles in the re-scheduling of Sunday's rained-out doubleheader at Philadelphia.

"You'd think we were a last place club," said Rig, "the consideration we were given. We weren't even consulted."

The Giants, beaten 5-4 in 10 innings at Pittsburgh Wednesday night checked into Philadelphia at 2:30 a.m. Thursday and were in uniform 8½ hours later.

The Phils, who had lost six straight, beat lefty Mike McCormick (11-11) for the first time this season in the opener.

In the second game, Willie Mays smacked his 22nd homer in the first inning, but the Giants then were blanked on five hits by Don Cardwell (8-7) and Dick Farrell.

Al Worthington (2-3) lost it, giving up both runs in the first on a walk, Joe Koppe's single, Ed Bouchee's sacrifice fly and a two-out single by Wally Post.

Ken Boyer drove in four runs, three with his 24th homer, and Joe Cunningham scored three and had four hits as the Cards knocked off the Braves after trailing 4-0. Cunningham's triple and Boyer's sacrifice fly beat reliever Don McMahon (4-2) in the eighth. Lindy McDaniel (14-11) won it in relief. Bobby Avila and Joe Adcock homered for the Braves.

Jim O'Toole, the Reds' southpaw rookie, gained his first major league shutout with a five-hitter and 10 strikeouts against the Cubs for a 4-7 record. Willlie Jones drove in three runs, with two doubles and a walk, against loser Art Ceccarelli (4-3).

IL Resumes Play After All-Stars Blast Bucs, 14-6

By The Associated Press

The International League returns to unfinished business tonight with league-leading Buffalo seeking to wrap up its first pennant in 10 years.

The Bisons lead runner-up Havana by 6½ games with only 13 remaining to play. The Sugar Kings have 14 left.

Thursday night everyone took a breather from the regular routine for an exhibition game at Columbus, Ohio, with the Pittsburgh Pirates, of the National League.

The Stars wrapped it up with a nine-run sixth inning, shelling Columbus grad Don Gross, who was recalled to the parent Pirates earlier in the season. The score was 14-6.

He was tagged for seven hits in the inning, including a two-run homer by Rochester's Charlie James and a three-run double by Frank Herrera of Buffalo. Gross contributed two walks and a throwing error.

Rocky Nelson, IL's MVP and triple crown winner last season and also now playing for the Pirates, had knotted it 5-5 on a three-run homer in the top half of the inning.

Rival Captains To Quit After 'Cup' Matches

By WILL GRIMSLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The Davis Cup Challenge Round, beginning today, probably will be the last for the rival captains—Perry Jones of the United States and Harry Hopman of Australia.

The matches thus will carry special importance for both of them. Each would like to bow out on a victorious note.

"This is my valedictory," says Jones, 71-year-old Los Angeles tennis executive who was persuaded to take the job last year. "I'm turning the reins over to a younger man."

Hopman, 53, winner in eight of 11 Davis Cup campaigns, has indicated he will retire from the game to devote time to a lucrative investment broker's position in Mebourne.

This is probably the weakest team the strict Australian taskmaster has fielded in all his years as captain dating back to 1938.

Neale Fraser, 25, is the only experienced Cup player on the squad and Fraser is faced with the task of beating Peruvian Alex Olmedo in the first singles match at the West Side Tennis Club.

Rod Laver, 21, not long out of junior ranks and never in a challenge round, plays Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, in the second singles. MacKay, although just 23, is competing in his third tennis World Series.

Other members of Hopman's squad are Roy Emerson, 23, who teams with Fraser in doubles; Bob Mark, 22, and juniors Ken Fletcher and Mike Mulligan. None has had more than a subs' status before this year.

Jones picks his squad to score a 5-0 sweep.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Jim O'Toole, Reds, gained his first major league shutout with a five-hitter, striking out 10 and walking four in 5-0 victory over the Cubs.

Hitting — Joe Cunningham, Cardinals, tripled, doubled and had two singles in five at-bats, scoring three runs in 5-4 victory over the Braves and moving within nine percentage points of bat leader Hank Aaron.

O'Toole Hurls Redlegs To 5-0 Win Over Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The experts have been saying for a big part of the season that if young Jim O'Toole could just win a real good one he'd probably gain the confidence to be a regular winner in the National League for the Cincinnati Reds.

Well, Jimmy, a 22-year - old southpaw rookie pitcher, won his good one Thursday night.

He allowed the Chicago Cubs only five scattered singles, allowed only two men to reach second base, struck out 10 and pitched the Reds to a 5-0 victory. He didn't allow a hit until the fifth.

It was his first major league shutout, his second complete game and his fourth victory against seven defeats.

O'Toole throttled the same Chicago club that had blasted Cincinnati pitching unmercifully in the first two games of the series here.

He was just wild enough to keep the batters from taking toe holds at the plate but he walked only four. In the third he walked the first two men to face him and then proceeded to strike out the side.

O'Toole's victory is listed as a protested game, but Chicago Manager Bob Scheffing isn't expected to get very far with the claim of "foul."

He protested when Umpire Frank Dascoli ruled pitcher Art Ceccarelli committed a balk in the first inning that allowed a Redleg run to score. But it was an umpire's judgment decision and is unlikely to be reversed.

The Reds got a run off Ceccarelli in each of the first two innings. Gus Bell scored on the balk after he had singled and gone to third on Frank Robinson's one - base blow. In the second Willie Jones' double, a single by Dutch Dotterer and a sacrifice fly by Eddie Kasko produced another tally.

A double play bailed Ceccarelli out of trouble in the third but the Reds scored again in the fourth in consecutive doubles by Frank Thomas and Jones.

A Cub strategy backfired to help Cincinnati get its final two runs in the eighth.

Vada Pinson doubled and took third on an infield out. Robinson then was walked intentionally but when he stole second the Cubs elected to walk Thomas too to fill the bases.

Then they brought in Moe Drabowsky to pitch but he walked Jones to force in a run. Dotterer's sacrifice fly accounted for the other tally.

The Reds moved on to St. Louis where Don Newcombe was to pitch against Ernie Broglio of the Cardinals today.

Here's Ohioans Vote On Housing Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here's the vote of Ohio representatives in Thursday's House vote on final passage of the housing bill:

Democrats for: Ashley, Cook, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan, Levering, Moeller, Vanik.

Republicans for: Ayers, Baumhart, McCulloch and Shenck.

Republicans against: Betts, Bow, Brown, Devine, Henderson, Latta, Minshall, Scherer.

Paired for the bill: Bolton; paired against, Hess. Both are Republicans. (A paired vote is how a member would have voted had he been present.)

Cooper Cards 64 As 42 Best Par In Milwaukee Open

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Hey, duffer. How would you like to shoot par golf and wind up in an 11-way tie for 43rd place?

That's what happened Thursday as the nation's touring pros made a joke of regulation figures in the opening round of the $35,000 Milwaukee Open at the Tripoli Golf Club.

Of the 137 starters, 42 traveled the short 6,355-yard layout in less than par 70. And 11 others got down in par.

Pete Cooper, 44-year-old club pro from Lakeland, Fla., carded six birdies with a masterful putter for a brilliant 64. But he had to settle for a one-stroke lead in the 72-hole tournament.

Ken Venturi, former San Francisco auto salesman, and Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., came whirling in with 65s as a soaking, day-long rain lifted to tie for runnerup honors.

2 Big Races Set Saturday

By The Associated Press

The big money on the American turf Saturday is at Arlington Park with a classy field of 3-year-olds clashing in the $100,000 added American Derby and at Saratoga where highly regarded 2-year-olds meet in the $75,000 added Hopeful.

The 1⅛ miles of the American Derby failed to attract Sword Dancer, leading candidate for division honors, but there is plenty of class in the probable field of seven.

W. Arnold Hanger's Waltz, a mid-season sensation in the East; Claiborne' Farm's Dunce, winner of the Arlington Classic and Spring Hill Farm's Easy Spur, on the come back trail after taking the Florida Derby, top weight of 126 pounds each.

Ten are expected in the 6½ furlong Hopeful. It'll be televised nationally from 3:30-4 p.m. EST (CBS.)

In the probable field are such juvenile title candidates as Irish Lancer from the Pebblebrook Farm, C.V. Whitney's Tompion and Weatherwise from the Greentree Stable. Tompion and Weatherwise were both sired by Tom Fool.

Phils Sweep Pair From Weary Giants, Trim Lead To Two

San Francisco, Dodgers Meet In Crucial Series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco's weary Giants, their sluggers sluggish and their National League lead shaved to two games by three losses within 24 hours, open a three-game showdown series at Los Angeles tonight against the rested second-place Dodgers.

Manager Bill Rigney, angry at being forced into a make-up afternoon doubleheader that brought a double defeat at Philadelphia Thursday, picked his ace, Sam Jones (16-12), to face Giant-killer Don Drysdale (15-9) in the series opener.

The Dodgers, 3-5 against San Francisco at the Coliseum but holding a 9-7 season edge, picked up a full game while idle for the second straight day as the last place Phils swept the Giants 7-2 and 2-1. Third-place Milwaukee, 3½ games back going into a three-game series at Chicago today, gained only a half-game on San Francisco, losing 5-4 at St. Louis.

Cincinnati tied Chicago for fifth, beating the Cubs 5-0 in the only other NL game Thursday.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox beat Boston 5-1 in the only game scheduled.

With his Giants losing four of their last five and their lead chopped in half in four days, Rigney didn't do much tongue biting while criticizing NL President Warren Giles in the re-scheduling of Sunday's rained-out doubleheader at Philadelphia.

"You'd think we were a last place club," said Rig, "the consideration we were given. We weren't even consulted."

The Giants, beaten 5-4 in 10 innings at Pittsburgh Wednesday night checked into Philadelphia at 2:30 a.m. Thursday and were in uniform 8½ hours later.

The Phils, who had lost six straight, beat lefty Mike McCormick (11-11) for the first time this season in the opener.

In the second game, Willie Mays smacked his 22nd homer in the first inning, but the Giants then were blanked on five hits by Don Cardwell (8-7) and Dick Farrell.

Al Worthington (2-3) lost it, giving up both runs in the first on a walk, Joe Koppe's single, Ed Bouchee's sacrifice fly and a two-out single by Wally Post.

Ken Boyer drove in four runs, three with his 24th homer, and Joe Cunningham scored three and had four hits as the Cards knocked off the Braves after trailing 4-0. Cunningham's triple and Boyer's sacrifice fly beat reliever Don McMahon (4-2) in the eighth. Lindy McDaniel (14-11) won it in relief. Bobby Avila and Joe Adcock homered for the Braves.

Jim O'Toole, the Reds' southpaw rookie, gained his first major league shutout with a five-hitter and 10 strikeouts against the Cubs for a 4-7 record. Willlie Jones drove in three runs, with two doubles and a walk, against loser Art Ceccarelli (4-3).

IL Resumes Play After All-Stars Blast Bucs, 14-6

By The Associated Press

The International League returns to unfinished business tonight with league-leading Buffalo seeking to wrap up its first pennant in 10 years.

The Bisons lead runner-up Havana by 6½ games with only 13 remaining to play. The Sugar Kings have 14 left.

Thursday night everyone took a breather from the regular routine for an exhibition game at Columbus, Ohio, with the Pittsburgh Pirates, of the National League.

The Stars wrapped it up with a nine-run sixth inning, shelling Columbus grad Don Gross, who was recalled to the parent Pirates earlier in the season. The score was 14-6.

He was tagged for seven hits in the inning, including a two-run homer by Rochester's Charlie James and a three-run double by Frank Herrera of Buffalo. Gross contributed two walks and a throwing error.

Rocky Nelson, IL's MVP and triple crown winner last season and also now playing for the Pirates, had knotted it 5-5 on a three-run homer in the top half of the inning.

Rival Captains To Quit After 'Cup' Matches

By WILL GRIMSLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The Davis Cup Challenge Round, beginning today, probably will be the last for the rival captains—Perry Jones of the United States and Harry Hopman of Australia.

The matches thus will carry special importance for both of them. Each would like to bow out on a victorious note.

"This is my valedictory," says Jones, 71-year-old Los Angeles tennis executive who was persuaded to take the job last year. "I'm turning the reins over to a younger man."

Hopman, 53, winner in eight of 11 Davis Cup campaigns, has indicated he will retire from the game to devote time to a lucrative investment broker's position in Mebourne.

This is probably the weakest team the strict Australian taskmaster has fielded in all his years as captain dating back to 1938.

Neale Fraser, 25, is the only experienced Cup player on the squad and Fraser is faced with the task of beating Peruvian Alex Olmedo in the first singles match at the West Side Tennis Club.

Rod Laver, 21, not long out of junior ranks and never in a challenge round, plays Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, in the second singles. MacKay, although just 23, is competing in his third tennis World Series.

Other members of Hopman's squad are Roy Emerson, 23, who teams with Fraser in doubles; Bob Mark, 22, and juniors Ken Fletcher and Mike Mulligan. None has had more than a subs' status before this year.

Jones picks his squad to score a 5-0 sweep.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Jim O'Toole, Reds, gained his first major league shutout with a five-hitter, striking out 10 and walking four in 5-0 victory over the Cubs.

Hitting — Joe Cunningham, Cardinals, tripled, doubled and had two singles in five at-bats, scoring three runs in 5-4 victory over the Braves and moving within nine percentage points of bat leader Hank Aaron.

O'Toole Hurls Redlegs To 5-0 Win Over Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The experts have been saying for a big part of the season that if young Jim O'Toole could just win a real good one he'd probably gain the confidence to be a regular winner in the National League for the Cincinnati Reds.

Well, Jimmy, a 22-year - old southpaw rookie pitcher, won his good one Thursday night.

He allowed the Chicago Cubs only five scattered singles, allowed only two men to reach second base, struck out 10 and pitched the Reds to a 5-0 victory. He didn't allow a hit until the fifth.

It was his first major league shutout, his second complete game and his fourth victory against seven defeats.

O'Toole throttled the same Chicago club that had blasted Cincinnati pitching unmercifully in the first two games of the series here.

He was just wild enough to keep the batters from taking toe holds at the plate but he walked only four. In the third he walked the first two men to face him and then proceeded to strike out the side.

O'Toole's victory is listed as a protested game, but Chicago Manager Bob Scheffing isn't expected to get very far with the claim of "foul."

He protested when Umpire Frank Dascoli ruled pitcher Art Ceccarelli committed a balk in the first inning that allowed a Redleg run to score. But it was an umpire's judgment decision and is unlikely to be reversed.

The Reds got a run off Ceccarelli in each of the first two innings. Gus Bell scored on the balk after he had singled and gone to third on Frank Robinson's one - base blow. In the second Willie Jones' double, a single by Dutch Dotterer and a sacrifice fly by Eddie Kasko produced another tally.

A double play bailed Ceccarelli out of trouble in the third but the Reds scored again in the fourth in consecutive doubles by Frank Thomas and Jones.

A Cub strategy backfired to help Cincinnati get its final two runs in the eighth.

Vada Pinson doubled and took third on an infield out. Robinson then was walked intentionally but when he stole second the Cubs elected to walk Thomas too to fill the bases.

Then they brought in Moe Drabowsky to pitch but he walked Jones to force in a run. Dotterer's sacrifice fly accounted for the other tally.

The Reds moved on to St. Louis where Don Newcombe was to pitch against Ernie Broglio of the Cardinals today.

Here's Ohioans Vote On Housing Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here's the vote of Ohio representatives in Thursday's House vote on final passage of the housing bill:

Democrats for: Ashley, Cook, Feighan, Hays, Kirwan, Levering, Moeller, Vanik.

Republicans for: Ayers, Baumhart, McCulloch and Shenck.

Republicans against: Betts, Bow, Brown, Devine, Henderson, Latta, Minshall, Scherer.

Paired for the bill: Bolton; paired against, Hess. Both are Republicans. (A paired vote is how a member would have voted had he been present.)

Cooper Cards 64 As 42 Best Par In Milwaukee Open

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Hey, duffer. How would you like to shoot par golf and wind up in an 11-way tie for 43rd place?

That's what happened Thursday as the nation's touring pros made a joke of regulation figures in the opening round of the $35,000 Milwaukee Open at the Tripoli Golf Club.

Of the 137 starters, 42 traveled the short 6,355-yard layout in less than par 70. And 11 others got down in par.

Pete Cooper, 44-year-old club pro from Lakeland, Fla., carded six birdies with a masterful putter for a brilliant 64. But he had to settle for a one-stroke lead in the 72-hole tournament.

Ken Venturi, former San Francisco auto salesman, and Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., came whirling in with 65s as a soaking, day-long rain lifted to tie for runnerup honors.

LATEST ATTRACTION. With no major construction job going on downtown, sidewalk superintendents are giving their undivided attention to the city's new sewer cleaning equipment. An endless cable with cylindrical "buckets" does the job of cleaning East Liverpool's storm and sanitary sewers when the street department moves its new equipment on the job. The machine is shown at work Thursday afternoon in Summit Ln. at the rear of City Hall. Wayne Shaw, left, and Edward Bowersock watch as the "bucket" emerges from a pipe that leads into an open manhole. The debris automatically empties into a truck—out of sight behind the machine—before the bucket starts its return trip through the sewer.

City Teen-Ager Cited On 2 Counts In Wreck

A city teen-ager whose car upset when he lost control, was one of two motorists cited Thursday by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol following separate traffic accidents.

John Green, 16, of 1016 Dresden Ave., rolled over on a curve at 12:55 p. m. Thursday on Route 154 near Rogers, the patrol said.

Green was arrested for operating a vehicle without a driver's license and for reckless operation, according to the patrol. He is scheduled for a hearing in Juvenile Court in Lisbon.

The patrol also arrested Clyde Yarian, 70, of Columbiana, R. D. 2 after he lost control of his car on the wet pavement and it turned over on Route 62 about one mile west of Salem Thursday at 2:20 p. m. He was cited for speeding in excess of road conditions, the patrol said.

Cleveland Contractor Wounded By Officer

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suburban Mayfield Heights excavating contractor, shot by a policeman in a clash at a Beachwood tavern, was reported in critical condition today.

William Miesz, 44, was shot twice in the stomach Thursday night by Shaker Heights Patrolman Robert Young outside the tavern when the contractor flashed a knife.

Beachwood Mayor Henry Hopwood said Miesz had slashed bartender John Finkes and Beachwood Patrolman Raymond Svetek. Finkes was cut on the neck and the policeman was cut on the arm.

Witnesses said Miesz had been drinking and suddenly went berserk.

Youth Given Life In Attack On Woman

JASPER, Ala. (AP)—A teen-age high school student has been sentenced to life imprisonment for raping his teacher's wife for revenge.

James Harold Herron, 17, was arrested March 24, a short time after Mrs. Erston Bonner said she was attacked.

The youth told police he raped the 26-year-old mother because he wanted to get even with her husband who had expelled him from school.

Gored By Bull

JEFFERSON, Ohio (AP) — Funeral services will be held Sunday for Alfred Chilicott, 85-year-old farmer gored to death by a bull at Orwell south of here. The bull jumped a pasture fence and attacked Chilicott in the barnyard at his farm Wednesday night.

For Duration Of Strike

Crucible Workers Will Pay Full Insurance Premium

Group insurance coverage for the Crucible Steel Co.'s striking employes will continue during the period of the strike, according to a recently signed agreement between the company and the United Steelworkers of America.

Employe contributions for July and August remain at usual monthly amounts. This approximates one-half of the cost of the insurance. The remainder of the cost for these months is being met by the reserves of the insurance program.

However, since the reserves of the insurance program will be exhausted by Tuesday, starting with the month of September for the duration of the strike, employes will pay the full cost of the insurance.

This means approximately doubling their usual monthly contribution, except for contributions for optional life insurance, which will be waived starting Tuesday.

Employe contributions for September and any remaining months of the strike will be made through payroll deduction after operations are resumed. Meanwhile, the company will loan the money necessary to pay the premium to the insurance carriers.

These employe contribution rates have been determined by estimating the cost of the insurance program during the remainder of the insurance year ending Oct. 31. The actual cost is dependent upon the total cost of claims. After this cost has been determined, an adjustment will be made in order to distribute any surplus to or collect any deficit from employes.

Employes who paid cash for insurance coverage for the month of July, because of absence due to layoff or disability, will continue to pay their insurance contributions in cash for the duration of the strike.

A separate agreement covering Crucible's Titanium Division was reached with the Steelworkers Union. This provides for employes to pay their usual monthly contributions, except for contributions for optional life insurance, during the strike. These contributions also will be made after the resumption of operation. It is possible to maintain the usual employe contribution rate for the Titanium Division because the reserves of this insurance program are sufficient for this.

Crucible Board Sets Dividend Of 20 Cents

The Board of Directors of the Crucible Steel Co. of America have declared a quarterly dividend of 20 cents per share on the common stock, payable Sept. 30 to shareholders of record Sept. 16.

A quarterly dividend of $1.31¼ per share was also declared on the 5¼ per cent convertible preferred stock. The initial preferred dividend of 32 cents per share for the period June 9-30, declared May 26, is also payable Sept. 30.

Bomb-Tossing Halts School Board Parley

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Choking fumes from tear gas bombs thrown by two white women broke up a routine meeting of the Little Rock School Board Thursday night.

Two bombs were tossed into the foyer of the downtown school headquarters while the board was meeting upstairs. Fumes and smoke spread quickly through the building and the board, a half dozen newsmen and about 20 spectators scrambled out through a rear exit. No one was hurt.

The board has been under verbal assault from segregationists for fostering a token plan of integration for Little Rock high schools.

Leonard Willis, a Negro janitor, said he saw the women push open the front door, toss the bombs inside then flee in a waiting car.

The Chinese released the reconnaissance group, consisting of one officer and five enlisted men, but Peiping asserted the territory was Chinese, the prime minister said. Several newspapers in recent weeks have reported various crossings by Chinese troops into India along the mountainous border of Kashmir and also in the northeast frontier area, in the Indian state of Assam. There also have been reports of Chinese claims to these northern areas bordering on Tibet, as well as to Nepal and the protectorates of Bhutan and Sikkim, which lie between Kashmir and Assam.

The Times of India reported today that Red forces had pushed back several border patrols along the northeast frontier and said in at least one instance there was believed to have been an exchange of gunfire.

Earlier this week the Times reported the Chinese had built a road in the Ladakh area, cutting off several hundred square miles of Indian territory.

The warm temperatures may prevail through Tuesday, according to the five-day forecast of the Ohio Weather Bureau, which said the mercury will average 5 to 10 degrees above normal.

But it predicted cooler Sunday in the Lake Erie area.

Precipitation will average half-inch to an inch in the northern section of Eastern Ohio and less than a quarter inch in the south through the weekend.

Firemen Prepare Carnival Grounds

Fifteen members of the Glenmoor volunteer fire department worked at the community's athletic field Thursday night, cutting grass and making other preparations for the opening of the department's annual benefit carnival Tuesday.

The carnival, featuring rides of Heck's Amusements, will continue through Labor Day.

The carnival's big cook tent will be erected Saturday. It is being erected ahead of schedule to serve as a collecting point for simulated casualties in a Civil Defense alert Sunday.

Firemen said all persons selling tickets for the carnival, including those for a king and queen contest, should report to the fire station Monday night at 8.

This Couldn't Happen To Longbranch Kitty

A Chester woman who was "wounded" in a make-believe saloon brawl between a couple of cowboy actors Thursday night at the Columbiana County Fair in Lisbon probably prefers to enjoy her future Western shows by watching television.

Mrs. Hazel Shroades of Lawrenceville received a lacerated scalp when the brawling cowpokes bumped into the saloon's bar and caused a heavy mug to fall where she was supposed to be hiding for cover.

Mrs. Shroades, 32, plays the part of a singer in the saloon and part of her act called for her to duck behind the bar when a fight broke out between two cowboys playing poker. The actors, Dan Poole and John Shroades, made with the make-believe fisticuffs and the crash into the bar knocked the heavy mug from the shelf.

Mrs. Shroades was taken to Salem City Hospital in a county sheriff's cruiser and six sutures were required to close the laceration. The mishap occurred in a "Frontiertown" tent where typical scenes of the Wild West" are re-created by actors.

The cheetah is a member of the cat family and is found in Africa and Asia, where it is often trained to hunt. It is about the size of a small leopard and considered very swift.

Parental Group Picks Palsy Board Director

Ralph Hupp was elected a member of the board of the Columbiana County Affiliated of the United Cerebral Palsy Association when the parental group met Wednesday night in the clinic headquarters at the Mary Patterson Memorial.

Plans were made to take cerebral palsy children to the Williams Wildlife Farm at New Waterford, on a date to be set.

Mrs. Martha Garren, president, presided. Mrs. Janice Southall, chaplain, offered prayer. A baby shower was given for Mrs. Marilyn Wagoner.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Phyllis Hupp and Mrs. Claire Morgan.

School Supt. Ralph Betts will be the guest speaker at the next meeting Sept. 23 at the Mary Patterson.

LATEST ATTRACTION. With no major construction job going on downtown, sidewalk superintendents are giving their undivided attention to the city's new sewer cleaning equipment. An endless cable with cylindrical "buckets" does the job of cleaning East Liverpool's storm and sanitary sewers when the street department moves its new equipment on the job. The machine is shown at work Thursday afternoon in Summit Ln. at the rear of City Hall. Wayne Shaw, left, and Edward Bowersock watch as the "bucket" emerges from a pipe that leads into an open manhole. The debris automatically empties into a truck—out of sight behind the machine—before the bucket starts its return trip through the sewer.

City Teen-Ager Cited On 2 Counts In Wreck

A city teen-ager whose car upset when he lost control, was one of two motorists cited Thursday by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol following separate traffic accidents.

John Green, 16, of 1016 Dresden Ave., rolled over on a curve at 12:55 p. m. Thursday on Route 154 near Rogers, the patrol said.

Green was arrested for operating a vehicle without a driver's license and for reckless operation, according to the patrol. He is scheduled for a hearing in Juvenile Court in Lisbon.

The patrol also arrested Clyde Yarian, 70, of Columbiana, R. D. 2 after he lost control of his car on the wet pavement and it turned over on Route 62 about one mile west of Salem Thursday at 2:20 p. m. He was cited for speeding in excess of road conditions, the patrol said.

Cleveland Contractor Wounded By Officer

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suburban Mayfield Heights excavating contractor, shot by a policeman in a clash at a Beachwood tavern, was reported in critical condition today.

William Miesz, 44, was shot twice in the stomach Thursday night by Shaker Heights Patrolman Robert Young outside the tavern when the contractor flashed a knife.

Beachwood Mayor Henry Hopwood said Miesz had slashed bartender John Finkes and Beachwood Patrolman Raymond Svetek. Finkes was cut on the neck and the policeman was cut on the arm.

Witnesses said Miesz had been drinking and suddenly went berserk.

Youth Given Life In Attack On Woman

JASPER, Ala. (AP)—A teen-age high school student has been sentenced to life imprisonment for raping his teacher's wife for revenge.

James Harold Herron, 17, was arrested March 24, a short time after Mrs. Erston Bonner said she was attacked.

For Duration Of Strike

Crucible Workers Will Pay Full Insurance Premium

Group insurance coverage for the Crucible Steel Co.'s striking employes will continue during the period of the strike, according to a recently signed agreement between the company and the United Steelworkers of America.

Employe contributions for July and August remain at usual monthly amounts. This approximates one-half of the cost of the insurance. The remainder of the cost for these months is being met by the reserves of the insurance program.

However, since the reserves of the insurance program will be exhausted by Tuesday, starting with the month of September for the duration of the strike, employes will pay the full cost of the insurance.

Uniform Appraisal Concerning Coal

West Virginia Faces Knotty Issue

By CHARLES R. LEWIS

CHARLESTON (AP) — More than six billion tons of coal have been mined in West Virginia from 1863 until the present, but the state never has had a uniform method of appraising its bituminous reserves or production acreages.

Now, with a statewide appraisal program designed to increase—but equalize—the tax take at the county level steadily gaining momentum, Tax Department and local officials find themselves face to face with a knotty problem.

Within the next few months, actual reappraisal work will get under way in such coal-producing counties as Nicholas, Raleigh, Fayette, Summers, Monongalia, Marion, Marshall and Ohio.

The Tax Department must be able to provide firms it engages to do that work with a formula for evaluating coal lands which is both uniform for all parts of the state, and yet simple enough for assessors to employ in succeeding years.

An assessors' guide printed early in 1958 by Tax Commissioner John A. Field Jr. and his department set forth rule of the thumb methods for appraising oil and gas leaseholds. But there has been no formula for universal use in coal fields.

In its annual survey of property values which serves as a basis for computation of state school aid, the Tax Department has used an approach assigning certain arbitrary values to active, inactive and depleted coal acreage.

Department officials have agreed, however, that the system has not been too satisfactory. Among other things, it sometimes results in values admittedly too high for inactive coal lands, but too low for areas actually in production.

The suggested rule of thumb method of evaluating oil leaseholds involves the multiplication of the daily barrel output for each well by $1,000. The suggested gas leasehold approach is two-fold.

Assessors are advised to multiply annual royalty receipts by six to determine the value of a landlord's interest.

The value of a leasehold estate, the Tax Department has suggested, can be found by multiplying the leasee's or operator's annual receipts, less royalties paid, three by for the first four years of a well's life, and by four thereafter.

Tax Department checks with other states, and with private coal concerns, have brought to light several different methods for determining the value of bituminous lands. None, however, appears in itself to be the answer to the West Virginia problem.

One large Southern West Virginia coal company, for example, uses a system whereby a value of $200 an acre is assigned for the first 100 acres inside a mine opening, with a downward graduated scale for coal lying farther back.

The first concerted effort to establish a fair and uniform program statewide will come at the annual assessors' meeting and school of instruction Oct. 25-29 at Oglebay Park in Wheeling.

Edward G. Haislop, director of the appraisal program in the Tax Department, said assessors from coal-producing counties will be asked for detailed views on the over - all problem at a special workshop.

Ideas and results obtained there probably will be carried into later meetings with coal operators, mining engineers and representatives of other county and interested groups.

Haislop stressed that any formula eventually worked out must be relatively simple because assessors upon whom the continued success of the reappraisal program will depend in coming years generally have little technical background.

The uniformity will become increasingly important because of the numerous instances in which coal lands of big producers lie in more than one county. The present situation often finds widely different values placed on such holdings.

Some assessors, Haislop and other Tax Department officials said, have used variations of the formula employed in the annual survey for school aid purposes. Others, however, have found some parts of that system difficult to apply.

One of the basic features of that approach requires, in computation of active coal acreage, the use of certain arbitrary tonnages per acre depending upon the height of coal seams.

The number of tons per acre so determined is divided into the annual production to obtain an active acreage figure. That is one of the portions of the formula which has proved unsatisfactory on numerous occasions.

One suggestion in the work toward a uniform appraisal approach has envisioned certain modifications in the tax commissioner's survey method to include, among other things, provisions for use of five-year production averages.

Pair Indicted In 'Gang War'

NEW YORK (AP)—The 15-year-old Negro girl lay in her white casket in historic Trinity church, whose stately spire rises between the skyscrapers of Wall Street.

A hushed throng heard the minister say: "Let there be no more sudden death on the streets of the Lower East Side. Let there be peace on the streets."

The Rev. Dr. C. Kilmer Myers spoke softly Thursday night to 500 mourners who came from the humid tenements to the city's oldest church.

He pointed to the coffin holding the body of Theresa Gee, slain by a rifle bullet through the head in a teen-age gang fight last Sunday.

"She has become a symbol of the utter failure of our urban society to make it possible for young people to grow to adulthood without the nagging presence of tragic experiences," he said.

"We are the guilty ones, the police, the social workers, the clergy and the citizenry, all of us caught up, as was Theresa, in the tragic and demonic forces of the history of our age."

Theresa was not the only victim of Sunday's gang war. Julio Rosario, 14, died on Tuesday of stab wounds. Six other youths were stabbed or shot, none fatally.

In a swift reaction to the violence, a grand jury Thursday returned two first-degree murder indictments. One was against John Curz, 18-year-old Puerto Rican, for the shooting of Theresa. The other against Miguel (Gypsy) Castro, 17, in Rosario's slaying.

Web Worm Appearing With Tent-Like Nests

Webs are appearing in district trees resembling tent caterpillars but Oliver Johnson, Hancock County agricultural agent, said that if one observes closely he will see those webs are different.

The tent caterpillar made their webs in the crotches and forks of the branches. The fall web worm now present makes a web enclosing a section of leaves to feed upon. Often the web appears at the end of the branches. In some sections they are very abundant. However, they seldom are as damaging as the tent caterpillar.

The control is the same for the fall web worm as the tent caterpillar. One may cut off the web and burn or spray with a solution of DDT or Malathion.

Pittsburgher Forfeits In Chester Car Case

DeArmand M. Greenman of Pittsburgh forfeited a $15.50 bond Wednesday evening when he failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of hazardous driving, Mayor Burton Ward of Chester said.

Greenman was cited following a chain collision Sunday on Carolina Ave.

A hearing for Mrs. Lois V. Robb of 2nd St., Chester, was continued until Saturday. Her case had been continued to Wednesday night on a charge of driving without a city license, he said.

Library's 'Automobile Year' Seen Book Of Sports Car Fan

Miss Frances Jones, librarian at the Carnegie Public Library, said that though it is much too warm to pursue a hobby, summer affords the leisure for boning up on extracurricular interests.

For the sports car fan the latest volume of "Automobile Year" deserves thorough examination.

This volume includes photographs of all foreign cars including the Dutch DAF and the Aston Martin DB4. Unusual articles in the volume are concerned with the Australian motor industry and the building of automobiles in the USSR.

The amateur carpenter will discover a treasure house of new ideas in "More Plywood Projects" by Robert Scharff. This abounds with many ideas for built-in furniture, gun cabinets, book cases, record storage and playhouses for the children.

There is also a new guide by A. G. Lockwood and N. E. Stanton on "How to Finish Your Attic and Basement Yourself."

Making the dollar stretch and investing savings can become both interesting and useful hobbies. The Kiplinger Magazine, "Changing Times," has summarized its advice in a "Family Buying Guide" which explains how to live better on your income. Harry Kahn, a partner of Bache & Co. in Washington, has prepared a new "Primer for Profit in the Stock Market."

The hunter who is fond of dogs will enjoy two new books. Lee Duncan, who first found a German shepherd in the dugouts of World War I, and turned him into a great success, is the subject of "The Rin Tin Tin Story." His suggestions on the care and training of all dogs will prove useful to canine owners. The former shooting editor of "Field and Stream" magazine, Bob Nichols, has prepared in his retirement the most authoritative book on the art of wingshooting. He has called it, "The Shotgunner."

The distaff side of the hobby picture is represented with "A Handbook on Technique of Fabric Painting," with 83 designs by B. G. Eades and Ethel Evans, "This Is Knitting." Besides the currently fashionable bulky sweathers there are instructions on making Russian bedsocks and several practical infant garments.

Common interests for the entire family are to be found in games and art. The library has just acquired "A Dictionary of Modern Chess" by Byrne J. Horton. A chief editor of Grosset & Dunlap, William Morris, with the help of his wife, has collected hundreds of intriguing word games in "The World-Game Book." These include ice-breakers for parties, ingenious scrabblegrams and specially prepared crosswords.

For the collector of pottery and antiques, the library recommends Ethel Bjerkoe's "How to Decorate for and with Antiques," "English Delftware," "Medieval English Pottery," "Roman Pottery" and "Painting on Folk Ceramics." The latter concerns work on Majolica ware, largely by Moravian, Slovak and Czech people.

The devotee of the dance should be inspired by an Englishman, John Gabriel, who made detailed camera studies of a "Ballet School." A Frenchman, Serge Lido, has done photographic scenes from ballets. He gives Jerome Robbins and Agnes DeMille credit for influencing the ballet in Europe.

Two novels creating a stir on the current literary scene are to be found among this week's new arrivals. Meyer Levin, who wrote the highly successful "Compulsion," has a new novel, "Eva." It is the tale of a Jewish girl who fled a death trap in Poland during the Gestapo regime. Robert Penn Warren's very clever modern story of suspense, "The Cave," deserves the attention of the serious reader.

100 At Annual Picnic For Lions And Families

About 100 attended the Lions Club's annual family picnic Wednesday evening at Thompson Park.

Horseshoe pitching and a children's ball game preceded the buffet style dinner. Games and contests for children and adults followed. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. John Covert were in charge.

Th committee for the picnic included James Johnston, chairman, Charles Herman, Howard Tice, Charles Heasley, James Horger and Jack Smith.

Jack Kelly was in charge of tickets.

On Integration Issue

School Children Of South Face New Critical Period

By The Associated Press

Another critical period is at hand for the school children of the South where federal integration regulations sometimes clash sharply with traditional patterns and state laws.

The youngsters are about to start the fall term—the sixth since the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 decision outlawing segregation in the nation's public schools.

Some children already are attending classes in an atmosphere marked by less tension than in the past. Other thousands are preparing to resume their educations.

A half-dozen schools are expected to be desegregated for the first time. Four Negroes have been assigned to the Orchard Villa School in Miami and if they attend classes Sept. 8 it will mark the start of integration at the public school level in Florida.

Other initial desegregation attempts will occur in states which now have at least token integration in some cities. Elsewhere legal battles are continuing and court rulings may take effect at later dates.

There is no indication what will happen in the next few days. But the reopening of the public high schools in Little Rock, Ark., and the end of Virginia's massive resistance have had an appreciable effect.

The voice of the moderate has been heard more often in recent months. Some citizens have formed organizations designed to keep the public schools open even if it means token integration.

Integration advances generally have occurred in the upper and middle South. The five Deep South states of Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina have permitted no public school integration.

The number of Negroes in desegregated situations has gone up from 256,020 in March 1955, to 447,022 in May 1959. Most of the changes have taken place in the border states.

The Southern Regional Council, an organization working for improvement in race relations, reported recently that with the exception of Texas, only 206 Negroes were in attendance with white pupils during the past year in 11 Southern states. In Texas, an estimated 3,250 Negroes were in desegregated classes.

The Orchard Villa School at Miami heads the public schools where initial desegregation may take place shortly.

A second public high school already has been integrated at Little Rock and the Dollarway School District near Pine Bluff, Ark., has been ordered to desegreate. The Dollarway case may be considered Monday by an appellate court at St. Louis.

The school board at Charlottesville in central Virginia has assigned nine Negroes to an elementary school and two to a high school there. Classes begin Sept. 8.

At Front Royal, Va., the opening of all Warren County public schools has been postponed from Aug. 31 to Sept. 8.

Three hundred and seventy-seven white pupils and 18 Negroes have registered for enrollment at integration-troubled Warren County High.

In North Carolina, two Negro girls have been admitted to classes beginning Tuesday at High Point. In addition 17 Negro children of personnel at Cherry Point Marine Air Station have been accepted at white elementary schools in the Havelock School District at New Bern.

A new school is expected to be integrated at Burkburnett, Tex., when it opens later this fall. The school will be on federal property and will serve a new housing project for Sheppard Air Force Base.

Philip, they took the palace car from the gateway for the half-mile drive to the gloomy old castle built amid these melancholy moors by Queen Victoria.

The President flew up from London in a Royal Air Force jetliner to Dyce Airport near Aberdeen, then drove 50 miles through the Deeside country with Prince Philip, the Queen's husband.

The Queen and Princess Margaret arrived at the castle gates a few minutes before Philip and the President drew up in their black limousine.

Stepping from the car, Eisenhower shook hands with the Queen and Margaret. Then he and Elizabeth inspected an honor guard of the Royal Highland Fusiliers to the skirl of a pipe band.

Cheers went up from about 100 spectators, mos of them members of the castle staff, a few from nearby villages.

The President then entered a royal car with the Queen, her husband and Margaret, and the party was driven into the castle. Eisenhower has known Elizabeth since she was a teen-age princess, and the visit is a private one, with the arrival ceremony the only public event.

Eisenhower got a taste of real Scots weather on his arrival at Dyce Airport. It was cold and windy, and rain started pelting down as the presidential plane taxied up to the arrival strip.

A crowd of 500 Scots, wrapped in topcoats and mufflers, sent up a big cheer as the President walked down the steps from the plane.

Eisenhower gave Philip — his guest twice in Washington—a firm handshake and patted him warmly on the elbow. The prince smiled broadly.

He and Philip got into the waiting limousine for the 50-mile drive to Balmoral Castle, where the Queen and her family are spending their annual vacation in the Scottish highlands.

Eisenhower flies back to London Saturday, then drive to Chequers, the country home of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, for a weekend of talks about the President's approaching exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Eisenhower got an early start today, leaving U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney's Regents Park residence at 7:50 a.m. Macmillan made the 16½-mile drive to the airport with him. Hundreds of Britons going to work cheered the motorcade.

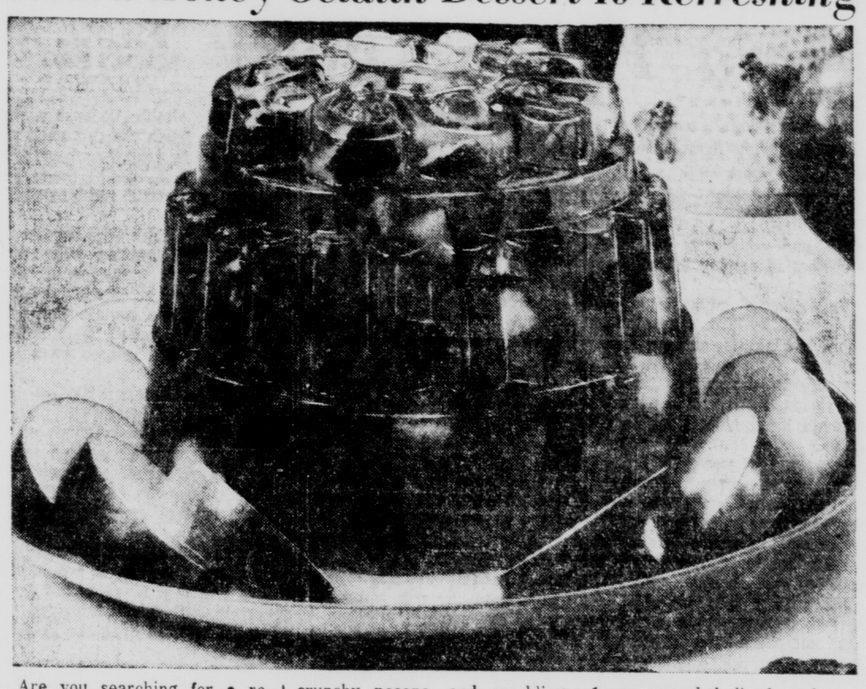

The first sour notes of Eisenhower's visit sounded as he and Macmillan left Whitney's residence.

A loudspeaker truck parked outside the gates suddenly blared: "The Empire Loyalists ask why Harold Macmillan has invited to London the great victor of Suez. Why has Macmillan placed us militarily entirely in the hands of a traitorous ally?"

The League of British Empire Loyalists is an organization of Britain-firsters who feel their country should rely more on its Commonwealth partners and less on the United States. With many other Britons, it feels that U.S. pressure forced the halt in the British-French attack on the Suez in 1957, when Sir Anthony Eden was prime minister.

But this was nothing compared with the warm and stirring welcome that a half million Britons gave the President Thursday night as he drove into the city after his arrival from Bonn. It was the biggest ovation Britain's capital has seen since the Queen's coronations.

Drill Team To Leave For Convention Test

The drill team of VFW Post 66 will leave the post home tonight at 6:30 for Pittsburgh to board a plane for Los Angeles to defend its national championship.

Results of the competition at the National VFW convention will be known Wednesday night.

Al Sayre, captain, said the team received $65 or 25 per cent of the gross sales from a party held Wednesday night at Freed's Bar & Grill.

Women of the Democratic Club donated $25 to help on the team's trip to the West Coast, while Bert Goodballet and James Moore each contributed $25.

Will Help Fishermen

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP)—Raytheon Co. says it has developed a tiny depth sounder that helps fishermen to find the big ones. The unit, six inches in diameter and weighing less than five pounds, sends out ultrasonic signals. Red flashes show up on the dial when the boat passes over large fish.

Today Is Youth Day

Ohio State Fair Opens

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With a snip of the scissors, Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune was to officially open the 1959 Ohio State Fair at 6 o'clock this moreing.

Throngs of fair goers, officials hope, will pour throug the gates during the next eight days.

Roy Rogers, movie and television star, will be the grandstand attraction for the first four days. Rogers, a native of Duck Run, Ohio, and his wife, Dale Evans, were featured at the 1956 fair.

Forecasters say the weather will be hot and humid for the most part, with a few showers, but such things don't seem to deter the fair crowds.

Last year's paid attendance was 271,431 (291,982 including an exhibition football game), and it was held in relatively cool and rainy weather. In 1956 a record 342,272 persons took in the fair attractions.

Fair manager Rowland expressed belief the heat will not affect the number of livestock to be exhibited. There are some 115,000 animals competing for $118,000 in premiums.

One thing will be missing today, Terhune said. The heat and low levels in lakes resulted in there being no fish available for the free fishing at least until Saturday.

Today is youth day at the fair. A junior fair queen will be crowned and there will be a young people's talent show and junior fair judging.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle was to be at the fairgrounds at 9 a.m. to conduct probably the first cabinet meeting ever held here.

The theme of the fair for 1959 runs to the effect that there's something at the fair for everyone.

Looking over the program, that sounds logical.

The Air Force will display a 65-foot Thor missile.

The Rogers show will be followed, on the last four days of the fair, by a fireworks display illustrating Bible.

The All-Ohio Boys Band will march around the grounds and play concerts for fair visitors.

Grand Circuit harness racing will be held five afternoons on the fairgrounds track. It begins Saturday, then runs Monday through Thursday.

Of course, there are the multitude of exhibits to catch the eyes of the youngsters and the older "kids" who "remember when."

Leetonia Firm To Take Over County Ambulance Service

At least seven funeral directors in Columbaina County will discontinue ambulance service Saturday after turning over the operations to a new service located in Leetonia.

Ambulance calls of these funeral homes will be handled by the Scanlon Ambulance Service, Inc., which will have five ambulances equipped with two-way radio operating on a 24-hour, seven-day basis, according to James Scanlon, president.

The funeral directors said in a joint announcement that increased cost of ambulances, maintenance and service led to the establishment of a central ambulance service.

They added that "we feel the new system will result in prompt, efficient service to the public since the Scanlon agency will be concentrating solely on ambulance calls."

The Scanlon firm has agreed to provide complete ambulance and invalid car service and a home oxygen therapy service. Plans are to station ambulances at strategic points throughout the area to cut time in answering calls.

Other funeral directors in the county are expected eventually to join the program.

The seven funeral homes now in the program include Ells - Leggett and Henry, both in Lisbon; Fry, Seederly-Beilhart and Warrick, all in Columbiana, and Woods & Son in Leetonia.

Calls will be handled at the Scanlon service in Leetonia by phoning HAzel 7-2002.

Boy Leans Out Of Car; Head Hits Post, Killed

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—Donald LaBarre 15, leaned out the right rear window of a moving automobile Thursday to investigate a rattle.

The four others in the car asked him what he found.

When he failed to answer, the driver, his aunt, Janet LaBarre, 17, stopped the car.

They found Donald was dead. His head apparently had struck a concrete guard post.

489 X-Rays Taken

SALEM — A total of 489 free X-ray chest examinations were taken at the Eljer Co. plant in Salem Wednesday and Thursday, according to Miss Lillian Schroeder, executive secretary of the Columbiana County Public Health League. The Christmas Seal sponsored mobile unit's next stop will be at the Columbiana street fair Sept. 11-12.

Council Waits Full Summary On Sewer Job

A full-scale summary of the necessity for relocating part of the huge Carpenters Run trunk line sewer and rebuilding collapsed sections will be presented to Council members and the administration at a briefing session Saturday morning at City Hall.

Because the plans for the intricate project have developed over several years, dating back to the time before the present Council assumed office, the background will be detailed by Engineer George S. Bloomgren in a meeting that will start at 10 in Mayor Fred P. Lawrence's office.

Cost of the project has been estimated at approximately $100,000. The city already has obtained $33,000 from the federal government to be used in the project, as the Carpenters Run trunk is a major segment of the sanitary sewer system and eventually will be tied in with the new West End treatment plant.

Part of the line — the section nearest the city limits in California Hollow — will be relocated in connection with the construction of the first stage of the four - lane freeway that will end at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. Other sections of the line have collapsed over the years, allowing raw sewage to seep into the run.

At present, the sewage flows into the river, but the line must be repaired and connected with the West End plant before East Liverpool's mandatory sewage treatment is 100 per cent effective.

The discussion of the project was scheduled after Bloomgren reported first enabling legislation may be ready for presentation at Council's next meeting Sept. 8.

Council President B. E. Warner said he expects virtually all members of Council to attend, as they were notified by telephone this morning.

Drastic Overhaul Urge Of Nation's Defenses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elimination of a separate Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps in a drastic overhaul of the nation's defenses was proposed today by Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif).

"The missile race is one we must win if we are to stop Communist domination of the world," Engle said in a Senate speech. He is a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Engle proposed instead "a retaliatory striking force; a limited war force; a contnental defense; and a logistic command."

Heart Ailment Fatal

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—William V. O'Connor, 48, former chief deputy attorney general for California, died Thursday. Death was attributed to an acute coronary occlusion. O'Connor, a Democrat, served 7½ years in the attorney general's office, resigned in 1958 to practice law in Los Angeles.

Steel Walkout Negotiations Are Recessed

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiations in the nationwide steel strike are in recess so that leaders of both sides can think things over for a few days.

When the talks start up again Wednesday, the strike of a half million workers will be 50 days old.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service, announced the recess after a bargaining session Thursday.

He said top negotiators for the industry and the striking United Steelworkers Union of America told him that "it is their joint opinion that time for additional work by the respective parties is required in order for them to evaluate and restudy their positions."

A joint statement by Union President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, said: "The parties have reached a point where a temporary adjournment appears to be necessary. After many weeks of continuous discussion, both parties need to devote time with their own associates to review the problems that have been considered and to assess efforts to date..."

ATTENTION!

The following area funeral directors will discontinue ambulance service effective Aug. 29, 1959.

Ambulance calls will be handled by the Scanlon Ambulance Service, Inc., at Leetonia, telephone HAzel 7-2002.

We feel the new system will result in prompt, efficient service to the public since the agency will be concentrating solely on ambulance calls.

Increased costs of ambulances, maintenance and service makes a central ambulance service desirable and necessary, we believe.

Scanlon Ambulance Service agrees to provide complete ambulance and invalid car service and a home oxygen therapy service.

It is to begin operations with five ambulances equipped with two-way radios, and will operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Eventual plans are to station ambulances at strategic points throughout the area to cut time in answering calls.

We wish to thank the public for its support in the past, and hope for its understanding and cooperation in this new system.

On Integration Issue

School Children Of South Face New Critical Period

By The Associated Press

Another critical period is at hand for the school children of the South where federal integration regulations sometimes clash sharply with traditional patterns and state laws.

The youngsters are about to start the fall term—the sixth since the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 decision outlawing segregation in the nation's public schools.

Some children already are attending classes in an atmosphere marked by less tension than in the past. Other thousands are preparing to resume their educations.

A half-dozen schools are expected to be desegregated for the first time. Four Negroes have been assigned to the Orchard Villa School in Miami and if they attend classes Sept. 8 it will mark the start of integration at the public school level in Florida.

Refreshing Honey Gelatin Mold

1 cup hot water
1-3 cup honey
2-3 cup cold water
1 cup unpeeled diced apples
½ cup chopped pecans

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add honey and cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in pecans and apples. Pour into a 1-quart mold. Chill until set. Unmold. Serve with a topping of whipped cream and honey made by making a nest - shaped mound of the whipped cream on each serving and dribbling one teaspoon of honey in center. Makes 6 servings.

Man Injured Unloading Car

A man injured while unloading a boxcar was among eight emergency cases treated at City Hospital Thursday.

Degga Presutti, 33, of 1934 Michigan Ave., injured his left leg in the boxcar mishap at the Louthan Manufacturing Co.

George St. Clair, 40, of Steubenville, a mechanic at Waterford Park, was struck on the chin by a piece of steel from a hammer.

John Graham, 18, son of Herbert Graham of Hookstown, cut his left wrist on a car door.

Harold Brown, 24, of Route 30, Chester, lacerated his right heel when caught under a lawn mower.

Carol Mills, 21, of 531 Jefferson St., Newell, lacerated a finger of her right hand on a car.

Herbert Lockhart, 26, of 1827 Dakota Ave., cut a finger of the left hand while working on a car.

Robert W. Smith, 27, of Grimms Bridge Rd. sprained an ankle while jumping off a truck.

Debra Williams, 10, daughter of William Williams, 1741 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, received a possible skull fracture, lacerations of the chin and left forearm, and contusions of the right side of her face when she fell from a car.

Ralph Stewart, 632½ St. Clair Ave., was treated at the Osteopathic Hospital Thursday at 1:40 p. m., for laceration of the left wrist. He was injured while cutting plate glass at work at Turk's Motors.

Drill Team To Leave For Convention Test

The drill team of VFW Post 66 will leave the post home tonight at 6:30 for Pittsburgh to board a plane for Los Angeles to defend its national championship.

Results of the competition at the National VFW convention will be known Wednesday night.

Al Sayre, captain, said the team received $65 or 25 per cent of the gross sales from a party held Wednesday night at Freed's Bar & Grill.

Women of the Democratic Club donated $25 to help on the team's trip to the West Coast, while Bert Goodballet and James Moore each contributed $25.

Will Help Fishermen

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP)—Raytheon Co. says it has developed a tiny depth sounder that helps fishermen to find the big ones. The unit, six inches in diameter and weighing less than five pounds, sends out ultrasonic signals. Red flashes show up on the dial when the boat passes over large fish.

Today Is Youth Day

Ohio State Fair Opens

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With a snip of the scissors, Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune was to officially open the 1959 Ohio State Fair at 6 o'clock this moreing.

Throngs of fair goers, officials hope, will pour throug the gates during the next eight days.

Roy Rogers, movie and television star, will be the grandstand attraction for the first four days. Rogers, a native of Duck Run, Ohio, and his wife, Dale Evans, were featured at the 1956 fair.

Forecasters say the weather will be hot and humid for the most part, with a few showers, but such things don't seem to deter the fair crowds.

Last year's paid attendance was 271,431 (291,982 including an exhibition football game), and it was held in relatively cool and rainy weather. In 1956 a record 342,272 persons took in the fair attractions.

Fair manager Rowland expressed belief the heat will not affect the number of livestock to be exhibited. There are some 115,000 animals competing for $118,000 in premiums.

One thing will be missing today, Terhune said. The heat and low levels in lakes resulted in there being no fish available for the free fishing at least until Saturday.

Today is youth day at the fair. A junior fair queen will be crowned and there will be a young people's talent show and junior fair judging.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle was to be at the fairgrounds at 9 a.m. to conduct probably the first cabinet meeting ever held here.

The theme of the fair for 1959 runs to the effect that there's something at the fair for everyone.

Looking over the program, that sounds logical.

The Air Force will display a 65-foot Thor missile.

The Rogers show will be followed, on the last four days of the fair, by a fireworks display illustrating Bible.

The All-Ohio Boys Band will march around the grounds and play concerts for fair visitors.

Grand Circuit harness racing will be held five afternoons on the fairgrounds track. It begins Saturday, then runs Monday through Thursday.

Of course, there are the multitude of exhibits to catch the eyes of the youngsters and the older "kids" who "remember when."

Leetonia Firm To Take Over County Ambulance Service

At least seven funeral directors in Columbaina County will discontinue ambulance service Saturday after turning over the operations to a new service located in Leetonia.

Ambulance calls of these funeral homes will be handled by the Scanlon Ambulance Service, Inc., which will have five ambulances equipped with two-way radio operating on a 24-hour, seven-day basis, according to James Scanlon, president.

The funeral directors said in a joint announcement that increased cost of ambulances, maintenance and service led to the establishment of a central ambulance service.

They added that "we feel the new system will result in prompt, efficient service to the public since the Scanlon agency will be concentrating solely on ambulance calls."

The Scanlon firm has agreed to provide complete ambulance and invalid car service and a home oxygen therapy service. Plans are to station ambulances at strategic points throughout the area to cut time in answering calls.

Other funeral directors in the county are expected eventually to join the program.

The seven funeral homes now in the program include Ells - Leggett and Henry, both in Lisbon; Fry, Seederly-Beilhart and Warrick, all in Columbiana, and Woods & Son in Leetonia.

Calls will be handled at the Scanlon service in Leetonia by phoning HAzel 7-2002.

Boy Leans Out Of Car; Head Hits Post, Killed

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—Donald LaBarre 15, leaned out the right rear window of a moving automobile Thursday to investigate a rattle.

The four others in the car asked him what he found.

When he failed to answer, the driver, his aunt, Janet LaBarre, 17, stopped the car.

They found Donald was dead. His head apparently had struck a concrete guard post.

489 X-Rays Taken

SALEM — A total of 489 free X-ray chest examinations were taken at the Eljer Co. plant in Salem Wednesday and Thursday, according to Miss Lillian Schroeder, executive secretary of the Columbiana County Public Health League. The Christmas Seal sponsored mobile unit's next stop will be at the Columbiana street fair Sept. 11-12.

Council Waits Full Summary On Sewer Job

A full-scale summary of the necessity for relocating part of the huge Carpenters Run trunk line sewer and rebuilding collapsed sections will be presented to Council members and the administration at a briefing session Saturday morning at City Hall.

Because the plans for the intricate project have developed over several years, dating back to the time before the present Council assumed office, the background will be detailed by Engineer George S. Bloomgren in a meeting that will start at 10 in Mayor Fred P. Lawrence's office.

Cost of the project has been estimated at approximately $100,000. The city already has obtained $33,000 from the federal government to be used in the project, as the Carpenters Run trunk is a major segment of the sanitary sewer system and eventually will be tied in with the new West End treatment plant.

Part of the line — the section nearest the city limits in California Hollow — will be relocated in connection with the construction of the first stage of the four - lane freeway that will end at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. Other sections of the line have collapsed over the years, allowing raw sewage to seep into the run.

At present, the sewage flows into the river, but the line must be repaired and connected with the West End plant before East Liverpool's mandatory sewage treatment is 100 per cent effective.

The discussion of the project was scheduled after Bloomgren reported first enabling legislation may be ready for presentation at Council's next meeting Sept. 8.

Council President B. E. Warner said he expects virtually all members of Council to attend, as they were notified by telephone this morning.

Drastic Overhaul Urge Of Nation's Defenses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elimination of a separate Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps in a drastic overhaul of the nation's defenses was proposed today by Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif).

"The missile race is one we must win if we are to stop Communist domination of the world," Engle said in a Senate speech. He is a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Engle proposed instead "a retaliatory striking force; a limited war force; a contnental defense; and a logistic command."

Heart Ailment Fatal

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—William V. O'Connor, 48, former chief deputy attorney general for California, died Thursday. Death was attributed to an acute coronary occlusion. O'Connor, a Democrat, served 7½ years in the attorney general's office, resigned in 1958 to practice law in Los Angeles.

Steel Walkout Negotiations Are Recessed

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiations in the nationwide steel strike are in recess so that leaders of both sides can think things over for a few days.

When the talks start up again Wednesday, the strike of a half million workers will be 50 days old.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service, announced the recess after a bargaining session Thursday.

He said top negotiators for the industry and the striking United Steelworkers Union of America told him that "it is their joint opinion that time for additional work by the respective parties is required in order for them to evaluate and restudy their positions."

A joint statement by Union President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, said: "The parties have reached a point where a temporary adjournment appears to be necessary. After many weeks of continuous discussion, both parties need to devote time with their own associates to review the problems that have been considered and to assess efforts to date..."

Pact Grants Pay Hike

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—A contract granting a 10-cent hourly wage boost to 1,200 employes of Union Carbide Metals Co. at Marietta, Ohio, was signed Thursday. ATTENTION!

The following area funeral directors will discontinue ambulance service effective Aug. 29, 1959.

Ambulance calls will be handled by the Scanlon Ambulance Service, Inc., at Leetonia, telephone HAzel 7-2002.

We feel the new system will result in prompt, efficient service to the public since the agency will be concentrating solely on ambulance calls.

Increased costs of ambulances, maintenance and service makes a central ambulance service desirable and necessary, we believe.

Scanlon Ambulance Service agrees to provide complete ambulance and invalid car service and a home oxygen therapy service.

It is to begin operations with five ambulances equipped with two-way radios, and will operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Eventual plans are to station ambulances at strategic points throughout the area to cut time in answering calls.

We wish to thank the public for its support in the past, and hope for its understanding and cooperation in this new system.

Take Steel For Example

U.S. Says Red China's Production Claims Phony

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. experts have peered at Peiping's new production claims only to find that, like the old ones, the new figures are as phony as a three yuan bill.

Take steel for example.

Chinese Communist Party chiefs announced Wednesday, following a two-week strategy session, that only 8 million tons of the 11,080,000 tons of steel Red China previously claimed to have produced in 1958 were suitable for industry.

They set a 1959 goal of 12 million tons for this basic industrial item, a sharp slash from the earlier target of 18 million tons. They claimed a 5,300,000-ton output for the first half of this year.

These statistics boasted by the Communist authors of China's "Great Leap Forward" remain glorious to the point of being impossible, in the view of Washington specialists, aside from the downgrading announced by the Reds themselves.

Word here is that China's steel mills ran above capacity to reach the stated 8 million tons in 1958. How, then, it is asked, can China expand this 50 per cent this year when it has no major new steel works announced for completion in 1959?

Peiping's grain figures, probably the most important agricultural statistic, have come under similar scrutiny.

The Communists admitted their earlier claim of 375 million tons of grain grown in 1958 was "a bit high." Their new statistic is 250 million tons.

For 1959, they chopped the announced grain goal from 525 down to 275 million tons.

One explanation advanced here for Peiping's new grain figures is that amid a chronic shortage of food which they could not conceal among their own people, the Communists had to downgrade their more extravagant claims.

Another Washington opinion is that the Reds want to set up a lower basis for comparison so they will be able to proclaim greater relative gains on their 10th anniversary celebration due Oct. 1.

Five Who Fled Jail In Canton Are Captured

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Five prisoners who fled from the Stark County jail after knocking a hole in the wall of the 78-year-old building were back in custody today.

Sheriff's deputies quickly rounded up three of the fugitives following the escape Thursday afternoon. The other two surrendered 10 hours later. They were flushed from a wooded area in the northeast section of the city.

Sammy Wright, 19, of Alliance, and Thomas Brown, 38, of Cleveland, were the last two captured.

The other escapees were Jesse Lee King, 38, of Cleveland; Wade David Jones, 24, of Canton, and John Stovall, 19, of Alliance.

Stovall was caught before he could get out of the jail yard. King and Jones were captured shortly afterward following a chase along Mahoning Road in which several shots were fired by police. Deputies found King hiding under a parked car.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Battista said the prisoners used a table leg to work loose bricks in the wall of a shower room, which opened onto the jail yard.

They forced their way out near the spot where three other prisoners made a similar escape last June 9. Those three were caught early the next day in Carrollton.

Wright and Jones are held as parole violators and King is held for the Cleveland Police Department. Brown is charged with breaking and entering. Authorities said Stovall's record included car theft, breaking and entering and parole violation.

Take Steel For Example

U.S. Says Red China's Production Claims Phony

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. experts have peered at Peiping's new production claims only to find that, like the old ones, the new figures are as phony as a three yuan bill.

Take steel for example.

Chinese Communist Party chiefs announced Wednesday, following a two-week strategy session, that only 8 million tons of the 11,080,000 tons of steel Red China previously claimed to have produced in 1958 were suitable for industry.

They set a 1959 goal of 12 million tons for this basic industrial item, a sharp slash from the earlier target of 18 million tons. They claimed a 5,300,000-ton output for the first half of this year.

These statistics boasted by the Communist authors of China's "Great Leap Forward" remain glorious to the point of being impossible, in the view of Washington specialists, aside from the downgrading announced by the Reds themselves.

Word here is that China's steel mills ran above capacity to reach the stated 8 million tons in 1958. How, then, it is asked, can China expand this 50 per cent this year when it has no major new steel works announced for completion in 1959?

Peiping's grain figures, probably the most important agricultural statistic, have come under similar scrutiny.

The Communists admitted their earlier claim of 375 million tons of grain grown in 1958 was "a bit high." Their new statistic is 250 million tons.

For 1959, they chopped the announced grain goal from 525 down to 275 million tons.

One explanation advanced here for Peiping's new grain figures is that amid a chronic shortage of food which they could not conceal among their own people, the Communists had to downgrade their more extravagant claims.

Another Washington opinion is that the Reds want to set up a lower basis for comparison so they will be able to proclaim greater relative gains on their 10th anniversary celebration due Oct. 1.

Five Who Fled Jail In Canton Are Captured

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Five prisoners who fled from the Stark County jail after knocking a hole in the wall of the 78-year-old building were back in custody today.

Sheriff's deputies quickly rounded up three of the fugitives following the escape Thursday afternoon. The other two surrendered 10 hours later. They were flushed from a wooded area in the northeast section of the city.

Sammy Wright, 19, of Alliance, and Thomas Brown, 38, of Cleveland, were the last two captured.

The other escapees were Jesse Lee King, 38, of Cleveland; Wade David Jones, 24, of Canton, and John Stovall, 19, of Alliance.

Stovall was caught before he could get out of the jail yard. King and Jones were captured shortly afterward following a chase along Mahoning Road in which several shots were fired by police. Deputies found King hiding under a parked car.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Battista said the prisoners used a table leg to work loose bricks in the wall of a shower room, which opened onto the jail yard.

They forced their way out near the spot where three other prisoners made a similar escape last June 9. Those three were caught early the next day in Carrollton.

Wright and Jones are held as parole violators and King is held for the Cleveland Police Department. Brown is charged with breaking and entering. Authorities said Stovall's record included car theft, breaking and entering and parole violation.

Direct Enlistments Open In Paratroopers

Sgt. Emuel Bosley, East Liverpool Army recruiter, said today direct enlistments are open in the paratroopers.

Qualified men may join as airborne trainees with their choice guaranteed before enlisting. The enlistment is for three years.

Interested men may obtain information at the Army Recruiting Center in the Post Office. The phone is FU. 6-4262.

AMAZING NEW PURITRON
HAILED BY DOCTORS
FOR RELIEF OF
HAY FEVER, ASTHMA, SINUS, ALLERGIES

Just plug in: it's portable!

A remarkable new "Puritron" has been developed by electronic scientists. It is being acclaimed by doctors after they buy it and see it work in their own homes, for their own families—and for their patients in their offices and operating rooms.

PURITRON clears any room of irritating dust, odors, pollen and smoke. It's better than a kitchen exhaust fan.

READ WHAT DOCTORS AND USERS SAY ABOUT PURITRON!

"Surpassed all expectations. Performs miracles for a dust allergy patient" (Pennsylvania doctor) . . . "For the first time I woke up without sinus trouble" New Jersey MD) . . . "Controlled a stubborn form of respiratory allergy in my daughter, age 5" (Southern physician)

"First time in 13 years my son has slept with his mouth closed . . . not fighting to breathe. No sore throat, no cracked lips. To the inventor and manufacturer, my thanks." "Tried so far only one day and found it gave marvelous relief. Thanks!" "I get asthma with hay fever and that's why I bought Puritron. Believe me it is wonderful. Makes me breathe easier . . . and sleep.

AMAZING NEW PURITRON
HAILED BY DOCTORS
FOR RELIEF OF
HAY FEVER, ASTHMA, SINUS, ALLERGIES

Just plug in; it's portable!
A remarkable new "Puritron" has been developed by electronic scientists. It is being acclaimed by doctors after they buy it and see it work in their own homes, for their own families—and for their patients in their offices and operating rooms.
PURITRON clears any room of irritating dust, odors, pollen and smoke. It's better than a kitchen exhaust fan.

READ WHAT DOCTORS AND USERS SAY ABOUT PURITRON!
"Surpassed all expectations. Performs miracles for a dust allergy patient" (Pennsylvania doctor) . . . "For the first time I woke up without sinus trouble" New Jersey MD) . . . "Controlled a stubborn form of respiratory allergy in my daughter, age 5" (Southern physician)
"First time in 13 years my son has slept with his mouth closed . . . not fighting to breathe. No sore throat, no cracked lips. To the inventor and manufacturer, my thanks." ● "Tried so far only one day and found it gave marvelous relief. Thanks!" ● "I get asthma with hay fever and that's why I bought Puritron. Believe me it is wonderful. Makes me breathe easier . . . and sleep.

FOR SALE REAL ESTATE

58 CITY-SUBURBAN PROPERTY

We're Sure
these are worth the money

DOWNTOWN—Cheerful three bedroom home with slate roof, good siding, two porches, downstairs newly carpeted, modern bath, basement and new gas furnace. Fenced back yard—big enough, but not too big. $8,500

SHERWOOD—One story modern, four rooms and bath with basement garage. This one is only 5 years old and doesn't need a thing inside or outside. Of course it has gas furnace, modern kitchen and bath, hardwood floors, automatic water heater and all the nice features. Only $13,000

LA CROFT, NEAR 7TH AVE. BUS STOP—Four rooms and bath, with garage, excellent patios with plenty of shade trees. The living room is carpeted with the finest sculptured wall to wall carpet and both bedrooms are carpeted wall to wall too. It's plastered and paneled, and their high fuel bill was under $20.00 for the coldest month last winter. Enough said until you see it at $11,000

DOWNTOWN—Cheerful three bedroom home with slate roof, good siding, two porches, downstairs newly carpeted, modern bath, basement and new gas furnace. Fenced back yard—big enough, but not too big. $8,500

SHERWOOD—One story modern, four rooms and bath with basement garage. This one is only 5 years old and doesn't need a thing inside or outside. Of course it has gas furnace, modern kitchen and bath, hardwood floors, automatic water heater and all the nice features. Only $13,000

LA CROFT, NEAR 7TH AVE. BUS STOP—Four rooms and bath, with garage, excellent patios with plenty of shade trees. The living room is carpeted with the finest sculptured wall to wall carpet and both bedrooms are carpeted wall to wall too. It's plastered and paneled, and their high fuel bill was under $20.00 for the coldest month last winter. Enough said until you see it at $11,000

125 Civil Defense Personnel To Take Part In Alert Sunday

Over 125 Civilian Defense personnel from 3 counties with at least 9 pieces of equipment will participate in a practice alert Sunday afternoon at Glenmoor with state and district officials on hand as observors.

It will be a practice of the 31st Mobile Support Group with various teams from Columbiana, Carroll and Tuscarawas Counties performing before a state CD official, Col. Leo McCarthy of Carrollton, district commander, and Rolland Leach of Leetonia, group commander.

Participating will be the rescue trucks and squads from Leetonia and Salineville, the fire truck and rescue truck of the Glenmoor 5th platoon, the communications truck from this area, the fire truck from Lisbon, and the mass feeding and police teams from East Liverpool and the first aid team from Roswell near New Philadelphia.

Boy Scout Troops 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church and the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association will serve as casualties for the CD emergency hospital to be erected in the Glenmoor volunteer firemen's tent.

Some 25 of the boys will be "tagged" for simulated injuries to test the hospital setup.

Hookstown Fair Waits Horse Show

The Hookstown Saddle Club will stage a horse show at the Hookstown Grange Fair tonight at 7 to continue the annual event which opened Wednesday.

It closes Saturday with horse pulling contests at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., machinery and livestock parades at 7:30 and 8 and stage show at 9.

Livestock and dairy entries were judged Thursday and other entries Wednesday. Pony pulling contest winners last night were Donald McDowell of Hubbard, first; Richard Moore of Ravenna, second, and Kenneth Rockhold of Leetonia, third, in the 46-inch and under class.

C. L. Ritchie of Warren, first; Paul Milhbach of Akron, second, and Ed Bastien of Ingomar, third, in the 46-to-50-inch class. Judges were Ernest Nelsen, Floyd Shane and Paul Morrow.

Tractor pulling contest winners Wednesday, first, second, third were: W. R. Chaney, Harry Anderson and Lee Snyder in Class A; Allen McAdoo, Bob Harshberger and Jim Miller in Class B; Eugene Cheverant, Glenn Campbell and Richard Miller in Class C; and Cheverant, Joe Brazzoli and Dan Bucan in Class D.

Boy Scout Troops 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church and the La-Croft Parent-Teacher Association will serve as casualties for the CD emergency hospital to be erected in the Glenmoor volunteer firemen's tent.

Some 25 of the boys will be "tagged" for simulated injuries to test the hospital setup.

Hookstown Fair Waits Horse Show

The Hookstown Saddle Club will stage a horse show at the Hookstown Grange Fair tonight at 7 to continue the annual event which opened Wednesday.

It closes Saturday with horse pulling contests at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m., machinery and livestock parades at 7:30 and 8 and stage show at 9.

Livestock and dairy entries were judged Thursday and other entries Wednesday. Pony pulling contest winners last night were Donald McDowell of Hubbard, first; Richard Moore of Ravenna, second, and Kenneth Rockhold of Leetonia, third, in the 46-inch and under class.

C. L. Ritchie of Warren, first; Paul Milhbach of Akron, second, and Ed Bastien of Ingomar, third, in the 46-to-50-inch class. Judges were Ernest Nelsen, Floyd Shane and Paul Morrow.

Tractor pulling contest winners Wednesday, first, second, third were: W. R. Chaney, Harry Anderson and Lee Snyder in Class A; Allen McAdoo, Bob Harshberger and Jim Miller in Class B; Eugene Cheverant, Glenn Campbell and Richard Miller in Class C; and Cheverant, Joe Brazzoli and Dan Bucan in Class D.

Cat That Attacked Girl Not Rabid, Test Shows

A cat that attacked a Summitville child Sunday was not rabid, the State Health Department reported today to the County Health Department at Lisbon, which sought an examination as a precautionary measure.

The cat attacked Deborah McCollough, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis McCollough. Bitten three times when she attempted to pick up the animal, she was treated by a Salineville physician.
